LEAFS WHITEWASH THE ROYALS 2-0

Buffalo Bumps Rochester and Skeeters Beat Orioles—Two Games To-Day.

The Kellyites applied the whitewash brush to Montreal again yesterday, our new writer Pfeffer being responsible for the kaisomining, the visitors only connecting for four safeties, two of which came in the ninth, while the Leafs touched up Savidge for six bingles, and along with four errors, the locals had the visitors on the defensive.

At the start the game settled into a pitchers' battle, but Pfeffer was steadier than his opponent and besides received grand support, while two of the Royals' errors paved the way for Toronto's two runs. True, Pfeffer showed signs of distress in the ninth, but it was only momentary, he coming back strong and putting the kibosh on the visitors' pinch hitters. Pfeffer twice made a brilliant catch, making two down. Here Kelley retired, Rudolph taking his place and the charge proved beneficial as Mitchell singled to left. Rudolph by great sprinting just getting to the plate with the ball, but Kriehell dropped the throw. Rudolph scoring.

Toronto added one more in the seventh, when Fallon beat out an infield hit and Weidy sacrificed. Starlings dropped the line, but Pfeffer was out at first. Fallon taking third, scoring when Corcoran booted Mullen's grounder. Score:

Note and Comment

First game for the Minto Cup today and here's that when the returns are all in at 9 o'clock to-night, we will know that Charlie Querris and his braves have sufficient margin to make Tuesday's incident only a canter. Wild westerners in Toronto have the highest fears that they will see the cup in these parts when the Tecumseh return.

Don't think the hustling ball managers take the daily defeats as a matter of fact. Jimmy Casey was on third yesterday in the ninth, Mickey Corcoran on first and two out, but all Jimmy Jones could do was roll an easy one to Mullen and the manager ambled home with nothing. The Royals were white-washed and Casey helped the mascot to pack the bats, looking every inch disconsolate. "Yes, we're up against it these days," said Dr. Jimmy. "Can't win a game. The pitchers have gone stale and when Savidge shows fair form to-day luck is against us. Rudolph should have been tagged at the plate and Fallon was doubled on Pfeffer's drive to first had Starnes held the ball."

"However, four hits are not enough to win a game. Only five in two games. No wonder we're getting out of the club house to see the picture of a team as he edged into the club house to doff his ball bag."

Still the old war horse is as good as any of them at third while he keeps up his clean work with the stick. His single yesterday was a liner to the right field fence.

Now the Rochester Hustlers gave evidence yesterday of a start-down grade. The leaders' pitcher failed to hold Buffalo to less than fifteen bingles, including a three-bagger and two-base hit by Jack White.

The bookmakers are getting everything back at Hamilton they are said to have lost at the Woodbine and Montreal. For a second time to none of the 23 favorites out of 27 have gone down to defeat and they all didn't fatten the ring like Turf Star each failure was a considerable bump for the public. Perhaps they'll start to show some form to-day.

Hamilton may have its turf course, Blue Bonnets a grand club house and Fort Erie a big license second to none, but wait till the Ontario Jockey Club moves out to the Halfway course, which will be of various shapes and numbers, all situated on 240 acres of ground, the last hundred of which was purchased no earlier than yesterday.

The Dufferin Park horses didn't stay long out of work. According to a bulletin from the Barracks they are carrying the soldiers in their drill stunts, all of which is fair sailing if the Canadian Racing Associations don't object.

At the annual meeting of the I. A. A. Cricket Club, held at the clubhouse, Centre Island, the following officers were elected: President, A. R. Denison; vice-president, Arthur Ardagh; secretary, treasurer, W. W. McKinlay; Parliament Buildings; captain, C. B. Crombie; vice-captain, J. H. Gauld; committee, George Chadwick, J. Moreton, H. E. Rose.

The games scheduled for this afternoon in the Toronto Senior League at Stanley Park will bring together the Dufferin and Jersey at 2 o'clock, and the Royals and Bohemians at 4 o'clock. These should be two good games. The teams have all been getting in extra practice during the week, and are certainly rounding into form.

Among the Canadians summoned to his Majesty's court are Hon. Frank and Mrs. Oliver and their two daughters.
