HAVANA April 7.—Jess Willard, the new heavyweight champion puglist of the world, left Havana with his party at eleven o'clock this morning for New York, where he is due to arrive on Friday evening. The party will travel via Key West, Jacksonville, Charleston, Richmond and Washington.

The crowd at the dock to say good-bye to the champion was so great that the salling arrangements of the steamer were interfered with, and the vessel, which should have departed at nine o'clock, did not get away until two hours later.

Jack Johnson, who came down to the steamer, shook hands with his conqueror and said:

"Jess, I wish you all the luck you could wish for yourself. I hope you can make a heap of money. Be sure to save it."

Willard answered with his best wishes, and said:

"I will see you in Europe."

that his jaw and his body were too tough.

"Johnson put up a wonderful fight to the twentieth round, but age stepped in then and defeated him."

A London syndicate has offered a purse of $20,000 for a fight between Jess Willard, who won the heavyweight champlonship from Jack Johnson, and Frank Moran of Pittsburg. Willard was offered $1000 for his traveling expenses.

Moran was defeated by Johnson in twenty rounds on points in Paris on June 27 of last year.

BAN PUT ON TWO TO THE ROYALS

There is a strong likelihood that Gene Dale, the elongated right-hand pitcher of last season's Royals, will be back this year. Dale was drafted by Cincinnati, with the understanding that the Royals should get first call on him if he falled to deliver in the National. It has been intimated to President Sam that the Redi are about ready to send the elongated one back, so that another addition to the Royals' already large hurling staff ilkely. Manager Billy Cristall of the Hamilt Club has succeeded in his attempt to land Tiffany, the big first-baseman, from the Wisconsin-Illinois League, the much-sought guardian of the initial sack sending on his signed contract Tuesday. Ottawa was also hot-foot after Tiffany, but Cristell has them to him. Cristall beat them to him.

The Canadian League pitcher who was being sought by the Hamilton Club is Ken Tracey of the Petes. Tracey was one of the mainstays of the Liftlock crew and, backed up by a good team, would win many games. Cristall has sent him

Ottawa Free Press: Shag has a pretty good nucleus for his 1915 squad right now. He requires one good outfleider and a shortstop, and his team will be complete. George Dunlop, the crack London shortstop of 1913, who was sold to Cleveland, is free for some unknown reason, and was anxious to join the Senstors. Just what chance Ottawa has of getting Frankie Fuller, the Detroit recruit, will be better known in a week's time, when the Tigers come north. Fuller has been alternating at short with Ownie Bush in the spring training games down on the alternating at short with Ownle Bush in the spring training games down on the guif coast, and has been shaping up pretty good. He might be another Mitchell. Shag says he isn't bothering any about London, and while he is sure Reisling will have a good club, he contends he lost his best player last year in Looey Bierbauer.

Manager Dad Stewart of St. Thomas has signed Gil Forgue, former shortstop for the Saints, and afterwards with the Brantford Club. Forgue halls from Pro-vidence, R.I., and was the class of the Canadian League the opening year around the short field. Severe injuries have impaired his work more or less the Little (Leamington): executive committee, L. L. Odette (Tilbury), D. S. Bastene (Leamington), W. A. Clark (Essex), T. B. Adams (Harrow) and H. Y. Pickering (Amherstburg).

The Ottawa Baseball Club has several shortstops in view, but will not decide on one for a week or two. Steele, a third baseman, who played in the south last season, is anxious for a chance, and may succeed Dusty Bullock, if the latter goes to St. Thomas, as expected.

Only Friendly Games Of Cricket in England

At the recent meeting of the Kent Cricket Club in London, Lord Harris, discussing the cricket situation in England during the war, declared that no county matches would be played during the coming summer. This was inevitable, said England's prominent cricket authority, for, even if it was the intention of the followers of the sport to arrange fixtures, followers of the sport to arrange fixtures, it would be impossible to get tegether a capable team because of the fact that so many of England's cricket players are being engaged in military duties. Woolley, another famous English cricketer, lately offered his services to his country, but was rejected because he was unable to pass the medical examination.

Lord Harris pointed out that considerable expenses would be incurred during the coming summer and hoped that the members would help the club by keeping up their subscriptions. The county ground at Canterbury and other grounds would be open for practice and it is quite likely that with the aid of schools and soldiers, some friendly games would be played. Those of the professionals who were available would have engagements offered to them as bowlers on the usual terms.

F. W. Furley, the honorary treasurer, said that the deficit of last season was the first the club had experienced in eighteen years. It was entirely due to the war, the home matches at Canterbury and elsewhere being ruined.
