A SHEAF OF IMPERIAL EDICTS TANGLES UP THE SITUATION

China Pretends to Be Penitent and Directs That Li Hung Chang's Plan Be Followed to Punish Princes and High Ministers Responsible for the Outrages

Yet Feverish War Preparations Are Being Made By the Chinese Army and Navy—The Emperor Appeals to the Czar and the Mikado for Their Aid—Russian Legation Leaves Pekin. More Stories of Massacre.

London, Oct 1, 3.30 a.m.—Beyond a sheaf of imperial [illegible] which throw into still worse confusion the complicated Chinese situation, there is little in to-day's news to arrest attention.

From Shanghai comes an unconfirmed report that the allies have seized Shan Hai Kwan.

Edicts via Shanghai.

All the [illegible] regard to the edicts emanates from Shanghai. According to these advices, in addition to the edict ordering Grand Councillor Kun Kang to offer oblations before the coffin of Baron Von Ketteler and the edict directing that Li Hung Chang's entire plan be followed in regard to the punishment of the princes and high Ministers of State responsible for the anti-foreign outrages, and the decree ordering that funeral honors be paid in Pekin and Tokio to the remains of Sugiyama Akira, the murdered Chancellor of the Japanese legation, Emperor Kwang Su has addressed further letters to the Czar and the Mikado, renewing his request for their aid in the peace negotiations.

What Those Edicts Mean.

Various opinions are expressed as to the importance of the edicts.

The Shanghai correspondent of The Morning Post says: "The 'severe punishment' ordered by Emperor Kwang Su will only mean a money fine. There are traces of Li Hung Chang's hand, under American influence, in the edicts."

Emperor's Voice is Heard.

The Standard's Shanghai correspondent remarks: "The Empress Regent now realizes the true nature of the crisis. After consulting the Emperor, she summoned the court dignitaries and, on their assembling, while she remained silent, the Emperor in a loud voice delivered a tirade lasting a couple of hours against the courtiers. Then, in an angry voice, he dismissed them. After this the decrees were issued."

Feverish War Preparations.

While these have been promulgated, however, feverish war preparations are still reported from Shanghai, and new appointments have been made to the Chinese army and navy.

"The Chinese official gazette has resumed publication," says the Pekin correspondent of The Morning Post, wiring Sept. 24, "and contains an order directing the Pekin officials to follow the court unless their duties here prevent them leaving."

British Looting Continues.

British looting continues, and the daily auctions are held in the legations. This is likely to last all winter. Members of the nobility are the heaviest losers, Prince Ching in particular.

NEWS OF U. S. WITHDRAWAL

Creates a Great Sensation Among the Other Powers' Representatives at Tien Tsin.

Tien Tsin, Sept. 28, via Shanghai, Sept. 30.—Orders from Washington, directing the withdrawal of the bulk of the American troops were received this afternoon and preparations to comply were begun immediately. General Chaffee is here directing the movement, which will commence at the earliest possible moment.

What the U. S. Plan Is.

It is understood that the plan contemplates leaving a regiment of infantry, a squadron of cavalry and a battery of artillery in Pekin to protect American interests, and that the remainder of the troops will proceed to Manila.

The Expedition to Shanhaikwan.

The allied commanders had decided to despatch a combined land and naval expedition to Shanhaikwan, on the Gulf of the Liao Tung, leaving Taku Oct. 1, the total force being 4200. The American detail has not yet been made, nor has a decision been reached as to the naval force. Now that the order to withdraw has been received from Washington, it is possible the plans of the expedition will have to be modified, so far as American participation is concerned. General Chaffee, however, is proceeding on the opposite assumption, and has ordered the 5th Marine Battalion to prepare to go.

The United States armored cruiser Brooklyn will probably be the only American war ship in the expedition. The troops will go by water and be landed south of Shanhaikwan. They will co-operate with a large Russian contingent already on the way.

The news of the American withdrawal created a sensation among the representatives of the other powers here.

RUSSIAN LEGATION LEAVES.

M. De Giers Cables to St. Petersburg That He Was Leaving Pekin for Tien Tsin.

St. Petersburg, Sept. 30.—The following despatch, dated Pekin, Sept. 30, has been received from M. de Giers, Russian Minister to China:

"In accordance with orders from the highest quarters, I am leaving for Tien Tsin with the whole legation."

RUSSIA FOLLOWS U. S.

