GILBERT'S GROCERY
THE MAY QUEEN CASE In the matter of the winding up of the May Queen Steamship Company, Ltd., an application was made before Mr. Justice McKewen this morning by G. H. V. Belyea in behalf of Captain Colwell, for an extension of time for filing an appeal. No order was made on this point, but His Honor allowed Mr. Belyea until Friday to serve affidavits regarding payments, by Captain Colwell, of unapproved claims, which amounts, it was contended, should have been paid over to the creditors. Dr. J.
George H. V. Belyea and Francis Kerr appeared for parties interested.

ROY FLAHERTY
DIES OF WOUNDS
St. John Man Was Struck By Shrapnel
THE SUPREME SACRIFICE

Telegram Comes to Brother Fred Who is One of the 6th Mounted Rifles—Young Soldier Had Enlisted in the West The name of Roy L. Flaherty, formerly of St. John, is in the list of those who have made the supreme sacrifice and given their lives for the empire and its ideals in the library and home.
The news was contained in a telegram to his brother, received this morning, which read as follows:
Ottawa, Ont., May 27, 1915.
F. L. Flaherty,
218 Waterloo street,
St. John, N. B.
Roy L. Flaherty, 1st Battalion, formerly 9th, officially reported "died at Rawal Pindi, British General Hospital, Wimereux, May 26; gunshot wound in thigh."
Adjutant General Mr. Flaherty, who was a son of the late Mr. and Mrs. John E. Flaherty of this city, is survived by two brothers, Herbert of the Western Union staff here, and Fred E. of the 6th Mounted Rifles; and one sister, Mrs. A. R. Pearson of Exmouth street. He was unmarried.
It is about ten years since Mr. Flaherty left St. John for the wider fields of the west and since then he had traveled over much of the western half of the continent. One of his feats which attracted attention in the west was a 700 mile horseback ride from Missoula, Mont., over the mountains to Calgary, which he accomplished in seventeen days.
When the war broke out he was with a dominion survey party in the Peace River district, 200 miles north of Edmonton. The news that Great Britain was at war and that Canadians were to take their share in the fighting appealed to his adventurous spirit as well as to his loyalty, and, with eight of his comrades, he set out at once for Edmonton.
On their arrival there they enlisted in the 9th Battalion and soon were at Val-cartier. Later he was transferred to the 1st Western Ontario battalion and it was with them that he took part in some of the heaviest battles of the war. He passed safely through the fight at Langemark and it was somewhat later, after six days and seven nights continuously in the trenches, that he was wounded by a bursting shrapnel shell.
The first word received was contained in a letter from a chum to a friend in St. John which was received here on Sunday, but which merely said that Roy was slightly wounded. His chum, named McCarthy, was another adventurous spirit who had seen service with Villa in Mexico, but who hastened north to enlist when he learned that Canada was in the war.
Since this letter no news, official or otherwise was received until the telegram came this morning telling of his death.
His brother, who had been given leave from the 6th C. M. R. in Amherst over the holiday and had his leave extended on account of his wife's illness, thus happened to be still in the city when the telegram came.
It is years since his relatives here have seen Roy, although Fred Flaherty was recently missed him last summer. He left for the west to meet his brother to take over some of his interests while he was in the west. He reached Edmonton and took the trail for the north while his brother was turning by another trail and so missed him. When Fred returned to Edmonton his brother had left for Valcartier.
His relatives here think that Roy had a premonition of his end, as it was only a short time ago that he wrote home giving full directions for the disposal of his property in case he did not return.
Speaking of the death of his brother, Private Fred Flaherty said this morning, "It is only what we must expect; with so many falling we cannot expect our own people to escape. But it gives one a different feeling about the war, makes it more of a personal matter. I want to get to the front now as quick as I can.
I will fight better on account of this."

THE EAST END LEAGUE
There was much lamenting when it was rumored that the East End League might not be organized this year. It has been organized, and is playing good ball. The receipts thus far, however, from the evening collections, amount to only a little more than half the expenses incurred. The league does not propose to run in debt. If the lovers of the game want it, they should be willing to contribute to the expense. If not, there are other uses for the grounds. The collections are taken in small banks, which are opened in one of the city banks, and the contents counted, and deposited with the receipts from sale of tickets for the grandstand, so that there is a check on every cent received. The league executive co-operates with the Playgrounds Association, and deserves public support, both for itself and for the reason that if there should be a surplus, the children of the city will get the benefit.
