

THE TORONTO SUNDAY WORLD

CAILLAUX TRIAL

TWO JUDGES IN

JULY 26 1914

Every Day

is Bargain

Day

Come in and Look

Around.

Diving Capi

29

Garters,

itan Capi

55

Nordica Garters,

59

sic Ef

Ottawa Pt. Arth

St. Bonifa

Regina Moose Ja Prince All Weyburn, ALBERT

Edmonton Red Deer. Lethbridgs Medicine BRITISH Kamloops N.Westm<sup>11</sup> Oak Bay Point Gre Vancouver Victoria Kelowna

Total 17 J Cities Grand t cities

IIV

5.28

This Ci

Eyes"

Reports

the countries of the co

month a y

The fig

cities of ( follow:

Chicago ... Boston and New York Brooklyn . Philadelphi

Toronto ... Buffale ... Pittsburg ... St. Paul ... Montreal . Los Angele Kansas Cit Minneapolls Winnipeg San Franci Seattle .... Rochester ... Medicine H Balt more Washington Milwaukee Toledo ... Albany ... Indianapoli Portland, C Columbus Dallas ... Birminghan Springfield Louisville, The Com the situati "There y can cities. In would be section of ticular din generally & "No one country sh which woul because of tofore. Ti markable i fied in exp is every r

SASKAT

Out of 3

The Sas out a piec be widdy i to Saskato "Last y vertised to who did n tem of tax surdly des the time such lots interesting tion of al whom the to locate, when the to locate, ward Sasi The fac vertised to lect of mu Canada is

NA

Ben ---

Not

with

LAND WHERE CHILDREN ARE WIDOWS AT THE AGE OF FIVE

Census-takers in India Encounter Incidents Both Comic and Tragic - Population Increased Twenty Millions in Thirteen Years-Cost of Census Was $675,000.

LONDON, July 25 .- Generally speak- of all, perhaps, are the details which ing, there are few things that one can the census have brought to light re-garding marriage in India, and the think of duller and less interesting many strange forms, rites and super-stitions that are connected therewith. Nearly Everybody is Married. In the land of the rajahs, in the first place, practically everybody is married. The age statistics show that than the result of a census. The one item therein that most of us care to hear about is how the numbers of a people or a community have increased or decreased, and when this is known the details remain a dry mass of figures, with nothing to lighten the tale except, perhaps, some official speculation as to how many of the fair sex concerned have returned their ages at lower figures than the actual facts

But the latest census of the popula-tion of India is different. The story of how it was taken and the facts which it brought to light are as en-But the latest census of the popula-tion of India is different. The story of how it was taken and the facts which it brought to light are as en-tertaining and picturesque as anything the readers of newspapers have had to amuse them in many moons, and as unusual and striking, too, as one would induce the facts over as soon as possible. To begin at the beginning, and get the dry facts over as soon as possible this latest cnumeration of the "teeming millions" of India was taken on the

To begin at the boundary of the second spossible, the dry facts over as soon as possible, this latest enumeration of the "teeming millions" of India was taken on the might of March 10, 1911, this date, the chosen so as to enable the enumera-chosen so as to enable the enumera-chosen so as to enable the enumera-chosen so as to enable the avoid "cer-work by moonlight," and to avoid "cer-marriage and for bathing in the sacred marriage and for bathing in the sacred tivers." The cost of thus enumeration of over 1.millions" of India was taken on the might of March 10, 1911, this date, the chief enumerator tells us, having been chosen so as to enable the enumera-tors, who numbered over 2,000,000, "to work by mecalight" and to avoid "cerrivers." The cost of thus enumerating the inhabitants of an area of over 1,-$03,657 square miles was $675,000, and the result is the discovery that, since grace to the state! the result is the discovery that, since 1901, when the last census was taken, the population of this amazing land three times as large as the United States has increased from 294,361,056 to 315,156,396, of which number, by the way, the "literates," i.e., those able to write a letter and to read one (which is the test employed), number only slightly over 18 million. Comic and Tragic Incidents. The incidents of the taking of the census were both comic and tragk. It census were both comic and tragic. It was the more difficult, as the officials explain, "on account of the long lines of railway, the big rivers on which boats travel sometimes for days without coming to the bank, the forests to which wood-cutters resort often for weeks at a time, the numerous sacred places which, on occasion, attract many thousands of pilgrims," and, they might have added, the ferocity of many of the tribes and the dangers from wild beasts. Likewise, the terror with which the mere idea of being counted

