King Constantine's Military Centres and Port Functionaries Suborned.

PARIS, Jan, 11.-Numerous extracts from documents seized at Saloniki when the consuls of the Toutonic allies were arrested there recently were printed in this morning's nowspapers.

Among the papers, according to the published statement, were copies of published statement, were copies of daily reports telegraphed to Vienna by the Austrian consul-general, giving the numbers and description of allied troops that were landing at Saloniki, reports of spies on the movements of the allies into the interior and records of payments to these spies and to local newspapers.

The system of espionage, the accounts state, was also extended to Greece and among the published papers there are what purport to be copies of reports made by agents at Greek military centres and by post functionaries. "A good friend of Germany and can be trusted" is a sentence printed as being taken from one of the reports made regarding a certence printed as being taken from one of the reports made regarding a certain prefect, while a certain officer was classed as "doubtful."

One secret agent is declared to have written on Dec. 30 that Greek troops which were supposed to be leaving the city marched out on one side and came back on the other. Herr Hollehmer, a secretary of the German legation is represented as reporting that he was endeavoring to establish communication with spies at Monastir.

He wants every rheumatic victim to know how he was cured. Read what he says:

"L Had Sharp Pains Like Lightning Flashes Shooting Through My Joints."

In the spring of 1892 I was attacked by Muscular and Inflammatory Rheumatism. I suffered as only those who have if know, for over three years. I tried remedy after remedy, and doctor after doctor, but such relief as I received was only temporary. Finally, I found a remedy that cured me completely, and it has never returned. I have given it to a number who were terribly afflicted and evén bedridden with Rheumatism, and it effected a cure in every case.

I want every sufferer from any form of rheumatic trouble to try this marvelous healing power. Don't send a cent; simply mail your name and address and I will send it free to try.
