

Hon. Mr. Macdonald: Honourable senators, have I the leave of the house to move that the report be adopted?

Some Hon. Senators: Yes.

Hon. Mr. Macdonald: I so move.

Honourable senators, I might point out that on most committees there are vacancies, and if any honourable members prefer to serve on some committee other than one to which they are appointed, their names may be added. Honourable members will have an opportunity to examine the appointments to the committee more carefully when the report appears in the Minutes of the Proceedings and Hansard tomorrow.

The motion was agreed to.

PRESIDENT EISENHOWER

ADDRESS TO MEMBERS OF SENATE AND HOUSE OF COMMONS INCLUDED IN TODAY'S REPORT OF DEBATES

Hon. Mr. Macdonald: Honourable senators, I believe that in days gone by it has been the custom to print in Hansard any address which has been delivered to a joint meeting of the members of this house and the members of the other house. Honourable members will recall that on Saturday of last week a very notable Address was delivered by the President of the United States, and I would move, with leave of the Senate, that the text of that address be printed in our Hansard.

There were other addresses delivered on that day also—by the Prime Minister, the Honourable the Speaker of this house and the Honourable the Speaker of the other house. These addresses also should be covered by my motion.

The motion was agreed to.

See Appendix to today's report.
