RECENT BANK CHANGES AFFECT LOCAL FIRM

Rumors of Assignments to Come-What Business Men Are Talking About.

There is a busy rumor that at least three wholesale firms in Toronto are practically against the wall and that it is only a matter of time, and short time at that, before assignments will be announced. The failure of the Ontario Bank and the reorganization of the Sovereign Bank has put severe restrictions upon the credit of some strong firms, the consequence being that some cannot tide over the existing conditions and will have to put themselves in the hands of their creditors. A gentleman in touch with the situation said that one man, a friend of his, could easily have disposed of in a business which was now forced some concerns are left in anything but an enviable plight. Relief might have been obtained elsewhere, but there has been so much investment in speculative ventures that money is now very tight,
