

NOW READY.

Catechism of the Methodist Church of Canada

Containing a Summary of Christian Doctrine.

PRICE, 40 CENTS PER DOZEN POSTPAID.

THE new Catechism of our Church, prepared by a Committee of the General Conference, and under its authority, is now issued. It is intended by the Conference to take the place especially of No. 2 of the former series.

This Catechism is designed to be such a statement of our doctrines as our Sunday-school scholars and Epworth Leaguers should commit to memory. Indeed, it would be of great benefit if older members of the Church would give it careful consecutive study.

For a time the former series of our Catechisms will be on sale at all our Methodist Book Rooms.

Please state when ordering whether Old or New edition is wanted.

GEMS OF HOPE

In Memory of the Faithful Departed.

Selected and Arranged

By FANNY BATE.

Cloth, 75c. Fancy cloth, gilt edges, $1.00.

From the Countess Aberdeen :

"I think your very prettily got up little book, having for its object the remembrance of the birthdays of those whom we have lost to a better world, is very charmingly designed for its purpose and I hope will meet with all the success you could desire."

Legislation and History of Separate Schools in Upper Canada.

From 1841 until the close of Dr. Ryerson's administration of the Education Department of Ontario in 1876.

—BY—

J. GEORGE HODGINS, LL.D., F.R.G.S.

Paper covers, $1.00; Cloth, $1.25.

"The subject is profoundly interesting, and it is treated in an admirable manner. . . . It is the accuracy and fulness of the author's information which is evident in every chapter . . . that gives it its unique character and its very great value."—REV. W. S. BLACKSTOCK, D.D., in the Christian Guardian.

WILLIAM BRIGGS, - WESLEY BUILDINGS, - TORONTO, ONT,

C. W. COATES, Montreal.

JUST PUBLISHED.

Brief Outlines of Christian Doctrine

By REV. E. H. DEWART, D.D.

Price, in Paper Covers, 20c.; in Cloth, 30c.

In this pamphlet of sixty-seven pages there is a brief exposition and defence of the central doctrines of religion. The style is plain and popular. The definitions of the doctrines, and the proofs of their truth, are well adapted to the requirements of the present time. The sections on the Importance of Right Beliefs, the Atonement, and the Inspiration and Credentials of the Scriptures, will be read with special interest. Though intended for Senior Epworth Leagues and Bible Classes, this little manual will be very helpful to young ministers, local preachers and all Bible students, whether in the school or in the home.

Sketch of the

Life of Samuel Morris

(Prince Kaboo.)

By REV. T. C. READE, M.A., D.D.

President of Taylor University,
Upland, Iowa.

Single copy, 10c.; 7 copies, 50c.; 17 copies, $1.00; 100 copies, $5.00.

The Editor writes that in this sketch his "only desire was that people might know what wonders God can do when He finds a willing, obedient, confiding subject, through whom and in whom to work."

This story is one that cannot fail to do good. It has had wide circulation in the United States, and should be spread from end to end of Canada. Get a copy, and help to circulate this touching story.

The Unnamed Lake

AND OTHER POEMS

By FREDERICK GEORGE SCOTT,

Author of "My Lattice," "The Soul's Quest," etc.

Printed on superior deckle-edge paper, and attractively bound in white and roan, with title in gold.

Price, 75 cents, Postpaid.

"A new treasure of Canadian song. . . . Beautiful phrases strike the eye everywhere."—Montreal Witness.

"Noteworthy for purity of thought and style, and a simple imagery that is highly effective."

S. F. HUESTIS, Halifax.