

CONTENTS.

| | |
|---|-------------|
| INTRODUCTION.—On the Causes of Emigration | PAGE vii |
|---|-------------|

CHAPTER I.

| | |
|---|---|
| The Author's motives for Emigrating—Preparation for the Voyage —Embarkation, and Passage out | 1 |
|---|---|

CHAPTER II.

| | |
|---|---|
| Arrival at Baltimore—Description of the Town, its Inhabitants, and Customs—Excursions in the Neighbourhood, and continued residence—with a variety of Miscellaneous Remarks | 8 |
|---|---|

CHAPTER III.

| | |
|---|----|
| Journey from Baltimore to Buffaloe and Canada, in the Steam Boat, to the Head of the Bay—By land to Philadelphia—Pro- duce and Cultivation of the Country—Further proceeding: | 27 |
|---|----|

CHAPTER IV.

| | |
|---|----|
| Arrival in Upper Canada—Comparison of the State on each side of Lake Erie—Introduction to Col. Talbot—Inspection of Lots of Land—Engagement with him—His Establishment—Modes of Cultivation—Natural Produce and various places noticed | 36 |
|---|----|

CHAPTER V.

| | |
|---|----|
| Col. Talbot's Farm, Garden, and Orchards described—Journey to Fort Erie—The Country, its Produce and Resources | 45 |
|---|----|

CHAPTER VI.

| | |
|--|----|
| Departure from Colonel Talbot's — Road-making, and a Settler's Establishment described — Capabilities of the Country, and Manners of the Residents noticed—Arrival at Ancaster, and Journey to York | 68 |
|--|----|