

GEN. CURRIE THANKS WORKERS FOR ARMY

Canadian Commander Formally Expresses Gratitude of Soldiers for Help.

C.A.P. Correspondence. London, April 1.—Those who devote spare time to assisting the provision of comforts for the Canadian troops at the front will be gratified by the following letter from General Sir Arthur Currie to Mr. Colmer:

"It gives me great pleasure to have this opportunity of expressing to you my own deep sense of gratitude, and that of the ranks of the Canadian Corps, for the untiring efforts of the Canadian War Controlling Association on your behalf. In the wonderful way in which you are doing you touch the daily lives of the men in the trenches in the most pleasant way, and your abundant supply of practical gifts has contributed in very large measure to their comfort, happiness and health."

"Please accept my very best wishes for the continued and increasing success of your splendid association, and my assurance that your labors on behalf of the Canadian troops are most highly appreciated by us all."

The latest movements and new postings in the Canadian corps are: D. D. Cornett (Pres.), appointed senior chaplain for Seaforth area; Major Rev. L. W. Moffit (Meth.), to Edinburgh Hospital area; Capt. W. W. McCreedy, to Seaforth area; Major Rev. A. D. Greene, C.E., from Witley to Shorecliffe for temporary duty; A. E. Hagar (Meth.), from Witley to Shorecliffe for temporary duty.

At a Buckingham Palace investiture, the King bestowed the Military Cross on undermentioned Canadians in addition to those already cited (infantry, except where otherwise specified):

Major James Miller, Thomas Taylor; Captains Samuel Lunt, John Gaid, Wallace Gibson, Philip Neale, Gliddin Campbell, William Cooper, Eric Findlay, Francis Hanington (field artillery), Geo. Smith, Rev. Harold McEwan (chaplain), Lieut. George Douglas (machine guns), Francis Murphy, John Raymond, John Ernest (artillery), Andrew Gillis (field artillery), Edward Hart (general artillery), James Done Millidge (field artillery), Hugh Pearson.

Commander J. B. Kitson, R.N., who won the D.S.O. in the Jutland battle, and is looked upon as one of the most brilliant of our younger naval officers, was Sunday became the father of twin boys, Sidney and Gordon, at the late Lord Strathcona, Canada's G.O.M. Miss Adelaide H. Grenside, B.A., of the University of Toronto, is the wife of staff of Munton, Morris, King & Co., London, with the object of being articulated to them as international law adviser. He is supplemented by articles under the Soldiers Act, which professional is thrown open to women.

NEWS OF LABOR

SKILLED BOTTLEMAKERS REPLACED BY MACHINES

The Dominion Glass Bottle Co., Ltd., with offices and plant at the foot of Dovercourt road, has had to close down owing to the difficulty in the work involved in the manufacture of the bottles. The lay-off will affect 447 workmen, and the company may be able to employ as many as 150 in the future as in the past. He replied that he did not think so.

A member of the Glass Bottlemakers' Union stated that he believed the last hand-blown bottle had been turned out a few days ago. "I understand that the Dominion Glass Co. intends to get in new engines which will both increase and improve the number and quality of bottles," said this man last night. "The day of the hand-blown bottle in this trade is over, so far as the hand craft is concerned. Machines have been invented with as many as fifteen arms, and each of these fifteen arms is said to be capable of turning out as many as 20 gross or nearly three thousand bottles every twelve hours. At this rate fifty workmen or a single machine would be able to turn out from 40,000 to 45,000 bottles a day. Now, three men working pretty hard might be able to turn out 60 gross, or say nine thousand bottles a day. One machine would take up about as much space as three men. I can say that in the old days the Montreal firm used to employ from a hundred and fifty to three hundred men in the business; today the same firm employs about 15 at the outside."

GOVERNMENT REGRETS.

The Workmen's Representative Committee has received communications from both Senator Robertson of Wexford and the private secretary of Sir Robert Borden, expressing regret that the Dominion Government recently refused to receive a deputation from the representatives of the committee. The following officers have been elected for the current year: president, Chas. L. Young; secretary, James Ralph; Tyler, James Carrick; trustees, J. Pamphill, J. Snider and J. Carrick. The committee is organizing throughout Ontario, and H. G. Fester, of Hamilton, reported that a branch was in process of formation in that city.

