

My suggestion that the Limit Holder be invited to leave what wood would be there when the Reserves would be created is certainly to assist the Settler, and if, as I stated above, the Limit Holder would be willing to accept lands elsewhere in compensation for the wood that he would give up for the Settler, I think it would be to the advantage of the latter and it would be optional with the former to accept or refuse it.

The remarks made by myself as well as by the Honorable Minister tend to one object only, to solve this great question of the Limit Holder and of the Settler.

To say the least, it is very annoying to see the Representative of the Limit Holders' Association circulating such an unjustifiable Pamphlet, in order to prejudice the public mind against parties who have the interests of the Association at heart as well as those of the Settler.

I sincerely hope that after these few explanations the writer of the said Pamphlet will correct his statements. If not, I would ask him to show a single word uttered by the