

Military strength, economic and social health, interdependent - one to be achieved without sacrificing the other; that is the task ahead of us. To get the tanks and keep the tractors working, that is our national and international job for 1952.

---

s/c