

CHAPTER VII.

Captain Hall's Sickness, Death, and Burial	Page. 173-185
--	------------------

CHAPTER VIII.

Hall's First Interest in Arctic Exploration—His Expedition of 1860-62 and its Results—Relics of Frobisher's Expeditions—Hall's Second Expedition, 1864-69—His Letter to Judge C. P. Daly Giving its Results—Object of this Review—The Scientific Corps, the Officers, and the Crew of the Polaris	189-214
--	---------

CHAPTER IX.

Employment of the Crew of the Polaris during the Sickness of Captain Hall.....	217-223
---	---------

CHAPTER X.

Command of the Polaris Devolves on Captain Budington—Consultation between Captain Budington and Dr. Bessels—Lime Juice Regularly Served—A Severe Storm—The Polaris Adrift—Protected by Providence Berg—A Southwest Gale—The Polaris Driven toward the Shore—Thanksgiving Day.....	227-249
--	---------

CHAPTER XI.

A Busy Crew—Halos and Auroras—Strain on the Vessel—Making Sledges—Christmas Eve—Christmas Dinner—Situation of the Polaris —Discomforts—Welcoming the New Year—Amount of Coal on Hand.....	253-271
--	---------

CHAPTER XII.

Blasting Ice About the Vessel—Pendulum Observations—Increasing Twilight—Auroras—Health of the Crew—Open Water in Robeson Strait—Short Excursions from the Polaris —Observations with the Magnetometer—Heavy Gales.....	275-292
---	---------

CHAPTER XIII.

A Meteor—Auroras and Magnetic Disturbances—Amusements—Paraselenæ—Dr. Bessels' Sketch of a Plan of Operations—Washington's Birthday—Return of the Sun	295-316
--	---------

CHAPTER XIV.

Winds during March—Strain on the Vessel—Increasing Sunlight—Photograph of the Polaris —Land and Water Animals—Ferocity of the Dogs—Sledge-Journey to the South	319-333
---	---------

CHAPTER XV.

Selection of the Boats' Crews—Return of the Sledge-party—Account of their Journey—Description of an Igloo—Petermann Fiord—Cape Morton—Cape Bryan—Kennedy Channel—A Bear Killed—Signs of Scurvy—Musk-ox Hunting—The Sun at Midnight—Highest Point Reached on Land—Boats Taken to Cape Lupton.....	337-363
--	---------