The reasons for this terrible slaugh-ter of the innocents are many and spired some communities. Fearing that some dire disaster would befall them if they suffered themselves to be enumerated, one small would befall them if they suffered themselves to be enumerated, one small uboriginal tribe fied from forest to forest, but wherever they fied they

it is done by tying the bride's waist-cloth as many coccanuts as there are years in the difference between her are years in the difference between her age and the bridegroom's. Why Child-Marriage Exists. Another reason for child-marriage in India is a dread of increasing the num-ber of unhappy ghosts which walk the earth, no spirit, according to Indian be-lief, being quite so miserable and bothersome as one who has been denied the bliss of realized love. The hus-bands of most of these girl-wives, by the way, are adults, the figures show-ing that whereas nearly 10,000/000 girls under sixteen are wives, the boys under that age who are husbands number only three and a half millions. These facts explain the appailing number of only three and a half millions. These facts explain the appalling number of child-widows in India, those under twenty numbering no less than 800,000; of these, moreover, more than 94,000 are aged between five and ten, while more than 17,000 child-widows are aged five and under. Miserable, too, to the last degree is the lot of child-widows, expectably those who lose their husespecially those who lose their hus-bands while extremely young. They generally are treated as family drudges and, being supposed to be practic the great majority of the unmarried of both sexes are quite young children, three-quarters of the bachelors being dead to the world, are expected to live a life of complete self-denial and to content themselves with the coarseest under fifteen years of age, while a somewhat larger proportion of the spinsters are under ten. Only one bachelor in 24 is over 80, and only one spinster in 14 is over fifteen. This, to us amazing state of things is due food and only one meal a day. Many Child-Widows. Many Child-Widows. While, however, the vast number of these child-widows, who represent 17 per cent. of the total number of fe-nales, is due partly to the early age at which girls are given in marriage, and partly to the disparity which gen-erally exists between the ages of hus-bands and wives, it is attributable most to us, amazing state of things, is due to the fact that, in India, marriage is erally exists between the ages of hus-bands and wives, it is attributable most of all to the prejudice against the re-marriage of widows. Many castes, es-pecially the higher ones, forbid it alto-gether, and even where it is not ab-solutely forbidden it is unpopular. The prohibition of widow-marriage, in fact, is a badge of respectability. Castes bronibition of whow interactive. Castes is a badge of respectability. Castes who do not allow it rank higher on that account in social distinction.

Many of these census statistics are heerly amazing, for instance, those about lepers. Regarding the actual workers among these unfortunates, about reperts. These unfortunates, is workers among these unfortunates, is some gruesome information is given. Nearly 6,000 of them are engaged in agriculture in different forms, "which," remarks the chief enumerator, "is probably the safest outlet for their en-ergies," but 155 are raisers of farm-stock, (which implies that they con-stantly handle animals supplying milk, cheese, etc.) 281 are connected with in-dustries of dress and tollet, "59 with food industries, and 422 with trade in food stuffs." Fourteen male lepers are hotel or restaurant keepers, 17 practice ... Slaughter of Girl Babies. In many parts of India, especially among the Hindus and Pathons, the comparative scarcity of women was found to be out of all proportion to the number of men, this being ex-plained by the terrible extent to which, hotel or restaurant keepers, 17 practice n spite of stringent laws prohibiting in spite of stringent laws prohibiting it, the slaughter of girl babies is still carried on. Up to a few years ago, in many tribes, female infants were killed at birth. Usually they were drowned in milk, or poisoned with "bhang," or by a preparation of opfum smeared on the mother's breast. Others were suffocated, or killed by pouring ice cold water over their heads while nedicine, 38 are school masters, 11 are policemen. Seventy-seven are engaged in religious duties, and six find places under "public administration."

