ing employees a sense of pride and self-esteem.

"As winners of the Canada Export Award, companies are recognized not only as leaders in international trade, but as leaders in Canada's future economic prosperity and growth. It is only through the dedication and innovation of all Canadians that this country's renewed prosperity will be achieved," added Wilson.

In the words of L. David Caplan, President and Chief Executive Officer, Pratt & Whitney Canada, a 1991 award recipient: "It is always stimulating to see one's accomplishments being recognized. We are making sure that all our employees are aware of the Canada Export Award received by Pratt & Whitney Canada from the Canadian Government. It is really their award. I personally believe that initiatives such as these are necessary to create and maintain the competitive spirit needed for this country to succeed as an exporter."
