

22nd Cont. / George sent in great agony & seem'd to lay himself down & breathing hard & seldom open'd his Eyes & all the Time burning with a fever in which he had on him since Wednesday 21st at 11 at Night sent for Dr. H. who when he came was astonish'd & gave him up & so did every one about him. Myself went to bed & about 4 in the Morning of the 23rd got up to look at him & found him alter & begin to be in Convulsions. I sent directly for my Mother, & also for Mr. Bennett who came about Day light & pray'd by him.

Mr. & Mrs. Bennett & myself stay'd all day to comfort the Mother & myself as he was given over & expected his death every Minute at night about half past 11 at last he departed this miserable World for a better.

24th sent for Mr. Andrews & order'd his coffin &c which was done, Mr. & Mrs. Bennett & my Mother ~~was~~ all this day with us.

25th this day finish'd the last of my dear Boy by Burying him as decent as the family could afford. so stay'd for the fore with a Number of People, my Mother accomp. me all this Mourner - gave Husband & self love to Mrs. Mr. Ellis Mr. Bennett Mr. Murdoch &c.