HE FAVORS DEFENCE IS THE INSINUATION

PARIS, July 25.—A challenge to a duel was sent today by Judge Louis Albanel, presiding judge of the court trying Madame Caillaux for the wilful nurder of Gaston Calmette, to Judge Louis Dagoury, one of the three othe udges sitting on the bench with him

The quarrel between the two judges arose out of an incident which oc-curred at the palace of justice late last night, but the nature of which could not be ascertained. The seconds appointed by Judge Al banel are General Jules Dalstein, forbanel are General Jules Dalstein, lor-mer military governor of Paris, and Emile Bruneau De Laborie. When the discussion concerning the reading of Madame Gueyden's letters seemed to be going unfavorably for the defence during yesterday's hearing Judge Albanel announced that there would be a recess. The Figaro affirms today that Judge Dagoury then said in low tones, "You dishonor us, sir." announced that Another version of the affair says that yesterday while the discussion the reading of the letters was at its height Judge Albanel interposed a remark that the time for a recess had arrived. Judge Dagoury, who was seated beside him on the bench, bent over and said in an undertone, 'You disgrace us, sir

The two judges, after they had gone into their private rooms during the recess, engaged in heated discussion. Eventually Judge Dagoury admitted that he had said more than he had meant to say and apologised. Maitres Henri-Robert, Labori and Chenu intervened as peacemakers be-tween the two judges and the incident was regarded as closed. This morning, however, a report of it was made pubic in a note on the front page of The JACOB RIIS WROTE writer in "Votes for Women" re-views an article in the "Revue Bleue," of March, 1898. The article is entitled "Le Feminisme pendant la Revolution Francaise," and the writer is M. Aulard. It is somewhat of a blow to our idea of progress, says the present reviewer, and particuvarious municipalities, one of which -Creil-made her an honorary mem-ber of its National Guard! At this time also were formed the "Societes fraternelles des deux sexes," which, however, were democratic rather than feminist, and played a large part in the growth of republican ideas.

But at length, the committee of public safety took up the women's question, and debated as to whether question, and debated as to whether women could exercise public rights and take an active part in govern-ment. They decided in the negative, and their decision was reported to the convention, which forthwith for-bade women to join clubs or popular societies as a result women's soc societies. As a result, women's so-cieties were suppressed. And so end-ed the short struggle for women's rights during the French Revolution. rights during the French Revolution. Today, the descendants of that little advance guard of a hundred years ago are fighting a winning battle for municipal liberty. Civil liberty they have already won, and before very long France will, no doubt, grant her women of the twen-tieth century that full recognition of citizenship which Mme. Aelders de-manded in vain for their "fore-mothers" of the eighteenth century.

forest, but wherever they fied they found the "Census devils" pursuing them, and in the end they had to yield and were duly counted. In many parts of the country, too, the enumerators found it almost impossible to get the natives to disclose their real ages natives to enscione their real ages on account of a belief on their part that to tell one's real age is to re-duce the span of life, and also to en-able one's enemies to set the forces of black magic against them, hence all sorts of ludicrous replies were given on this point, and in most cases the officials were forced to guess the native's age as nearly as possible, and let it go at that. Counted Pans As People.

All the

Nor did the naive ideas of some o Different queer superstitions, too, are the dusky enumerators themselves help partly responsible for the slaughter of sirl babies. One tribe, called the much in the direction of accuracy. Some of them, in reckoning the numgirl Khonds, who either murder or neglect of a family, counted in, not only their female offspring, are influenced their pots and pans and other house hold utensils, but the ghosts of their ancestors, certain devils and someby the belief that souls return to human form in the same family, but that they do so only if the naming cere-mony on the seventh day after birth times the very idols which they worshipped. One of the latter, by the way, has been performed. Infants dying before that ceremony do not return. So was solemnly described by the censustaker as being "200 years of age and as the Khonds, like the other natives speaking the Hindu language." Other India, ardently desire male offspring, native census-takers were led, by an this belief is a powerful inducement to excess of religious zeal, to swell the the destruction of female infants, as a number of their fellow-believers by the means of reducing the number of fehasty inclusion of "any dusky Gallio," and to seek a mild satisfaction in atmale souls which might be reborn in tributing to their enemies theological views "tending parlously to damnathe family. India, there are no fewer than ,412,622 girls of under sixteen who are tion.' Several of the enumerators, and more of their assistants, lost their lives in the performance of their duty. One of the latter, who had left his home account of the ravages of a maneating tiger, volunteered to show the enumerator the way to his own vilcertain lage, and then, just as he reached it, the brute pounced upon him and caronce in ten or twelve years, as especia ly auspicious for marriage, and whe these come round every possible un married girl, of however tender year is married to some person or son ded him off, nothing further being seen of him, "so that he could not," clares the conscientious native official, "be included in the census!" In varithing. Even unborn babes are marri to one another, and if, after birth, the districts, too, many of the census are discovered to be of the same staff had to march by night thru forthe marriage is declared null and void. ests infested by man-eaters, and had to carry torches to scare them away. In some cases a little girl is solemnly married to a man who is married al-

