

THE WORKS OF SIR RABINDRANATH TAGORE

Personality

Preparing

An interesting series of lectures among which are "What Is Art," "Meditation," "My School," "The Second Birth," and "The World of Personality."

The Cycle of Spring

Preparing

Tagore represents a rare development of dramatic genius, one peculiarly Indian in character. In his plays there is little striving after ordinary stage effects, no bid for a curtain, no holding up of the moment of suspense, in order to force a sensation with which we are so familiar on our American stage. He attains a naturalness of style, a simplicity of mode, a fluidity of movement, which is congenially influenced by the musical affinity of his themes and the leisurely drama of the open air and the courtyard.

Sacrifice and Other Plays

Preparing

A book containing four separate plays consisting of "Sacrifice," "King and Queen," "The Ascetic," and "Malini."

THE MACMILLAN COMPANY

Publishers

64-66 Fifth Avenue

New York