

PROTECT YOUR HANDS

If you have been careless about your hands, if they have become calloused with house work, you can restore them again to softness and whiteness by wearing a pair of rubber gloves, which protect your hands from stain and soil and cause them to perspire to a perfect whiteness.

SHOP EARLY.

The "shop early" idea which proved such a winner last year is worthy of repetition this year. Do your shopping early. Don't wait for the last day, or even week, to make your purchases. Remember the clerks behind the counter. It is their Christmas as well as yours, and you can contribute to the full enjoyment of the holiday for them by the exercise of this small and easy consideration. Another thing: stocks are now replete and fresh, and by making your purchases early you may secure the freshest and newest of goods. Shop early.

FREDERICK PERCY POOLE.

Many friends in St. John learned with regret of the death of Frederick Percy Poole, on Nov. 11, of Frederick Percy Poole, aged thirty-six years, son of Mrs. Poole, and the late William Poole of Somerset street. Mr. Poole went west six years ago, and was employed as engineer in a large hotel. He is survived by his wife, who was Miss Irene Southern of Baywater, and three children; also by his mother, four brothers and five sisters. The brothers are Edwin, in France; Walter, of Hudson, Mass.; Arthur, in England or France; and Geo. W. in Minneapolis. The sisters are Mrs. Ludwig Christiansen of Somerset street, St. John; Mrs. Frank Wagner, whose husband is an engineer in Liverpool, N. S.; Mrs. D. Ferguson, Cape Breton; Mrs. Thoroughgood, of Bath, Me.; and Mrs. Winifred Southern of Alberta, whose husband is at the front. Many friends sympathize with the bereaved relatives. The funeral took place in Edmonton.

DID WELL IN FREDERICTON

The cast that presented "The Climbers" in Fredericton last evening returned to the city today at noon. They played to a packed house, and they were given a most enthusiastic welcome. Yesterday afternoon Lord and Lady Ashburnham entertained them at Ashburnham Place. The play was given for the Red Cross and under the auspices of the Women's Volunteer Reserve of Fredericton. It is thought that about $850 will be cleared, which is most creditable for one night's performance. The people of Fredericton were unsurpassed in their praise of the St. John amateurs. The credit for the successful presentation of the play goes to Mrs. A. C. Wilton of the city, and J. J. McCaffrey, manager of the Queen's hotel, Fredericton. The trip was greatly enjoyed by all. There were about twenty in the party.

McEACHERN-ORAM

Last evening at the home of Mr. and Mrs. J. D. McEachern a very pretty wedding was celebrated between James A. McEachern and Nellie Oram, youngest daughter of the late Daniel E. Oram. The bride was costumed in ivory satin, trimmed with maribou, and wore a veil of embroidered net with orange blossom and carried a bouquet of carnations. Mrs. James Neilson was maid of honor and John C. Oram, brother of the bride gave her away in the presence of a large gathering of friends. The room was beautifully decorated with flowers and the ceremony took place under a bell canopy. Rev. J. Chas. B. Appel officiated. The popularity of the young people was manifested by the numerous presents of silver, china and linen. Among the presents were purses of gold from George E. Barbour & Co. also from Clive Dickason, the bride's former employer. Her associate workers gave her a chest of silver. Mr. and Mrs. McEachern will make their home at 66 Metcalf street.

CAPT. REV. J. A. KUHRING COMES HOME ON FURLOUGH

Cablegram From London Received From Him This Morning

The news that Hon. Captain Rev. G. A. Kuhring is coming home on a short furlough was received this morning in a cablegram from London by Mrs. Kuhring. Captain Kuhring went overseas as chaplain with the 6th C. M. R., and then went to Gallipoli with a hospital unit. Since last spring he has been on the firing line in France.

SOLDIER SENDS HIS THANKS FOR SOCKS

The following grateful letter has been received by Miss Helen Clark, of Lancaster Heights, from a soldier boy at the front, a member of the First West Side Soldiers' Comforts Association. It shows that the work of the local circle benefits other boys of the province as well as our own.

France, Nov. 4, 1916.

Dear Miss Clark:
I received a parcel from your Soldiers' Comfort Circle and there was a pair of socks in it. There was a note also enclosed from you. I don't know who the note was meant for, but the socks certainly came in handy. I am dropping these few lines wishing to thank you for the socks.

I am not from St. John, but from Fredericton, which is not far away. But I guess that will not make any difference. I hope you will excuse this writing, as I am writing this letter in the trench. Hoping it will reach you safely, I will close.