Estimating a Savage Tribe. How the approximate number of ready, and who afterward divorces her; in others she is married to a one savage tribe was discovered makes an amusing story. The tribe in quesbunch of flowers, which is then thrown which is called the Show Pen, inin a well. habits the interior of the Great Nico. bar Island, off the western coast of India, and as it is made up of "irreclaimable savages" the census officials man has lost two wives and is plan-ning a third matrimonial venture, he abandoned any hope of getting even an idea of its numbers. By an odd coincident, however, a day or two after the enumerators arrived in Great Nicobar to take the numbers of the friendly tribes, who live along the coast, one of these communities rehis next wife may be his fourth and not his third. In one part of India, too, if an astrologer predicts that a man will have two wives this is taken to ceived a message from the Show Pen mean that his first wife will die, polyto the effect that they were on the point of attacking them. This was accompanied by two tally sticks, on gamy not being in vogue. So, if his wife falls sick, the devoted benedict notches were cut indicating the goes thru a mock marriage with a lantain tree, which is then destroyed. number of fighting men in each of their settlements, the different settlements being marked off by lateral notches. Needless to say, the enumerators took will recover. prompt advantage of this remarkable instance of politeness in war. This great census which, its takers proudly point out, was completed with a rapidity "not approached even in the smallest European states," brought out curious facts almost without end. It shows that whereas part of the population of India indulges in the bloodiest of human sacrifices to propitiate its many and singularly unpleasant gods. others hold human-life so sacred that they are forbidden so much as to use into the bride's face. In most parts of India, it is thought desirable that the bridegroom should the word "cut." Strange new discoverbe older than the bride, but when the ies regarding the complicated laws of have been made, and also as to latter is the elder various means of the religious observances of the Hin-dus, the Moslems, the Buddhists and all ed. Sometimes this is supposedly acbalancing the discropency are employthe other queer sects who own allegi- complished by making the while, in son ne India districts, a "bride LANSING, Mich., July 25.—The state supreme court today found the National Cash Register Co. of Dayton, Ohio, guilty of unlawful restraint of trade and impos-ed a fine of $10,000. The company is restrained from doing business in Michi-gan until the fine is paid. The decision was returned in the case of Henry J. James, representing "the American Cash Register Co., who charg-ed that the National Cash Register Co. was violating the so-called Michigan anti-trust law, in that it induged in ex-cessive competition against certain comprice" is paid, it is usually the husband that has to be purchased by the par-ents of the bride-to-be, and husbands are steadily "going-up." The bride groom price, it seems, is now affected argely by the educational qualifications of the potential lord. A Kayasth graduate in Bengal usually fetches from 500 to 1,000 rupees, or from $165 to $330, and there have been cases where as much as 100,000 rupees, or $3,500 has been paid. And even in discessive competition against certain com-petitors and thereby forced them out of tricts where the bride is usually bought the parents of a girl are sometimes willing to pay for a bridegroom who business. as captured a few scholostic laurels. Reasons for Slaughter.

Mock Marriages Common.

MONTREAL POLICE TAKE LOCAL THIEF. Fred WilliamsGives Home as To-

. ronto, when Caught with Stolen Ring.

Special to The Sunday World. MONTREAL, July 24.—Fred Williams, who says he comes from Toronto. was arrested here tonight charged with the theft of a signet ring from his room-mate. The detectives were on watch, too, for a young man who had cashed some cheques at a local bank under the some cheques at a local bank under the signature of H. Fair. He represented himself, it is alleged, as a man in au-thority in the Dominion Express Com-pany and produced cards and a written statement which purported to give him the right to collect the coin. When Wil-liams was taken into custody the card and the letter was found in his possession and the signet ring was on his finger. In his pocket was a card bearing the ives, and 302,425 under the age of six who also have entered the married state! The astounding early age at which girls are married there is acwhich girls are married there is ac-counted for by the census taken by pointing out that astrologers indicate certain seasons, occurring generally printed "Baby Face." seasons, occurring generally

SHIPE	PING GROWS	11.14
	ON ST. LAWRE Increase in Numbe Boats Docking at	NCE
Small	Increase in Numbe	er o

Montreal.