CIVIC EMPLOYEES' UNION WILL ASK CONCILIATION

The Civic Employees' Union of Toronto at a mass meeting held in the Labor Temple last evening decided to call for a board of conciliation to deal with their grievances with the city council. The council had refused to receive a deputation at its meeting on Thursday, and had also refused to provide for an increase in wages retroactive from January 1.

Why Spring Brings Out Freckles and Eruptions

"The sudden appearance of freckles, slight eruptions or fine lines at this season is attributed by scientists to the 'actinic ray,' which is unusually active in the spring months. Where the skin is so affected by this actinic ray, it will procure an ounce of common little of it before a drug store, apply it when the skin is cold, and next morning, minute flaky skin particles come with it. The entire outer coating is removed in this way in a week or two, with all its defects. The new skin that grows is smooth, clear, fresh looking. No pain or inconvenience accompanies this simple treatment."

PRODUCTION COMMITTEE MAKES FURTHER PLANS

Mrs. Courtice took the chair at the second meeting of the school board production committee held at the administration building yesterday afternoon. Plans were formulated to put into effect those resolutions which were passed March 20. It was agreed that a sub-committee of the committee was to arouse interest, to stimulate activity, and to direct the necessary work of production, all of which could be best accomplished by dividing the city into inspectional districts, appointing a sub-committee for each inspectorate. The secretary was instructed to write to each sub-committee, which was given favorable consideration.

POULTRY ASSOCIATION HOLDS ROUSING MEETING

The North Toronto Poultry Association held a rousing rally in the Orange Hall last night, the place being filled to the doors. The chair was occupied by President Burden, and following the answering of the question box, which included all kinds of queries on how to hatch and care for chickens, there was a practical talk on the raising of poultry. The speaker, Miss Yeats of the poultry department of the Ontario Agricultural College.

While Miss Yeats has a preference for white Leghorns she can see numerous possibilities in every well known breed, providing the care and attention necessary are given. She was largely abandoned the use of the brooder, substituting the hover, which was cheaper and more serviceable. She gave a practical talk on small garden production, showing by means of several screens just what she had done on her own garden at Port Credit, reproducing in a small space the value of year-old grass-ward manure, for fertilizing, and the various uses of such top dressing. All the old standbys, such as spinach, lettuce, radish, celery, tomatoes, onions, and beans, were recommended. Nothing was so good for young chickens as well as grown people as green stuff.

The objective in poultry raising in Canada is to produce a reserve of 80,000,000 dozen eggs to start the winter with, and the speaker will do this, either by last night's meeting is any indication.

The executive is composed of Messrs. Cuttler, Bickie, Kent, Patterson, Cherry, Noyes, and Margareta, and W. J. Muir is the secretary. The question of extending some recognition in the way of the district will be kept in mind by the executive, and it will be a matter of surprise several of these are donated by enterprising and wealthy north end citizens.

FOR SOLDIERS' COMFORTS.

Owing to the death of Mrs. J. L. Chambers, who was a member of a committee which conducted a patriotic dance recently, the women of the committee have taken upon themselves the duty of directing future events. The first of a series of dances is being given at the suggestion of the newly-formed committee. The proceeds of the night in Eagle Hall, Weston. The proceeds will be devoted to comforts for the soldiers.

PUPILS TO HAVE GARDEN.

Weston Horticultural Society Has Secured Property for Their Use. The "children's committee" of the Weston Horticultural Society has secured the vacant property adjoining the town hall for a school garden for the benefit of the pupils of the school. The garden will be used for the purpose of teaching the pupils the value of the soil and the benefits of the garden. The garden will be used for the purpose of teaching the pupils the value of the soil and the benefits of the garden.

NEW MEMBERS INITIATED.

Local 1756 of the Ship's Carpenters and Caulkers at a largely attended meeting held last evening at the Labor Temple initiated 15 new members. The convention of delegates from locals all the way from Port Arthur to Kingston will be held at the Labor Temple shortly.

CHURCH OF THE ADVENT.

Last night's vestry meeting of the Church of the Advent, Fritchard avenue, reported a net income of $178.15. The wardens showed $80.20 as the total receipts, and disbursements $62.05, leaving a balance of $178.15. The wardens and vestry members were reported to the meeting by Mr. A. Stearns, John Jarvis and J. T. Morris.

EUCHE AND DANCE.

