THE EAGLE MEETING.

The War Eagle meeting in Toronto yesterday was a disappointment to some of the shareholders, who were expecting the immediate declaration of a dividend. The policy of the company, as indicated in the report, is not to mine ore for shipment, but to continue active development for some months to come. The present shipment of 25 tons per day is made up entirely of ore met with in sinking shafts and drifting, the ore thus blocked out being left untouched. The ore encountered in development, it is stated, pays all expenses with something to spare. The management state that by deferring mining for shipment for some time to come $2 per ton can be saved in freight and smelter charges. There appears to be no doubt that the War Eagle could be a large paying shipper if the management so decreed it and that good dividends could be earned and paid. There is a large-sized kick among some of the shareholders on account of the refusal of the management to make the property an active shipper at once. The opinion of some of the large shareholders, who can well afford to wait for ultimate profits is that the policy pursued, while disappointing, will in the end show good results. Said a broker yesterday: "It is just an instance in which the little fish will be absorbed by the big fellows. The men who have been holding small lots in the hope of a dividend will be forced to sell. The stock is quoted lower and no buyers. The policy for the small holders is to hang on at all possible."

ANOTHER INDIAN KILLED

And the Community Will Have No Further Fears from the Desperado.

Mr. Davis Inquired Anxiously in the House about the Trouble, and the Premier Gave the Details as Received by the Government—Mr. Laurier Does Not Anticipate Further Trouble With the Indians—Full Account of the Fighting Which Led Up to the Death of the Quadruple Murderer and His Companions.

Ottawa, May 31.—(Special.)—Upon the order of the day being reached in the House to-day, Mr. Davis arose and said he desired to call the attention of the Prime Minister to the news that has come from Saskatchewan. "It seems," he continued, "that Almighty Voice has killed three citizens, one a civilian and the others a constable and a corporal of the Mounted Police. It is alarming, because we gather from the telegrams in the newspapers that Almighty Voice is being reinforced by young men from the reserves, and from Regina and elsewhere the Mounted Police are going out. I wish to ask the attention of the Prime Minister to this matter and to inform him that I have all the information obtained so far. I may say in advance that Almighty Voice has been killed in the attempt to capture him."

"This is the information that has been supplied by the Commissioner of Mounted Police: On Thursday last week an Indian named Almighty Voice, who had previously shot and killed a sergeant of the Mounted Police, shot from ambush a settler named Venn, wounding him in the shoulder. Venn was brought to Duck Lake and the police at once started in pursuit of the desperado. On Friday morning they located him with other Indians in a bunch of timber, but the Indians had fled in an attempt to capture them the following casualties occurred: Constable Kerr and a volunteer named Grundy were shot dead. Corporal Hawkins received wounds from which he died the same evening. Inspector Allan's arm was shattered by a bullet about two inches below the shoulder, and Sergeant Haven was shot in the groin. One Indian was known to have been killed. A field gun was sent for to shell the Indians out of the timber, with the result that two Indians were killed, one being Almighty Voice. No further trouble is expected. We have not been able to get authentic information as to the circumstances which led up to the shooting of Venn by Almighty Voice, but it is believed that the desperado was in the vicinity of the Mounted Police camp and on Almighty Voice, when the latter ran into the woods and shot from ambush."

THE PLAN OF CAMPAIGN.

How the Death of the Desperado Was Brought About.

Minneapolis, Minn., via Duck Lake, N. W., May 31.—The location of Almighty Voice was revealed by accident. Corporal Bowdridge and two constables were investigating a case of cattle-killing on Thursday, and had with them Napoleon Venn, a local settler. They had been told to assist them. They traced three Indians and immediately Venn was shot. The bullet struck him in the shoulder, but the wound is not serious. He proceeded quickly to the house of a constable, Constable Albert, and telegraphed to the police. Inspector Allan, Sergeant Haven and a posse of constables were sent to the night to join those who Venn had left watching the culprit. They were attacked at 8 a.m. on Friday by two Indians near a bluff about 15 miles from the house. Venn was shot. It transpired that Bowdridge and his men had proceeded insufficiently to prevent the Indians escape from the bluff to which they had escaped after shooting Venn. In this attack Inspector Allan was wounded in the arm, which may have to be amputated, and the sergeant was shot in the thigh. Almighty Voice and his companions and a youth quickly retreated to the bluff close by.

THE BUSH WAS FATAL.

