GRAND PRIOR ADDRESSES
ST. JOHN'S AMBULANCE Duke of Connaught Attends Annual Meeting and Praises Work of Canadian Branch.
His Royal Highness the Duke of Connaught attended the annual meeting of the Ontario Provincial Council of the Canadian branch of the St. John Ambulance Association in the Normal School yesterday afternoon, and gave an excellent address, telling of the good the Ambulance Association did and declaring he wished that more would take the course in first aid that the society gave.
He spoke from the large number of people here that one and all are in sympathy with the work being done by the St. John Ambulance Association," he said. "It is a very important work and I do not know of a country where it can be of such value as in Canada. You have large cities, large railways and large factories. Accidents often happen in these places, and especially on the farms, far from doctors, is a knowledge of first aid valuable.
Everyone Should Know.
"There are great advantages in knowing first aid and it needs no extraordinary intellect to learn—only a little application.
"I would like to see all our firemen, police and railway people have certificates showing they are qualified in the work of first aid. Many accidents happen on the street, at fairs and on railways where there is no doctor handy, when first aid is extremely useful. Often lives have been saved by the application of the simple rules of first aid.
"I hope the ladies whom I see here today will take a deep interest in the work. They can do a great deal in time of need if they know how.
"The Duchess of Connaught belongs to the order and she has five certificates. She asked me to tell you that she was extremely sorry she could not come here. Another engagement, at the General Hospital, prevented it.
"The duchess asked me to say that she was in sympathy with the meeting and is sorry she could not come." The society passed votes of thanks to the members of the medical profession who had helped them in the past, and warmly thanked Dr. C. J.
Copp for the active interest he had taken in the work.
The duke presented certificates to the nurses who have just passed the final examinations in first aid.
New Officers.
Officers were elected for the coming year as follows:
Patron—His Honor the Lieutenant-Governor of Ontario.
President—Col. James Mason, Toronto.
Vice-presidents—Lt.-Col. M. Cartshore, London; Hon. Wallace Nesbitt, K.C., Toronto.
Hon. secretary-treasurer—Charles J.
Copp, M.D., C.M., 96 Wellesley-street, Toronto.
Among those present were: Lieut-Gov. J. M. Gibson, Col. Mason (in the chair), W. K. George, Sir Henry Pe-att, Hon. Dr. Fyfe and Major Low-ther.
H.R.H. AT THE UNIVERSITY
Duke of Connaught Will Receive L.L.D. at Convocation Hall.
On account of the conferring of L.L.
D. honors, the Duke of Connaught will be closed today. President Pasoner announces that no lectures or classes will be held in any of the faculties while the duke is in the city.
Entering by the east gate, the royal visitors will drive thru the university grounds to convocation hall. The students will line the route thru the grounds and will be kept in position by marshals appointed by the under-

TEMPERANCE PARTY
APPEAL FOR SUPPORT Regret That Neither Leader is Advanced Enough and So Resign to Inevitable.

Deplored that neither of the political parties has to-day a policy that measures up to the will of the people and the standard of their declaration on the liquor traffic situation in this province, the Ontario branch of the Dominion Alliance have issued a manifesto asking voters to rally round the candidate who believes in temperance.
The declaration was the chief result of the meeting held Monday night.
It also prays support in the local option and fifteen repeal contests that come off in January.
In part, the manifesto reads:
"The sentiment of the rank and file of the electors is undoubtedly in advance of the party platforms upon the temperance question. Did the temperance men in each party but make their influence felt as they could and should, this situation would be changed and badly needed legislation would be secured.
"Believing that this issue is of importance and that the only method by which we can secure the results we desire is by the election to the legislature of representatives who stand for the principles we advocate, we call upon the electors of the Province of Ontario to work and vote for the enactment of effective legislation against the bar-room evil, and who will hold themselves free from party dictation in relation to such legislation.
"We would urge all right-thinking citizens to put their temperance principles before any mere party preference in the approaching contests."

DUKE AND DUCHESS
VISIT LORETTO ABBEY
Scene of Beauty at Catholic College Arranged for Royal Visitors.
Loretto Abbey, on Wellington-street, was the scene yesterday afternoon of one of the most charming and interesting receptions that have been yet given to the Duke and Duchess of Connaught. A great number of prominent Roman Catholic priests, the sisters of the abbey and the pupils welcomed their royal highnesses.
The royal couple were received by Monsieur McCann, Dr. Kidd, the mother superior, Mother Alexander, and Mother Gonzaga, Mother Delphine, Mother Estelle and Mother Paul assisting.
The duke's party was composed of himself, the duchess, Lieutenant-Governor Gibson, Miss Gibson, Major Sharkey and Major Lowther.
Makes Wise Acquaintance.
The duke and the duchess were presented to all of the priests and to the graduates and the immediate undergraduates of the college. An address beautifully illustrated by one of the sisters was presented to the duke, and he replied. Bouquets were presented to both of their highnesses.
The scene was very pretty. The girls of the choir were grouped on the stage each row a little over a head higher than the one beneath. Below the choir were the boys and up the girls.
Miss Anna Kelly, daughter of Judge Kelly, and Miss Helen O'Brien, presented the flowers. Miss Edith Smith of Montreal read the address of welcome to the duke and duchess. Miss Hope Morgan sang a song in German.
Miss Julia O'Sullivan gave a violin solo. The choir sang Ave Maria. Miss Louise Foy singing the solo part.
The duke, in his reply to the address of welcome, said that the musical abilities of the choir sang Ave Maria. He praised themselves and their teachers. He wished all every success in their future lives, speaking particularly to the graduates.
Many Attend.
Among those present were: Father Harley, Father G. A. Williams, Rev.
Dr. Jeffcott, Father Wedlock, Father Stanley, Father McGraw, Father Rohieder, Father Kidd, administrator of the diocese; Dean John L. Hand, Rev.
Dr. Tracey, Father Coyne, Father Fench, Father Heydon, Father Mc-Caffery, Father Regan of Pittsburgh, Father Egan, Father McRae, Father Mineshan of Toronto, and Father Minahan of Albion, Father O'Leary, Dr.
John Cruise, and others.
Their royal highnesses were conducted on arrival to the room in which the late King Edward was entertained 51 years ago. Princess Louise, sister of the duke, was also entertained there in 1901.