Under the auspices of the Oakwood Branch, Independent Labor Party, a euchre and dance was held last evening in the hall of the Oakwood avenue. Fred Norman, president of the party, was in charge. An excellent program was rendered by the local talent, and the evening was a success. There was a large attendance, and the proceeds will be devoted to the branch fund.

SCORE'S CLOTHES THE "HALL MARK" FOR CHARACTER AND QUALITY.

The morning coat—the coat of coats—must possess the "hall mark" of character and quality. The integrity of the material, the durability of the construction, and the personality of the wearer. You are guaranteed to be the best in the hall mark in Score's clothes, and you may have proof of it in the morning coat and waistcoat. Score & Son, Limited, 77 King street west.

VERDICT ACCIDENTAL DEATH.

Robert Freeman Evidently Fell While Cleaning Brass Fittings. "Accidental death" was the verdict returned by the jury in the case of Robert Freeman, who was found dead in the bottom of an elevator shaft in the Canadian Railway Company's building last night. Freeman was employed as an elevator operator.

SPRING WEATHER HARD ON BABY

The Canadian spring weather—one day mild and bright; the next raw and blustery—is extremely hard on the baby. Conditions are such that the mother cannot take the little one out for the fresh air so much to be desired. He is confined to the house, which is often over-heated, and he and she, and the military and Toronto stomach and bowels become disordered. The mother should give a safe remedy for the fresh air so much to be desired. He is confined to the house, which is often over-heated, and he and she, and the military and Toronto stomach and bowels become disordered. The mother should give a safe remedy for the fresh air so much to be desired.

DRAMA OF QUEBEC STAGED IN HOUSE

Ultimately the enlistment under the act must be quite large. "We are in time of war," Sir Robert continued, "and it is there to be a riot in Quebec or anywhere else because a young man had to telephone a message from the police station?"

Fire Underwriters' Association Decide 'Certain Risks' Are Unprofitable.

After a thorough investigation into the records of fire losses during a period of years the Canadian Fire Underwriters' Association has decided that there are classes of unprofitable risks which demand that a higher rate be charged. As a result, a number of pamphlets for distribution to all teachers.

The next special session will be held on Tuesday evening.

ESCAPED FROM POLICE; ARRESTED IN LONDON

John Roberts, who was arrested by the London police yesterday, and another man named Alfred Burgess, who is now serving time for the offence, were caught by Detectives Cronin and Stuart last December in a College street fur store trying to dispose of a large quantity of valuable furs. When the Queen's Park where he disappeared, the man submitted to a search, and was found to be carrying a revolver in his pocket. He then fled at Stewart and Cronin, and was arrested in a passing motor car and forced the driver to drive him to Queen's Park where he disappeared in the trees. Detective Cronin left for London last night to bring him back.

Here he jumped in a passing motor car and forced the driver to drive him to Queen's Park where he disappeared in the trees. Detective Cronin left for London last night to bring him back.

Local 1756 of the Ship's Carpenters and Caulkers at a largely attended meeting held last evening at the Labor Temple initiated 15 new members. The convention of delegates from locals all the way from Port Arthur to Kingston will be held at the Labor Temple shortly.

WAR SUMMARY

THE DAY'S EVENTS REVIEWED

The chief fighting yesterday produced north of the Somme without the enemy achieving any success. A profound calm south of the Somme succeeded the preceding day's struggle. The British yesterday withstood an attack from a point north of the Somme, but were able to repulse the enemy handily to make any progress in this sector he tried to advance, and the British held their ground.

The enemy, however, has got himself a bad position for exploiting his territorial gains. He is now in a position of an awkward salient south of the Somme, and in order to obtain sufficient elbow room he must widen this salient by either capturing Arras and Vimy Ridge or showing his lines south of the Somme. The British are now holding him in a vise and he has been unable to escape from his jaws. This will not prevent him from making frantic attempts to break through the lines, but he will have to make a long and hard struggle over a long period, and the battle may therefore last even longer than any previous one. It may last so long as to tax the allied people's limits of endurance, for the German people know the consequences of defeat. The leaders have frankly told us that they will punish them for what they have done. The past behavior of the German army has been broken up, and the German army has been broken up, and the German army has been broken up.

In Italy the fighting is chiefly desultory, skirmishes between patrols, and the Italian army has been broken up, and the German army has been broken up, and the German army has been broken up.

Major-General Newburn, Col. Machin has nothing to do with the military council.

Mr. DeBorhy, "Col. Machin was the representative of the military service council, and we have no apologies to make."

