CENTRAL POWERS DROP MASK: NOT FOR A DEMOCRATIC PEACE

Petrograd, Jan. 3.—The Bolsheviki foreign minister, Leon Trotzky, declared today that the Government, for the Russian workers, would not consent to the German peace proposals.

M. Trotzky's declaration was made before the central committee of the Council of Soldiers' and Workmen's Delegates, during an address, in which he denounced in scathing terms "Germany's hypocritical peace proposal," asserting that the Government of Russian workers would not consent to such conditions. He said that if the central powers did not agree to free disposal of the destiny of the Polish and Lettish nations it would be urgently necessary to defend the Russian revolution. He said the needs of the front would be satisfied, whatever effort might be necessary.

Representatives from all the fronts who attended the meeting declared the troops would defend the revolution, but said bread and boots were necessary.

day gives the text of a pamphlet which the Bolsheviki are circulating in the German lines, in which it is declared that the peace condtions submitted by the central powers show the Austro-German promises of a democratic peace to be "unconscionable lies."

After describing the actions of the Germans in Poland and Lithuania in recruiting for forced labor and shooting hunger strikers, the pamphlet continues: "The German Government only found support in Courland from the hated slave owners, the German barons, who have their prototype in the Polish landowners."

The document declares Germany desires to free the peoples on Russia's western frontier from the scope of the revolution in order to subjugate them with German capital, impose an Austrian monarchy on Poland, and make Lithuania and Courland German duchies. It concludes:

"On such a basis the Russian Workmen's Government can never enter negotiations."