Will Only Leave a Mixed Force of 2000 in Pekin—Friction Over the Railway.

Pekin, Sept. 25, via Taku, Sept. 28, via Shanghai, Sept. 30.—At the conference of generals to-day, the Russian commander, General Linevitch, announced the immediate withdrawal from Pekin of the bulk of the Russian troops and the legation. He will leave Thursday, Sept. 27, and legation will follow on Saturday. There will remain a mixed force of about 2000 to represent Russia.

Other Powers Got No Orders.

General Linevitch asserted that the despatch from St. Petersburg, transmitting the order to withdraw, contained a statement that all the powers were adopting the same policy. The other generals replied that they had received no orders of that nature.

German and Japanese columns are operating to the southward near the Imperial Park.

Sir Alfred Gaselee, the British commander, has gone to Tien Tsin to inspect the British troops there.

Friction With Russia.

Friction between the British and Russians over the railway continues, each party seizing and guarding small sections. The repairing is unsystematic and the completion of the work very indefinite.

IN THEIR FLIGHT FROM PEKIN.

The Emperor and Empress Dowager Suffered Hardships and Saved No Valuables.

Shanghai, Sept. 29.—The Russians have invested Mukden, capital of the Province of Liao Tung.

Sir Ernest en Route to Pekin.

Sir Ernest Mason Satow, recently appointed British Minister to China in succession to Sir Claude MacDonald, has arrived here on his way to Pekin.

Empress Saved No Valuables.

Wang Wen Shao, president of the Board of Revenue, who accompanied the Emperor and Empress Dowager in their flight from Pekin, says, in a letter received here, that Their Majesties suffered great hardships, having scarcely any food for three days. They had to ride on camels, and were almost deserted by their followers. As the country thru which they traveled was devastated by Tung Hu Siang's troops, they were unable to obtain even necessaries, and they saved no valuables.

VON WALDERSEE AT TIEN TSIN.

Guards of Honor From All the Allies Received Him at the Railway Station.

Tien Tsin, Sept. 27.—Count Von Waldersee and his staff arrived here at noon to-day. Guards of honor from all the allies received him at the railway station, which was decorated with the flags of Germany, Russia and France. The flags of Great Britain and the other allies were conspicuous by their absence.

RUSSIANS NOW AT LU TAI.

No Prospect of Advance on Tong Shan—Chinese May Wreck the Mines.

Tien Tsin, Sept. 27.—The Russians are now at Lu Tai, and there is no immediate prospect of an advance on Tong Shan, as it is said they fear the Chinese will wreck the mines and the railway plant.

It is reported that German and Russian warships and transports have left Taku to attack Shan Kai Kwan.

Many French troops are arriving.

WILL THE EMPRESS RETURN?

Prince Ching Has Forwarded the Ministers' Notes—Bengal Lancers at Pekin.

Pekin, Sept. 24, via Taku, Sept. 27.—Prince Ching has addressed notes to the Ministers acknowledging their letters suggesting that the court return to Pekin. He announces that he has despatched a memorial covering the subject to the Dowager Empress.

It is practically determined that Count Von Waldersee shall occupy one of the Imperial palaces in the Forbidden City when he arrives, and a large portion of the German army will be quartered there. There is a complete reversal of the former policy to protect the Forbidden City. The

ARMY REORGANIZATION

Will Be Carried Out in the Most Effective Manner With Lord Roberts at the Head.

London, Sept. 30.—The formal announcement of Lord Roberts' promotion is hailed by the Unionist party as a pledge that the army reorganization will be carried out in the most effective manner. It was beginning to be recognized that something was needed to give strength to the Unionist campaign. Accordingly, semi-official announcements are out that Mr. George Wyndham, Parliamentary Under Secretary of State for War, in his speech at Derby to-morrow evening, will outline the Government's scheme of army reforms, and that the War Office is arranging with Lord Roberts for the return of a large portion of the army in South Africa.

CANADIAN CONTINGENT SAILS FROM CAPE TOWN FOR HALIFAX

People at the Cape Gave the Brave Canucks a Splendid Impromptu Reception Before the Transport Idaho Left Port—Kruger Packing Up.

Cape Town, Sept. 30.—The Canadian contingent, under Col. Pelletier, sailed to-day on board the transport Idaho. The people of Cape Town accorded them a splendid impromptu reception, the Mayor voicing the thanks of the city for their brilliant services in the field.