Major-General Newburn, Col. Machin has nothing to do with the military council.

Mr. DeBorhy, "Col. Machin was the representative of the military service council, and we have no apologies to make."

Major-General Newburn, Col. Machin has nothing to do with the military council.

Mr. DeBorhy, "Col. Machin was the representative of the military service council, and we have no apologies to make."

Major-General Newburn, Col. Machin has nothing to do with the military council.

Mr. DeBorhy, "Col. Machin was the representative of the military service council, and we have no apologies to make."

Major-General Newburn, Col. Machin has nothing to do with the military council.

Mr. DeBorhy, "Col. Machin was the representative of the military service council, and we have no apologies to make."

Major-General Newburn, Col. Machin has nothing to do with the military council.

Mr. DeBorhy, "Col. Machin was the representative of the military service council, and we have no apologies to make."

Major-General Newburn, Col. Machin has nothing to do with the military council.

Mr. DeBorhy, "Col. Machin was the representative of the military service council, and we have no apologies to make."

FIRE INSURANCE RATES TO GO UP

After a thorough investigation into the records of fire losses during a period of years the Canadian Fire Underwriters' Association has decided that there are classes of unprofitable risks which demand that a higher rate be charged. As a result, a number of pamphlets for distribution to all teachers.

Factories and Larger Stores Will Be Affected, But Not Private Dwellings.

After a thorough investigation into the records of fire losses during a period of years the Canadian Fire Underwriters' Association has decided that there are classes of unprofitable risks which demand that a higher rate be charged. As a result, a number of pamphlets for distribution to all teachers.

The next special session will be held on Tuesday evening.

THIRD FROM FIRM KILLED AT FRONT

Word that Lieut. John A. Gibson, 28 years of age, who had been in the front since February, 1917, had died to his father, Charles Gibson, Woodstock, Ont. Lieut. Gibson was on a sea with the 126th Peel County Battalion, and later was transferred to the 116th Battalion, where he was acting as a captain for several months before being wounded. Just before the present German offensive, Lieut. Gibson had been in England qualifying for his commission.

Before leaving for overseas, Lieut. Gibson was with the Commercial Press, Limited, Colborne street, and was advertising manager. He was born at Woodstock, where his father, a blacksmith, lives on Ashdale avenue. Lieut. Gibson was killed at the front eight months ago. Lieut. Gibson is the third son of the Commercial Press, which has lost his life at the front.

Major-General Newburn, Col. Machin has nothing to do with the military council.

Mr. DeBorhy, "Col. Machin was the representative of the military service council, and we have no apologies to make."

Major-General Newburn, Col. Machin has nothing to do with the military council.

Mr. DeBorhy, "Col. Machin was the representative of the military service council, and we have no apologies to make."

Major-General Newburn, Col. Machin has nothing to do with the military council.

Mr. DeBorhy, "Col. Machin was the representative of the military service council, and we have no apologies to make."

Major-General Newburn, Col. Machin has nothing to do with the military council.

Mr. DeBorhy, "Col. Machin was the representative of the military service council, and we have no apologies to make."

Major-General Newburn, Col. Machin has nothing to do with the military council.

Mr. DeBorhy, "Col. Machin was the representative of the military service council, and we have no apologies to make."

Major-General Newburn, Col. Machin has nothing to do with the military council.

Mr. DeBorhy, "Col. Machin was the representative of the military service council, and we have no apologies to make."

Major-General Newburn, Col. Machin has nothing to do with the military council.

Mr. DeBorhy, "Col. Machin was the representative of the military service council, and we have no apologies to make."

Major-General Newburn, Col. Machin has nothing to do with the military council.

Mr. DeBorhy, "Col. Machin was the representative of the military service council, and we have no apologies to make."

Major-General Newburn, Col. Machin has nothing to do with the military council.

Mr. DeBorhy, "Col. Machin was the representative of the military service council, and we have no apologies to make."

Major-General Newburn, Col. Machin has nothing to do with the military council.

Mr. DeBorhy, "Col. Machin was the representative of the military service council, and we have no apologies to make."

Major-General Newburn, Col. Machin has nothing to do with the military council.

DRAMA OF QUEBEC STAGED IN HOUSE

Ultimately the enlistment under the act must be quite large. "We are in time of war," Sir Robert continued, "and it is there to be a riot in Quebec or anywhere else because a young man had to telephone a message from the police station?"

