THE RING

Among the Labor Day bouts, the one that is attracting most attention is that in which Honey Melody and Joe Thomas meet in Chelsea Mass.

In the arena of the Palm Athletic Club of Vallejo, Cal., tonight, "Fred" Landers and "Fred" Ward will box twenty rounds at the lightweight limit for a purse of $1,000.

Harry Lewis and "Jimmy" Briggs, in a fifteen-round bout, will be the feature of the Grand Rapids Athletic Club tonight.

Efforts are being made to arrange a fifteen-round bout between "Abel" Atwell and "Gus" Beesack, to take place in Los Angeles, Cal., in October.

"Biddle" Kelly, Battling Nelson's former training partner, and "Gus" Beesack, of Cincinnati have signed articles of agreement to fight twenty rounds. They have asked the clubs at Terre Haute and Indianapolis to put in bids for the match.

"Biddle" Kelly announces his willingness to meet "Jimmy" Briggs in a twenty-round bout. Hanson believes he and Briggs can draw a $20,000 house.
