

during the session. For the purposes of this order the business of supply shall consist of supply motions; main estimates; interim supply with the exceptions noted below; supplementary and additional estimates with the exception noted below; and supply bills based on the foregoing.

(d) On the first interim supply resolution introduced after the ninetieth sitting day of the session and all subsequent stages of the supply bill based thereon there shall be a limitation of three days; additional to the thirty-eight days specified above. On any further interim supply resolutions and bills based thereon there shall be no time limitation.

(e) The final supplementary or additional estimates to be introduced during the fiscal year and the subsequent stages of the supply bill based thereon shall be subject to no time limitation.

(f) For the purpose of the time limitations specified in this order a day allotted to supply shall be a day on which the business of supply stands as the first order of the day. Under any other circumstances a total of five hours shall be deemed to be the equivalent of one sitting day.

(g) When estimates are referred to standing committees they shall be referred without prejudice to the right of the Committee of Supply to consider those same estimates, whether or not the standing committees have reported on them.

6. That Standing Order 15 (4) be consequentially amended on a provisional basis to read as follows:

15(4). On any Monday, Tuesday or Thursday, notwithstanding the provisions of Section (3) of this Standing Order, the consideration of Private Members' Business shall be suspended when an order for resuming the Address Debate or the Budget Debate, an order for a motion 'That Mr. Speaker do now leave the Chair' for the House to go into Committee of Supply, or an order to go into Committee of the Whole on a money resolution, pursuant to Standing Order 61A, is set down as the first item of Government business in any such sitting.

7. That the Special Committee on Procedure of the House, the appointment of which is proposed in the first recommendation of this Report, should be required to consider the amendments necessary to the Standing Orders governing supply procedures, and in particular to consider ways and means for giving to the Opposition during the second session of the Twenty-Seventh Parliament an opportunity to select the order in which departmental estimates will be discussed.

8. That the Clerk of the House be hereby authorized to edit the Standing Orders as provisionally amended in regard to matters of form, numbering, etc., and to reprint the same in such number as he may deem to be necessary for use in the next session of this parliament; and that the provisions of Standing Order 66 be suspended in relation thereto.
