

Section 4: Department Organization and Symbols

Part A – Learning Objectives

The Department of Foreign Affairs and International Trade has many interrelated objectives that influence our activities both at home and abroad. In this section of the video we will look at the Department's structure and how it matches those objectives.

By the end of this section you should be able to:

- identify the responsibilities of the ministers and secretaries of state who have the portfolios for the Department;
- describe the role of the Executive Committee;
- give a general description of the activities performed in functional, geographic and core bureaus; and
- identify key Department symbols.
