rento Baseball Club, is again in the city making preparations to take the team on the annual training trip to the south. Like many men who have achieved greatness in a certain line, Mr. Kelley seem happy when discoursing on subjects other than his own specialty. As an excep-tion to this, the president's name might be mentioned. The new leader seemed pleased with Toronto's deportment on Ireland's national holiday, and not at all disapopinted over the downfall of his countryman in Dublin. As to future events, he thinks Gotch has a good chance to defeat Hackensmith, and that Burns will surely beat Johnson should they meet. He had no opinion to offer me as to the winner of the next King's Plate, for the very good reason that I did not ask for any. As to the strength of his ball team, Mr. Kelley seemed content, except that he is short on catchers, but expects to land a new good one before the season starts. Mr. Kelley's physique and address should commend him to the fans. He is tall of stature and already shows early spring training, a fact that he admitted when I complimented him on his athletic appearance. Mr. Kelley has a countenance a cross between childlike simplicity and manly good looks that would make him a fit at bject for a confidence man, but the other managers who have had dealings with him say that this Irishman generally gets the better of it. In conclusion, The Toronto Club and President McCaffery are to be congratulated on securing Mr. Kelley, who should make a worthy successor of the other Kelley, tho time alone will tell whether or not Mike will meet with the same success as Joe. Burns will surely beat Johnson should

Tommy Burns is surely the greatest international boxing champion that ever lived. He has tagged the scalps of different nationalities to his belt in amazine rapidity. O'Brien and Hart, the Yankees; Squires, Australian; Gunner Moir, Scotchman; Palmer, Englishman, and low Roche, the hirishman. To these he ill surely add that of a Senegambian hould Jack Johnson have the temerity of live up to Sam Fitzpatrick's declarations.

Prof. West, a veteran physical culture pert of Cobourg, Ont. is an interesting character. He is at present in the ity, and was not surprised on hearing Tommy Burns' quick victory. Mr. Yest is a well-known handler of boxers, mong the men being Peter Jackson, those weakness was his stomach. So the rofessor' expects Jack Johnson will be ffected if he ever fights the champion, cold feet do not prevent a meeting ltogether.

Wrestling at Kenora.

KENORA, Ont., March 17.—(Special.)—
The return westling match for $400 took place last night between Charles Gustafson and Herman Mace, middle and lightweight champions of Manitoba. Gustafson was favorite at 6 to 4. A considerable amount schanged hands. The first fall was gained by Gustafson with a lucky reversed waist hold, he throwing his opponent over and rolling on him in 13 minutes. Mace was cleverer in the second, bringing Gustafson to the mat by a leg throw in 11 minutes. In the third bout Mace again brought Gustafson to the carpet, who seemed unequal to his wiry tho lighter antagonist, in 20 minutes Mace gained the fall by bar and neck hold, thus winning the match. Gustafson was suffering from a bruised ear. Referee, Dan Integrity Wins One From the Leaders-Irish Defeat Scotch-New Leagues Open.

In the Oddfellows' League last night, Rosedale won two from Integrity, the one game loss making them now tie with Floral for the championship, with the Rosedale team, having one series to play with Prospect to-morrow night.

Integrity, according to the standing, are in fifth place, but are a far better team than the record shows. Inability to get their players together can be accounted for this, altho last night they were all on deck.