Special to The Sunday World. MONTREAL, July 25.—Since the be-ginning of navigation this year nearly five hundred ocean liners have docked at Montreal. This is an increase of about twenty-five over the number for the corresponding time last year. During July fifty tramps will arrive here to carry wheat to the other side of the lea, while These mock marriages in India are quite common. A third marriage is regarded there as unlucky, and when a the number chartered for the same trade next month is seventy-five. These will carry in all over twenty million bushels of grain, while the regular liners will transport another ten million bushels. often goes thru a mock wedding with a sheep,, a pigeon or a plant, so that This means that the August grain export trade of the harbor will be about 80,000, 000 bushels, the largest in any one month in a long time. So far this season six million bushels of wheat has come into the port thru the Lachine Canal. ROYAL PARTY STOP FOR KENORA REGATTA

t is believed that this is a fulfilment KENORA, Ont. July 25.—The Duke and Duchess of Connaught, Princess Pa-tricia and suite, arrived in Kenora early this morning and were tendered a hearty reception by the mayor and citizens. They are guests during the day of Hon. Robert and Mrs. Rogers at their lake residence. The feature of the reception to the governor-general will be a motor boat parade this afternoon, in which, it is ex-pected, five hundred boats will partici-pats. of the prophesy and that the real wife Indian wedding costumes are weird and wonderful. In the Punjaub Him-alayan area a wedding may be solemnized without the presence of either bridegroom or a priest. The former often sends his sword or some other per-sonal belonging to "represent" him. To take the place of the priest, a waterate.

skin often is inflated with the nearest A German factory is said to turn out 20,000 loaves of sawdust bread per day. It is designed to be fed to horses, but in case of emergency it could be con-sumed by humans. It has some rye mix-Mullah's holy breath, and the marriago solemnized, miles away, by deflating it per cant. of the wirss and 58.8 per cent. of the telephones. The estimated number of messages or talks for the year was 13,735,658.546. bridegroom. ance to the British Raj, but queerest swallow a two-anna bit, but more often

"Jacob Rils wrote wonderful letters -full of galety and humor and the philosophy of life. And he never spared himself in writing. Often be-cause of the drain on his structure be-to use of the interior a most attractive souvenir of the interior a most attractive souvenir of the mountain parks. This is a booklet, entitled, "Just a Sprig of Mountain Heather." Attached to the cover is a piece of real number because of the drain on his strength, he was urged not to handle them all, but he used to clear his desk every day.

"Courage, practical suggestion, enthusiasm—whether to a group of col-lege boys or a civic league in some out-of-the-way village, or a railroad president with a social outlook-these ere the things he sent. "At a memorial service in Plymouth Church last month," says The Survey, "Mr. Riis' son told of a young grant who had written asking for funds with which to get to the middle

He was stranded at the seavest. ocard. Mr. Riis put it up to him to walk; it wa ssummer and he was young. The lad wrote back in anger,

WHY NEW POPES orly to get an inimitable letter from Mr. Riis telling of his own experiences in striking out for the west when h himself was an American in the mak-Everyone knows that as soon as cardinal becomes a pope he is no onger known by his own name, bu "He did not give offence, he did not takes a new one. This custom origi-nated out of reverence for St. Peter take it. He entered into the boy's scheme of life, and let the youth enter

-wide-into that of his own. Whether Pius X., for instance, was Giu the young man walked or not is no Sarto-in English Joseph Taylor fore he took up his residence in th matter; he got west, working his way and carrying with him a new vision. Vatican. This custom, now a law of the

Two years later a letter came from him to Richmond Hill telling of his church, had its origin in $84, when Peter di Porca became Pope of Rome. strivings and successes in one of the He held that it would be pre Prairie States, and thanking his fel-low Dane for the biggest help that to style himself Peter II. Before that time many people had changed their names, but it was not obligatory for ever man gave to him. "There must be scores who know similar stories of the unwritten influthem to do so. Sergius II not ence upon the lives of people and work established a precedent in this direc tion, but he set an example which all of communities of this man who has pontiffs have followed in that none of gone. There must be hundreds who cherish letters that breathe his spirit. them has ever retained or assumed the name of Peter. An effort is to be made to collect such letters and to draw out such fragmen tary evidences of Mr. Rils' social evangelism as may be fitted for publication in book form."

