Kingston, Ont., Dec. 12.—Sir Tho-his White spoke at a monster meet-ing in the city hall tonight in the in-verses of W. F. Nickle, and was been a great reception. He was spected to the cho as he appealed for support of the Union government. Spectes were also delivered by W. Nickle, G. Lynch Staunton of Ham-iton; W. I. Herrington, Napanee, and C. W. Livingston of Toronto. Thomas declared that the poli-for of Sir Wilfrid Laurier was one of delay when the fate of the empire was neople demanded constructive action. The speaker believed that Sir Wil-hid's policy of taking a referendum had been inspired by the elements in ouebee. Should Canada take a ref-tendum to decide whether the Hali-ta. It was rather strange, as their plat-forms were exactly the same. Both Bourassa and Lavergne were at the back of Sir Wilfrid. There was no free speech in Quebec today. "Do you think I could hold-a meet-ing like this in Montreal?" he asked. Sir Thomas took issue with the statement of Sir Wilfrid Laurier at Winniper that the new government Winnipeg that the new government hn Graydon. that the Union government had with that the Union government had with all the leading old-time Liberals, it all the leading old-time Liberals, and in addition it also had the clergy and practically the entire press of the country. The Union government had the minister of every province outside, of Quebec supporting it. Mr. Lynch Staunton, speaking par-ticularly to the women, said: "I be-heve this government has given you this ballot to protect your own flesh and blood. I believe that it is a sac-red trust.
