DOLLAR PRINCESS?

King's Son May Wed Chicagoan's Granddaughter

(By Milton Bronner.)
London.—Chicago is about to marry into the British royal family! So says breathless gossip now going the round of London's most exclusive circles.
Translated, this means that Prince George, fourth son of the King, is soon to announce his engagement to the Lady Alexandra Curzon, youngest daughter of Marquess Curzon, Minister for Foreign Affairs in the Cabinet. Curzon married Miss Mary Leiter in 1898. She was the daughter of Levi Z. Leiter, the famous millionaire grain operator of Chicago. Miss Leiter was one of the beauties of her debutante year and soon became a favorite in British society.
If Prince George is really engaged to Lady Curzon he will simply be following the example of his sister, Princess Mary, and of his brother, the Duke of York, by marrying outside of royalty.
The Prince was born Dec. 20, 1902.

LADY ALEXANDRA CURZON AND PRINCE GEORGE

RECENT WEDDINGS

McNichol-Holmes.
A quiet wedding took place yesterday morning at the residence of the Misses Fullerton, 289 Watson street, w. c. when their niece, Miss Benie Hazel R. Holder, youngest daughter of the late Capt. T. H. Holder, was united in marriage with Robert James McNichol, of this city. The ceremony was performed by the Rev. F. T. Bertman, of the Carlton Methodist church, in the presence of immediate relatives. The bride, who was given away by her brother, B. C. Holder, was attired in a traveling suit of navy blue polka dot, with hat to match, and wore an Oriental scarf. She carried a shower bouquet of pink roses. Two nieces of the bride, Misses Mary and Margaret Holder, attended as flower girls. After the ceremony breakfast was served and the happy pair left on the steamer Empress to spend their honeymoon camp-at York cottage, Sandingham, when his father was simply the Prince of Wales. He was christened George Edward Alexander Edmund and was destined for the sea. He was entered for the Royal Naval College at Osborne in 1916. In 1920 he went on a cruise to the West Indies in the Temeraire and in 1921 served on the Iron Duke.

Last winter was a tough one on the royal youth, because first the doctors removed his appendix and a bit later operated on him for hammer toes, which were seriously interfering with his dancing.
For some time it has been noted that "everywhere Alexandra goes, the Prince is sure to be." Dances always find them together. They are partners in tennis games. And they pal together at the swell race courses like Goodwood and Ascot.
Lady Curzon inherits much of the beauty of her mother and considerable of her money.

ing in western Nova Scotia. Among the many useful and valuable gifts was a silver vegetable dish from the staff of the LaTour school, of which the bride had been a member, and a handsome leather armchair from the associates of the groom and staff of the Canada General Electric Company.

RECENT DEATHS

J. T. W. Carmichael.
J. T. W. Carmichael, third son of the late J. C. E. Carmichael, of Chatham, N. B., died on Aug. 17 at his brother's residence, Clifton, Kings county. Mr. Carmichael, who was 65 years of age, was born in Chatham but lived in British Columbia for some time, crossing the continent in January in poor health to live with his brother, S. G. Carmichael, postmaster of Clifton, Kings county. He leaves two brothers, S. S. Carmichael, of Clifton, and Colin C. Carmichael, of St. John, also two sisters, Mrs. McVie Jack and Mrs. E. W. Cockburn, of St. Andrews, N. B.

Marie Page Walworth.
Marie Page Walworth (Mrs. Winston H. Slaughter), associated with Booth, Salvini and other prominent actors, died in a Scranton, Pa., last week. The daughter of Captain Jonathan Mayhew Walworth, a distinguished officer of the U. S. Navy who perished in the Civil War, was born in Philadelphia in 1860. She was a granddaughter of Bishop Walworth of the Protestant Episcopal Church. She was educated in France, and there acquired an ambition for the dramatic stage, which was most successfully gratified.

She began her public career as the leading lady of Lawrence Barrett's company, and there created the title role in his famous production of Boer's "Francesca da Rimini" at Wallicks Theatre in New York. Following that engagement, which placed her in the foremost rank of American actresses, she played leading parts with Edwin Booth and with Tommaso Salvini. She was a fellow star with Louis James in his series of Shakespearean productions, and afterward she joined forces with William Gillette for several years. She is most agreeably remembered for her brilliant performances as Viola in "Twelfth Night" and as Ophelia (with Booth), Juliet, Rosamond, Amy Robarts, Lady Teal, and a host of other parts. Her last appearance was in "Captain Applejack." She was married in her early life to Winston Henry Slaughter to whom she bore two daughters, Mary Gertrude Slaughter and Elizabeth Mayhew Slaughter. Many years ago she became a convert to the Roman Catholic Church, and was for some time a vice-president of the Catholic Actors' Guild of America.

T. H. SMITH SHOT NEAR SUSSEX

Little Daughter Hears Shot That Kills Her Father.

Sussex, N. B., Aug. 21.—At Mount Hebron, nine miles from Sussex, this morning, Thomas Henry Smith, aged 32 years, met death by being shot through the head with a bullet from a repeating rifle. He was a Great War veteran and was engaged in farming, having located last year on a farm provided by the Soldiers' Settlement Board.
Mr. Smith was around as usual this morning doing his chores and, after milking the cows and separating the cream, went back to his house. About 8:30 o'clock his little daughter, Clara, nine years of age, heard a report of a gun and on going downstairs from her bedroom found her father lying on the floor of the front room in a pool of blood. He was unconscious, and the rifle which he had been handling for some purpose at present unknown, was under his body, where he had fallen on it.

