

The image shows the front cover of an old book. The cover is decorated with a marbled paper pattern. The primary color is a deep, muted red or terracotta. Overlaid on this are intricate, dark blue or black veins that form a complex, organic, cell-like or web-like structure. The pattern is dense and covers the entire surface. The book's spine is visible on the left side, showing a plain, aged, light brown or tan material. A small, rectangular white paper label is affixed to the lower-left corner of the cover. The label contains four lines of black, sans-serif text: 'KE', '72', 'C38', and 'Bill A.'. The overall appearance is that of a well-used, antique volume.