EXTERMINATING HOMELESS DOGS.

ent cleaning medium for mud stains. In declaring war on its stray dogs, Dampen a cloth, dip it into the soda Paterson is doing something that many another city might well imitate. It is and rub the offending spots. If pressing is necessary do it on the wron mistake, in the first place, to allow side of the material. the population of canine mendicants to increase to an extent where the dogs without homes or masters are Butter should always be kept in stone jar, with the lid on tight, other-wise it is liable to absorb odors of noticeably numerous. In many cities this mistake is not made and a stray dog is spotted before it has a chance other foods kept in the chest. to make more than a slight nuisance Wetting scorch stains with soar of itself. When such dogs have become numerous there is nothing to do but suds and placing them in the sun will remove the brown spots. go gunning for them until they are extinguished. If accomplished mercifully, it is a merciful thing to put a stray dog out of the way. Without a master to care for it. a dog must revert to the primitive and become a predatory beast. It must seek food where food is likely to be found, and sleep in any spot that affords shelter. It is usually the stray dog that bites, for, hungry and desper-ate from being chased from place to place, it learns to regard every person

The homeless dog is better off dead than alive and the city is better off without it. The more congested the population the more undesirable is any kind of a dog, homeless or well housed. The dog, however, is nature' companion of man and his consort, so dogs will probaly will always be with us. The surplus dog has no place in the scheme of things. As it is not the dogs' fault that it has no home, extermination should be done as quickly and as painlessly as possible.

India rubber was used for the first time as an eraser in 1770, when a very small piece was sold for three marks, It was, however, many years later before it was put into general use, Prior to this, the orumb of bread was used for erasing purposes. purposes.

larly to our pride in our twentieth century opinions, to dis taken from the alpine meadows of the Canadian Rockies. cover that whereas our French sis-It is a novel and very effective way

Kodaks

Supplies

We Do

Developing and Printing

Caps

98

Alys Bathing Shoes,

_79

Bathing Caps,

Boudoir Cape

Daisy

1.19

39

Slipper

Billie Burk

and Shoes

.89

79

CANADA'S

The

Rexall Stores.

Shoes, Garters, Wings, Etc.

.89

and Cherub

1.69

cover that whereas our French siz-ters of today are fighting primarily for the recognition of their munici-pal rights—for the municipal vote —their predecessors of that period of the French Revolution were fight-ing full political liberty. And the to capture the tourists' interest in Canada's national parks. Mr. Harkin treats in the booklet of the significance of these heserves and of the Domin-ion's natural heritage of beauty in the ing for full political liberty. And the impression made by this fact is form of majestic mountain, peacefu deepened when we make the further valley and emerald lake. Jasper is th latest of the Dominion parks to be discovery that before that period of enlightenment, under the old feuestablished. It comprises an area enlightenment, under the ora of the dal regime, women did possess politi-cal rights. Women proprietors play-ed a part in the elections to pro-vincial and municipal assemblies; and their position in regard to the thousand square miles in the wonder ful district opened up by the construc-tion of the Grand Trunk Pacific thru the Yellowhead Pass.

states general is seen in Article 20 of the Reglement Royal of Jan. 24, 1879, which said that the women CHANGE NAMES that time, who owned property, desired the same right for single women and widows as were possessed by the men of the nobility. Similarly, in Article, 12, female, no less than male, ecclesiastical communities were ordered to send a "depute" or "procureur," to the assembly where the clergy were elect-

Men Paid No Attention.