Fire Underwriters' Association Decide 'Certain Risks' Are Unprofitable.

After a thorough investigation into the records of fire losses during a period of years the Canadian Fire Underwriters' Association has decided that there are classes of unprofitable risks which demand that a higher rate be charged. As a result, a number of pamphlets for distribution to all teachers.

The next special session will be held on Tuesday evening.

ESCAPED FROM POLICE; ARRESTED IN LONDON

John Roberts, who was arrested by the London police yesterday, and another man named Alfred Burgess, who is now serving time for the offence, were caught by Detectives Cronin and Stuart last December in a College street fur store trying to dispose of a large quantity of valuable furs. When the Queen's Park where he disappeared, the man submitted to a search, and was found to be carrying a revolver in his pocket. He then fled at Stewart and Cronin, and was arrested in a passing motor car and forced the driver to drive him to Queen's Park where he disappeared in the trees. Detective Cronin left for London last night to bring him back.

Here he jumped in a passing motor car and forced the driver to drive him to Queen's Park where he disappeared in the trees. Detective Cronin left for London last night to bring him back.

Local 1756 of the Ship's Carpenters and Caulkers at a largely attended meeting held last evening at the Labor Temple initiated 15 new members. The convention of delegates from locals all the way from Port Arthur to Kingston will be held at the Labor Temple shortly.

WAR SUMMARY

THE DAY'S EVENTS REVIEWED

The chief fighting yesterday produced north of the Somme without the enemy achieving any success. A profound calm south of the Somme succeeded the preceding day's struggle. The British yesterday withstood an attack from a point north of the Somme, but were able to repulse the enemy handily to make any progress in this sector he tried to advance, and the British held their ground.

The enemy, however, has got himself a bad position for exploiting his territorial gains. He is now in a position of an awkward salient south of the Somme, and in order to obtain sufficient elbow room he must widen this salient by either capturing Arras and Vimy Ridge or showing his lines south of the Somme. The British are now holding him in a vise and he has been unable to escape from his jaws. This will not prevent him from making frantic attempts to break through the lines, but he will have to make a long and hard struggle over a long period, and the battle may therefore last even longer than any previous one. It may last so long as to tax the allied people's limits of endurance, for the German people know the consequences of defeat. The leaders have frankly told us that they will punish them for what they have done. The past behavior of the German army has been broken up, and the German army has been broken up, and the German army has been broken up.

In Italy the fighting is chiefly desultory, skirmishes between patrols, and the Italian army has been broken up, and the German army has been broken up, and the German army has been broken up.

Major-General Newburn, Col. Machin has nothing to do with the military council.

Mr. DeBorhy, "Col. Machin was the representative of the military service council, and we have no apologies to make."

Major-General Newburn, Col. Machin has nothing to do with the military council.

Mr. DeBorhy, "Col. Machin was the representative of the military service council, and we have no apologies to make."

Major-General Newburn, Col. Machin has nothing to do with the military council.

Mr. DeBorhy, "Col. Machin was the representative of the military service council, and we have no apologies to make."

Major-General Newburn, Col. Machin has nothing to do with the military council.

Mr. DeBorhy, "Col. Machin was the representative of the military service council, and we have no apologies to make."

Major-General Newburn, Col. Machin has nothing to do with the military council.

Mr. DeBorhy, "Col. Machin was the representative of the military service council, and we have no apologies to make."

Major-General Newburn, Col. Machin has nothing to do with the military council.

Mr. DeBorhy, "Col. Machin was the representative of the military service council, and we have no apologies to make."

Major-General Newburn, Col. Machin has nothing to do with the military council.

Mr. DeBorhy, "Col. Machin was the representative of the military service council, and we have no apologies to make."

DRAMA OF QUEBEC STAGED IN HOUSE

Ultimately the enlistment under the act must be quite large. "We are in time of war," Sir Robert continued, "and it is there to be a riot in Quebec or anywhere else because a young man had to telephone a message from the police station?"

Fire Underwriters' Association Decide 'Certain Risks' Are Unprofitable.

After a thorough investigation into the records of fire losses during a period of years the Canadian Fire Underwriters' Association has decided that there are classes of unprofitable risks which demand that a higher rate be charged. As a result, a number of pamphlets for distribution to all teachers.

The next special session will be held on Tuesday evening.

