

sorry I was going away, though, having understood the cause, it was to be expected ; and he added other kind words. Lord Bathurst was present at the interview. I thanked his Majesty for the many tokens of kindness with which he had honoured me during so long a residence at his Court. He inquired as to the time of my embarkation, probable duration of the voyage, health of my family, and so on ; the conversation lasting fifteen or twenty minutes, when I took my leave.

FINIS.

2