Kruger is Packing Up.

Lorenzo Marquez, Sept. 29.—Kruger is packing his possessions preparatory to going to Europe. The Dutch cruiser Gelderland arrives next week to take him aboard.

Mrs. Kruger is very feeble, and probably will not accompany him.

Admiral Harris, with a British fleet of swift cruisers, is waiting in the harbor, and there is much speculation as to what he will do when Kruger sails.

Vorster Passes as Boer Chief.

Pretoria, Sept. 30.—News has been received here from the north to the effect that Barend Vorster, who was a member of the late Transvaal Volksraad, and who is at Zoutspansberg, has constituted himself chief of the Boer Government, and is directing plans for the continuance of the struggle. It is not thought that his opposition will be serious when the British attack his forces. His followers are not enthusiastic, and his supply of munitions of war is scanty.

Commandant Erasmus is honorably observing the armistice agreed on a few days ago.

TO PROCLAIM PEACE ON OCT. 11,

The Anniversary of the Commencement of Hostilities in South Africa, Mr. Stowe Says.

London, Sept. 30.—A special despatch from Cape Town says that United States Consul-General Stowe, who goes to the United States shortly on leave of absence, has expressed the opinion that peace will be proclaimed on Oct. 11, the anniversary of the commencement of hostilities in South Africa.

A CIVILIAN TRAIN TO THE RAND.

Lord Kitchener is Double Tracking the Road From the Vaal to Johannesburg.

London, Sept. 30.—The military importance of the operations in South Africa is daily diminishing as the war passes the transition stage into armed occupation. It is not expected that fighting will henceforth develop beyond patrol collisions or brief swoops by the Boers on the garrisons which General Lord Roberts is quartering at all important centres. None of the Boer leaders has any inclination to submit, and, with the improvement of the weather in October, there may be renewed activity directed toward seizing British arms and ammunition convoys. The lack of munitions and not the lack of energy is reducing the republican forces.

Lord Roberts will send the City of London Volunteers from Pretoria on Oct. 1. Others will follow according to transport arrangements, but the new year is sure to see over 100,000 British troops still in South Africa. Lord Roberts himself is expected to return before then.

A Civilian Train for the Rand.

He has authorized a civilian freight train to start from Durban to the Rand this week, the first in 12 months. The return of the industrial population will not likely be allowed until General Kitchener's parallel track from the Vaal to Johannesburg, alongside the Netherlands Company's line, is completed. The railway question will remain the most important in South Africa so long as a big garrison is kept in the Transvaal. Both toward Cape Town and toward Natal there is only a single track, along which all munitions and supplies must be brought. The country is utterly unable to feed the industrial population of the Rand, much less the military population, which must always be supplied with big reserve stores in view of a sudden resumption of fighting.

IN HONOR OF PORTUGAL'S KING.

The British Troops Were Paraded at Koomatipoort Under Gen. Pole-Carew.

London, Sept. 29.—The War Office has received the following despatch from Lord Roberts:

"Pretoria, Sept. 28.—To-day being the birthday of the King of Portugal, I sent a telegram from the army in South Africa congratulating his Majesty.

"Pole-Carew paraded all his troops at Koomatipoort and saluted the Portuguese flag. Many Portuguese officials attended the review."

The Review at Koomatipoort.

Koomatipoort, Friday, Sept. 28.—The review of the British troops here, held in honor of the birthday of the King of Portugal, was picturesque. About 10,000 cavalry and ten batteries of artillery paraded. The Guards' mounted brigade called out the admiration of the Governor-General of Portuguese East Africa, Machado.

Pole-Carew and his staff went to Ressano Garcia with Governor-General Machado and witnessed the Portuguese cere-

It is expected by the operators that this increase will be satisfactory to the men, and they believe many of the strikers will take advantage of the offer and return to work. Gobin's staff, were on their way on horseback to the Twelfth Regiment, which is encamped on the hill back of Turkey Run, from Shenandoah, they were fired upon from ambush. The bullets whizzed by their ears; both escaped injury. Later in the day Lieut.-Col. Hutchinson and Lieut. Bergstresser of the Eighth, while riding over the mountain, were greeted by a volley of stones from ambush. At midnight last night a crowd gathered on the mountain side back of the camp of the Eighth Regiment and stormed the sentinels with stones. About 100 men of the regiment scoured the mountain side, but found no one.