DEATH OF WALTER T. BRODERICK IN THE WEST

There has come to St. John news of the death of Walter T. Broderick, brother of Dr. E. J. Broderick and Dr. W. P. Broderick of this city. The late Mr. Broderick formerly conducted a dry goods business in Fredericton, his native city, but went west about sixteen years ago, and since then had not been east. His death occurred recently in Spokane, Washington, as the result of an attack of pneumonia. While in the west he had been engaged as a commercial traveler. He is survived by his wife, his two brothers in St. John, another brother, Thomas, of Malden, Mass., and one sister, Mrs. E. J. O'Neill, of Lynn, Mass.

FAIRVILLE SOLDIER NOW WITH THE 112TH

Charles Calabrese Writes of Three Brothers Being Wounded—Boxes From Home Arrive

Charles Calabrese of Fairville, one of the men in khaki now in England, has written to a friend from the camp at Bramshot as follows:

"You will think I have been a long time in writing, but I was just waiting to see what would happen. You see I am now in another battalion—as after the draft of 175 men were sent out from the 118th they shifted the most of us remaining to the 112th. We are still at Bramshot, but for how long I cannot say, as there is news of another draft going across again soon.

My wife and family got over here all right, and the authorities gave me a pass to go to my old home. Most of the chaps I knew are away; quite a lot of them have been killed at the front. When I arrived in England I received word about our three brothers being wounded. Two were then in England and one in France. That was the second dose for all three of them. Two are still here, but the other brother has gone back to the trenches again.

The soldiers are certainly well looked after here. There are five kinds of hats to go to, and one or the other has a concert every night. You can buy refreshments very reasonably at all of them.

How are things getting along in Fairville? I suppose people are getting ready for Christmas. Well, I hope they all have a good time. Some of the boxes arrived today from the ladies of Lancaster. Two of our fellows received their and the rest of the boys in the hit were around to see the opening. How the eyes do pop out and the long drawn out 'as each article is brought out. I tell you the men think a great deal of those boxes and if the ladies could only hear what the men say, I am sure they would be pleased that their gifts had been so much appreciated. The Fairville women deserve all praise for remembering the boys at Christmas time.

Give my best respects to all inquiring friends, and with best wishes for Christmas and the New Year.

CHARLES CALABRESE (741179)
Section C,
112th Battalion.

GARNETT EQUALS ONE AND BREAKS ANOTHER

Single Bowling String 156; Five for an Average of 131—Many High Rollers

On the Victoria alleys on Wednesday night "Henric" Garnett established a record which made his score, 156, successfully for an average of 131 plus a string. His scores were: 156, 135, 133, 109, 122, total 655. Garnett's score of 156 is the highest record made by Harry McKean. But for a bad start Garnett certainly would have come near to the world's record for, in his next string he started with strikes and eases. Garnett's 156 was as follows: 9, 17, 27, 43, 52, 52, 110, 130, 146, 156.

In making 484 for three strings, Garnett put up what is believed to be a new Canadian record. His scores were made in the presence of the usual crowd of bowlers and spectators who patronize the Victoria alleys and elicited much praise from them. Never has such a five string collection been totaled as Garnett produced last night.

Only on last Monday T. Robertson made 148 for a single string, while on the same day E. Venot of the 163rd Battalion made 369 for three strings—184, 101, 184. Upwards of seventeen on the above 120 have been made on these alleys during the last two weeks and this certainly speaks well for the work being done.

The following are the prize winners in the daily competition last week:
Tuesday, Nov. 21, McCafferty, 122;
Wednesday, Nov. 22, Robertson, 131;
Thursday, Nov. 23, Emery, 116;
Friday, Nov. 24, Norris, 131;
Saturday, Nov. 25, Jarvis, 123;
Monday, Nov. 27, Roberts, 143.

The alley records are as follows:
Single—H. McKean and H. Garnett, each 156.
Three—H. G. Garnett, 494, vs. 156, 135, 133.
Five—H. G. Garnett, 655, vs. 156, 135, 133, 109, 122.
Ten—E. Morrissey, 1140, vs. 103, 121, 106, 119, 137, 117, 99, 104, 123, 115—1140.

St. John Soldier, Who Enlisted in West, Now in Letropol Hospital

James H. Ross of this city received word this morning that his brother, Corporal William Wallace Ross, was admitted to No. 9 General Hospital, Letropol, on November 19, suffering from a gunshot wound in the right leg. Mr. Ross is a native of St. John but resided at Sussex for many years, having been in the employ of the S. H. White Lumber Company for fifteen years. He went west ten years ago and had achieved very substantial prosperity before the effects of the war wiped out some of his fortune. He resigned his position as assistant manager of the Crothers Lumber Company at Fort Steele, B.C., to enlist in the ranks of an infantry battalion with which he went to the front, receiving his two stripes after reaching France. Another brother, Fred, is with the 26th Battalion.