Reinforcements arrived from Prince Albert under Supt. Gagnon and Inspector Wilson. Constable Bird and Dr. Stewart, the detachment surgeon, with six companies arrived from Duck Lake. Corporal Hawkins said: "Let's run him, and Mr. Grundy, Postmaster at Duck Lake, was of the same opinion. A gallant rush was made, when the Indians were found in a pit they had dug. The pursuers were upon the Indians without knowing it, with the result that Corporal Hawkins was shot and fatally wounded. Constable Andrew O'Kelly shot the Indian dead who had done this. As he was turning round to get another cartridge a ball whizzed past him and struck Constable Kerr in the lung. Kerr said, "I am shot," and fell dead. Under a galling fire, Dr. Stewart intended the bluff to attend Corporal Hawkins and R. S. Cook, householder Inspector Mr. Davidson, manager for Stoltz & Co. of Duck Lake, with Constables Andrew O'Kelly, McKinnon and Ferris gallantly assisted under a rapid firing. One ball struck the buggy into which the pursuers were sitting. Several lines had been cut in different sections in the bluff so that the pursued could see their pursuers long before the latter

THE INDIANS WERE CUNNING.

It was noticed that the Indians' firing pits and that several lines had been cut in different sections in the bluff so that the pursued could see their pursuers long before the latter

MR. TAYLOR'S QUESTIONS

Furnished a Prelude, However, to the Committee Proceedings.

The Conservative Whip Tried to Pin the Government Down on the Superannuation of Postmaster Shannon of Kingston—Mr. Foster Moved a Couple of Amendments to the Tariff, But Was of Course Voted Down—The Talking Continued Till After Midnight.

Ottawa, May 31.—(Special.)—After routine in the House to-day the order of business was promptly cleared of a number of questions by members, most of them of purely local import. Mr. Jameson (Winnipeg) was, however, informed by Mr. Blair that the Government had knowledge of the C. P. R. charging a discriminatory rate of ten cents per hundred pounds on freight arriving at Fort William by other than vessels of the C. P. R. and the Betty line. If such facts were brought to the Government's attention the matter would be looked into.

JIMMY MCSHANE IS ANGRY.

Because Some Person Stated the Rumor That He Was to Be Made Superintendent General of Canada.

Montreal, May 31.—(Special.)—Mr. James McShane was asked by The World to-day what truth there was in the story that he would soon be appointed Superintendent-General of Canadian Canals, at a salary of $4000 per year, and he replied thus: "My boy, do you think you have any chance of being made Pope of Rome?" and when the correspondent admitted that his chances for occupying the throne of St. Peter were slim, the People's Jimmie said: "The one is just as probable as the other and I was much annoyed to see such a report raised from Ottawa."

ARMED MEN SETTING OFF.

There is much more wheat being received this month at the elevators along the line of the Canadian Pacific in Manitoba than during the same period last year. From the first of May to the 25th, 210,100 bushels of wheat were received, while the total quantity for the season reached 8,645,405 bushels. During the months of April and May last year the quantity received was so small that the agents of the C. P. R. sent no reports.

CLARK WALLACE AGAIN IN THE TOLL.

A despatch from Quebec says that George Gunn, the former who was arrested on Saturday last, was found up in the Police Court on Saturday afternoon and remanded. The prisoner is charged with life sentence for the murder of a man in Toronto, and was released only on bail of $10,000, secured by Bishop Hamilton of Ottawa, after serving ten years.

THE CROW'S NEST.

Vice-President Shaugnessy left for Ottawa this afternoon, and it is generally understood that the Crow's Nest Pass matter is to be settled in two or three days. One thing is sure, the C. P. R. magnates are in the hot of good luck, and this morning considerable men who are never satisfied.

MR. SPENCER GOING TO OTTAWA.

There was a report in circulation to-day that C. W. Spencer, superintendent of the C. P. R., would be changed to Ottawa, but this is probably nearer the centre of his division. No official confirmation could, however, be obtained.

A BIG CROWD FOR REYN.

There was a good sale of tickets yesterday for the lecture by William Jennings Bryan, which takes place at Massey Hall next Saturday night, and the possibility of a large crowd is being anticipated. Mr. Bryan, who is probably the greatest of American orators, has been invited to come to Toronto to deliver a series of lectures on "Bimetallism," the key to the great free silver question of the United States. The box office is open at Massey Hall.

SHE WILL RECOVER.

Miss Annie Prosser, the domestic who was nearly asphyxiated in her bedroom at 75 Horden-street on Saturday night, is recovering under careful treatment at the General Hospital. She regained consciousness yesterday, and told her nurse that she thought she had turned the gas off all right.