To begin with, as M. Aulard points out, the movement among women was rather for civil than for political liberty. Petitions requested that women "might have instruction; that they might be less often robbed of their inheritance." But the men of France paid no attention to this humble request. Meanwhile, women were perform-ing all the duties that were required of citizens in that stirring time. La-dies of wit and learning helped forward in their famous salons; their rougher sisters played a part in the taking of the Bastille; and, later on, women and girls actually served in Often discolorations on enamel ware may be removed by rubbing with a the French armies, regular batta-lions of Amazons being formed. Women were to a certain extent re-Ordinary baking soda is an excel cognized as citizens in that many of them were "decorated" by the Com-mune in 1790, having also to take the civic oath at the bar of the National Assembly. Olympe de Gouges in 1791 practically summed up the situation as it appeared to advanced women of the day: "La femme," she said, "a le droit de monter a l'echafaud, elle doit avoir egalement celui de monter a la tribune. ("Woman has the right to mount the scaffold; she should have equally the right to mount to the tribune.") But to grant them the full rights of citizenship was more than the male upholders of liberty, equality, and fraternity could bring them-Beat the yolk of three eggs slightly add a quarter cup sugar and one-eighth teaspoon salt; stir this con-stantly while adding gradually two selves to do. One great Frenchman, nowever, took up their cause. In 1790 Condorcet wrote an article ups of scalded milk. Cook in a double the "Journal de la Societe de 1789. oiler, continue stirring until the mixentitled "Sur l'admission de la fem-me au doit de cite," where he eloture thickens and a coating is formed on the spoon, strain immediately: chill quently pleaded for the enfranchise-ment of the women of France. It is and flavor. If cooked too long the custard will curdle; should this hapstrange to us to find 'Condorcet more pen, by using a Dover egg-beater it may be restored to a smooth consis-tency, but custard will not be as thick. than a hundred years ago combat. ing, with most convincing logic, all the anti-Suffrage arguments we are so familiar with today. And Con-Eggs should be beaten lightly for cus tard, that it may be of smooth thick Acrost had an additional argument in the Declaration of Rights pro-claimed by the Constituent Assembly, which, he argued, had been broken, in that one-half the adult population were deprived of the right of helping to frame their own laws, Early Advances ionship at least forced This cham men to face the question, and some advance was made, women being admitted on Oct. 31, 1790, to the "Cercle Social," where Mme. Aelders vehemently upheld the cause of women, till the Cercle itself became converted, and sent her round to

FRENCH PRESIDENT WELCOMED IN SWEDEN

STOCKHOLM, July 25 .- The French leet, acting as escort to President Poincare, anchored off this city today. The King of Sweden, accompanied by the crown prince and other members of the royal family, at once went on board to welcome the French president, whom they brought ashore in a steam laucn. Large crowds of people heartily cheered the royal and presidential party all along the route to the castle.

LITTLE THINGS WORTH KNOWING. The personnel of the navy of the Unites is more than 68.000

It has been stated that an elephant eeps only five hours each day

Paraguay has a pod-bearing plant which is useful in making a vegetable ilk.

danger signal which will be recog-id by those who may be color blind is In proportion to its population, Switzer-land spends more on poor relief than does any other country.

The imports of cigarets into China con-tinue to increase notwithstanding greater production by Chinese tobacco factories.

In Korea widows never remarry. Even tho they have been married only a month, they must not take a second husband

TOELESS SHOES OFFERED IN LONDON.

The toeless shoe for afternoon and evening wear, to be worn with or without stockings, is the latest novelty for women to appear in the London shops. The new design is of sandal form, with high French heels and ex-poses glimpses of the sides of the foot and toes. The shoes are also made in a wide range of colors with a view to matching the gowns. So far the new shoe has not yet made its appearance in the street or the fashionable tearooms.

For Drink or Drug Habits

S the result of many years of conscien-I thous study and investigation with the causes and treatment of the effects of alcoholism and narcotic drugs. The Gatlin is the original 3-day, purely vegetable treatment; its efficiency is proven in its thousands of cured patients and its splendid institutions established throughout the world.

Send us the name of a relative or friend whose will power is weakened through constant and over induigence in liquor or drugs. All communications are held confidential-complete es in plain, scaled formation con Arrangements may be mad cloth dipped in vinegar.

Gatlin Institute

WORTH KNOWING

BOILED CUSTARD.

consistency. When eggs are scarce use the yolks of two eggs and one-half tablespoon cornstarch. How to ours. yourself