ESCAPED FROM POLICE; ARRESTED IN LONDON

John Roberts, who was arrested by the London police yesterday, and another man named Alfred Burgess, who is now serving time for the offence, were caught by Detectives Cronin and Stuart last December in a College street fur store trying to dispose of a large quantity of valuable furs. When the Queen's Park where he disappeared, the man submitted to a search, and was found to be carrying a revolver in his pocket. He then fled at Stewart and Cronin, and was arrested in a passing motor car and forced the driver to drive him to Queen's Park where he disappeared in the trees. Detective Cronin left for London last night to bring him back.

Here he jumped in a passing motor car and forced the driver to drive him to Queen's Park where he disappeared in the trees. Detective Cronin left for London last night to bring him back.

Local 1756 of the Ship's Carpenters and Caulkers at a largely attended meeting held last evening at the Labor Temple initiated 15 new members. The convention of delegates from locals all the way from Port Arthur to Kingston will be held at the Labor Temple shortly.

WAR SUMMARY

THE DAY'S EVENTS REVIEWED

The chief fighting yesterday produced north of the Somme without the enemy achieving any success. A profound calm south of the Somme succeeded the preceding day's struggle. The British yesterday withstood an attack from a point north of the Somme, but were able to repulse the enemy handily to make any progress in this sector he tried to advance, and the British held their ground.

The enemy, however, has got himself a bad position for exploiting his territorial gains. He is now in a position of an awkward salient south of the Somme, and in order to obtain sufficient elbow room he must widen this salient by either capturing Arras and Vimy Ridge or showing his lines south of the Somme. The British are now holding him in a vise and he has been unable to escape from his jaws. This will not prevent him from making frantic attempts to break through the lines, but he will have to make a long and hard struggle over a long period, and the battle may therefore last even longer than any previous one. It may last so long as to tax the allied people's limits of endurance, for the German people know the consequences of defeat. The leaders have frankly told us that they will punish them for what they have done. The past behavior of the German army has been broken up, and the German army has been broken up, and the German army has been broken up.

In Italy the fighting is chiefly desultory, skirmishes between patrols, and the Italian army has been broken up, and the German army has been broken up, and the German army has been broken up.

Major-General Newburn, Col. Machin has nothing to do with the military council.

Mr. DeBorhy, "Col. Machin was the representative of the military service council, and we have no apologies to make."

Major-General Newburn, Col. Machin has nothing to do with the military council.

Mr. DeBorhy, "Col. Machin was the representative of the military service council, and we have no apologies to make."

Major-General Newburn, Col. Machin has nothing to do with the military council.

Mr. DeBorhy, "Col. Machin was the representative of the military service council, and we have no apologies to make."

Major-General Newburn, Col. Machin has nothing to do with the military council.

Mr. DeBorhy, "Col. Machin was the representative of the military service council, and we have no apologies to make."

Major-General Newburn, Col. Machin has nothing to do with the military council.

Mr. DeBorhy, "Col. Machin was the representative of the military service council, and we have no apologies to make."

Major-General Newburn, Col. Machin has nothing to do with the military council.

Mr. DeBorhy, "Col. Machin was the representative of the military service council, and we have no apologies to make."

Major-General Newburn, Col. Machin has nothing to do with the military council.

Mr. DeBorhy, "Col. Machin was the representative of the military service council, and we have no apologies to make."

DRAMA OF QUEBEC STAGED IN HOUSE

Ultimately the enlistment under the act must be quite large. "We are in time of war," Sir Robert continued, "and it is there to be a riot in Quebec or anywhere else because a young man had to telephone a message from the police station?"

Fire Underwriters' Association Decide 'Certain Risks' Are Unprofitable.

After a thorough investigation into the records of fire losses during a period of years the Canadian Fire Underwriters' Association has decided that there are classes of unprofitable risks which demand that a higher rate be charged. As a result, a number of pamphlets for distribution to all teachers.

The next special session will be held on Tuesday evening.

ESCAPED FROM POLICE; ARRESTED IN LONDON

John Roberts, who was arrested by the London police yesterday, and another man named Alfred Burgess, who is now serving time for the offence, were caught by Detectives Cronin and Stuart last December in a College street fur store trying to dispose of a large quantity of valuable furs. When the Queen's Park where he disappeared, the man submitted to a search, and was found to be carrying a revolver in his pocket. He then fled at Stewart and Cronin, and was arrested in a passing motor car and forced the driver to drive him to Queen's Park where he disappeared in