

Adjournment Debate

evidence that this in fact is occurring at the moment. If the hon. member, or any other Canadian feels there is some evidence that would warrant an investigation by the director under the Combines Investigation Act in relation to collusion or price fixing we would be the first ones who would want to know about it and to take action under the legislation which now exists.

The Acting Speaker (Mrs. Morin): The motion to adjourn the House is now deemed to have been adopted. Accordingly, this House stands adjourned until tomorrow at 11 a.m.

Motion agreed to and the House adjourned at 10.40 p.m.
