AUSTRALIA WILL TAKE REFERENDUM
ON CONSCRIPTIONThe electors of Australia, both at home and abroad, will vote on the adoption of compulsory military service on October 28. It is estimated that 100-000 men are needed for reinforcements before July next and that there are 125-000 men who are fit, single and without dependants. Reasonable exemptions are provided for and voluntary enlistment will be continued at the same time.RASH ITCHED AND BURNED ON BABY
Healed by Cuticura Trial Free"Baby was about five months old when we noticed little red spots on his face. The skin was all inflamed, and the rash itched and burned and caused him to scratch. His face was disfigured and he was cross and fretful and we lost a lot of rest with him. We had to keep his hands tied in a towel so that he wouldn't scratch."
"We got some Cuticura Soap and Ointment. We used two cakes of Cuticura Soap together with the Ointment and the trouble healed." (Signed) by her sister, Miss Letitia Irene Rolsten, was charming in a gown of white India tulle and lace. Her veil was caught with orange blossoms, and she carried a shower bouquet of lily of the valley and orchids. Miss Letitia wore the wisteria tulle and black tulle hat with gorgeous trimming.The bride's only attendant was her sister, Miss Helen Margaret Rolsten, who was, becomingly, dressed in yellow tulle and lace. She carried an arm bouquet of yellow roses.Mr. Farnham's groomsmen were B.

Langdon Hill of Needham, Mass., where the ushers were Philip Farnham, brotherof the groom, Earl McKay of West Roxbury, and George, Albert and Clayton LeBaron Moore, nephews of the bride.A reception immediately followed the ceremony at the home of the bride, where she was assisted in receiving by her sisters, the Misses Letitia, Beattie and Helen Rolsten, Mrs. Alexander Moore of Roslindale, Mass., and Mrs. Andrew Nelson of Dorchester, Mass.The church and house were beautifully decorated with palms, autumn leaves and roses and the guests included friends from Boston, New York, Worcester and Dorchester, Mass.The bride was the recipient of numerous presents, silver, cut glass, and furniture, and a substantial check from the mother of the groom. The groom's present to the bride was a pearl necklace with diamond clasp, and to the groomsmen and ushers, gold cuff links and scarf pins. The bride's gift to her bridesmaid was a gold bracelet.After a wedding trip to Canada, Mr. and Mrs. Farnham will reside at Fairview Road, Needham, Mass., where they will be at home to their many friends after January 1, 1917.In a letter to his mother, Mrs. Mary Connell, 17½ Brimley street, P. E. B.
Connell, of the 104th Battalion, speaks of the arrival of the battalion in England. He and his brother both are members of the regiment. He reports a good trip and goes on to say that the train left the transport, they started to match up the road, when whom should they encounter but the writer's brother, in-law, Sergeant George Fry of St. John.
"I was so glad to see him," writes the soldier, "for we did not know him, he had grown so much fatter. But he knew and shouted to us and we knew his voice. It was so welcome. We hope to meet our dear brother, Fred, soon.
He is in hospital in England, wounded."Bob and I writes Pte. Connell, "spent the first night with George in his tent, and we had some good time.
Bob is well and sends love to all at home and will write soon. Lots of letters will follow."Pte. Connell's address is "104th Canadian Army Post Office, London."

GOOD WORK OF CHILDREN'S AID

Before the members of the executive of the Children's Aid Society met in the board room at the home in Elliott row last evening they went into the class room where nine happy children ranging from six to fourteen years were receiving instruction from Miss Foster.
Six school teachers, the Misses Hen-denham, Milligan, Foster, Wilkins and Marion Peters have volunteered to conduct evening classes which are held three times a week at present. The children get individual instruction, and are doing nicely in their study reading, writing and simple arithmetic lessons.The secretary, Rev. W. R. Robinson, gave detailed reports of the cases of twenty-six families, involving eighty-four children dealt with during the last month and a half. Thirty-two children were sent home in care of their parents and are under supervision, twenty-one have been placed in homes, two have been brought back from Nova Scotia and placed, one with the parents and one temporarily in the Evangeline Home; five were given shelter in the Elliott row home, arrangements have been made for the adoption of two, six were placed in the municipal home, help was given in the case of three boys, and the other children are under supervision or their cases to be investigated. Favorable reports were received from three children sent to homes some time ago. Of the eighty-four children, twenty-four were committed absolutely to the care of the society."We cannot intelligently talk

OF CHILD WELFAREOttawa, Oct. 25—A proposal for the establishment of a national child welfare bureau has been made to the government by Mrs. Colin Campbell, wife of the late Hon. Colin Campbell, former attorney-general of Manitoba. Mr.
Campbell was the originator of the juvenile court system in Canada. Such a bureau Mrs. Campbell has urged, would do useful work in investigating infant mortality, the birth rate, children's institutions, children's courts, child immigration, desertion, dangerous occupations, accidents and diseases of children, child labor, children's playgrounds, mothers' pensions and mental defectives.Mrs. Campbell has placed her proposal before Sir Robert Borden, Hon.
Dr. Roche and Hon. T. W. Crothers.
She suggests that the bureau should be attached to one of the departments, possibly the department of labor. It would not undertake administrative work, but confine its sphere to that of investigations and reports.ROYAL