The little girl gave the alarm and her brother, Thomas, eleven years of age, who was in the barn and had also heard the shot, hurried into the house. The housekeeper, Mrs. Rothwell, was away at the time, having come to a neighbor's home on an errand.
The bullet from the rifle had entered near the left temple and came out through the top of the unfortunate man's head.
Mr. Smith's wife died about a month ago after an operation. Coroner Wallace, of Sussex, was summoned and took charge of the body, which was brought to Sussex.

HAPPIER HEALTHIER WOMEN

by thousands are known to exist in this country because they have been relieved from pain and suffering by taking Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound. Science in surgery and electricity have advanced greatly during the past fifty years, but treatment of disease by old-fashioned root and herb medicines has never been improved upon. The leader of them all is Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound which after fifty years of success is today recognized as the standard remedy for female ills and sold everywhere for that purpose. Replies to a questionnaire recently sent out to 80,000 women by the Lydia E. Pinkham Medicine Co. of Cohasset, Ont., proved that it benefits 98 out of every 100 women who try it. Isn't this a marvelous record for any medicine to hold?

France a Happy Land For London Week-Enders

Many Delightful Things Are to Be Seen Even in a Few Days.

How many people, one wonders, realize the amount of foreign travel and personal experience that may be had in a week-end nowadays. Here is a little man's eye to the possibilities in this regard, writes a correspondent of "The London Mail."
"One Friday not long ago I left London at 12 noon, dined in Paris at 7:30, and had an hour of sightseeing before leaving for Belfort by the Camille-Lafayette-Mediterranean route at 10 o'clock. At 7:30 the next morning I found myself in the famous old fortified town of Belfort, which is situated in a depression between the Vosges and the Jura mountains.
"There I took a seat which had been reserved for me in one of the fine comfortable motor coaches of the P.-L.-M. company, and, except to lunch, and dine, and sleep, I did not leave this vehicle until we arrived at Divonne, practically on the shores of Lake Geneva, at 8:30 on Monday night. At 7:30 on Tuesday night, having returned via Bellegarde and Paris, I was back in London.

"In the mean time I had seen some of the leading mountain scenery in France, passing through regions little known to the tourist, now climbing a winding ribbon of road—less 'bumpy' than Piccadilly in these days of road-repairing frenzy—through forest after forest, they fell away in folds below one, these forests, the car climbed; now racing down the hillside to lovely valleys where charming little villages were reflected in placid lakes in which fine trout abound.
"Twice we ran into Switzerland, and traveled for several hours through that delightful country, enjoying a different

ENTER AUTUMN

Fall styles at their best, now await the selection of women who like to choose attire of distinction while the season is young. Garments for fall are entirely attractive—and best of all practical. Colors incline toward the darker shades with navy, brown and black predominating. Frocks, Coats and Suits have tendencies toward the long, loose lines, with variation introduced by the arrangement of cleverly adapted girdles, hems of uneven lengths, flaring sleeves and circular skirt effects.

Many new and fascinating models now on display.

New Fall Coats Full of Comfort

For most part coats continue along wrappy lines with flaring cuffs and big roll collars. Luxurious fur collars again embellish many of the fall models, and besides adding comfort they harmonize well with new autumn fabrics and colors.

Velettes, Marvellas, Bolivias and other soft piled fabrics are among fashion's favorites and are followed closely by Tweeds, Camelshair effects and other rougher materials. Plain navy, dark browns, various shades of fawn and all black are greatly in demand; while mixtures of brown or greenish cast, grey effects and camel color share almost equal popularity. Side tie belts are a smart style feature seen on some of the prettiest models.

Pleatings Distinguish Many New Frocks

The circular skirt seen on some very smart frocks is perhaps the most noteworthy change. All sorts of silk crepe materials including satin crepes, Cantons, Crepe-de-chines, etc., are used to fashion fall frocks. Cascade side draperies falling below the hem of skirt are new, while finely box pleated skirts, pleated panels, unusually full sleeves, beaded girdles, and bright embroideries go to create touches of distinction. Navy, browns and black are decidedly fashionable and are often used in clever combination with some lighter and brighter color.

Lovely Satin Underskirts

Showing in particularly nice shades of American beauty, purple, taupe, jade, apricot, henna, etc. They are scalloped and trimmed with narrow frills; some have butterflies applied above flounce. Quality of satin is exceptionally fine.

Price is only $8.50 (Costume Dept., 2nd Floor.)

Bon Ami

—makes old white shoes look like new

Have you tried Bon Ami for cleaning and polishing? Bathrooms, Windows, Fine Kitchen Utensils, Mirrors, White Woodwork, Tiling, Aluminum Ware, White Shoes, Brass, Copper and The Hands, Nickel Wire, Linoleum and Conglomerate.

YOU will find that your white shoes will stay new-looking if you always clean them with Bon Ami. Bon Ami doesn't paint over the dirt on white shoes and fill up the seams—it removes the grime and the stains, and uncovers the original whiteness so that the shoes look like new.

When the original whiteness finally does wear off, the regular white dressing will improve them. But even then they should always be cleaned first with Bon Ami.

Top Coats That Show The Way

Straight backs have come to be the thing in many Autumn and Winter Top Coats. They form a sort of panel, seamed on the sides by inverted pleats. A further welcome fact—the designers hold true to the manish models that have such simplicity, ease and swagger.

Prices appear to keep agreeably between $34.75 and $24.75. That means heavy Polos and Tweeds.

A rather smart Heather Polo with patch pockets, high up change pocket, belt and straight back, showing two or three buttons down the sides—it only comes to $24.75. A Greenish Tan Polo with plaid reverse, leather buttons, the new back and side stitch rows that come down to arrowheads—you have it for $26.50.

So for a Greenish Blue Heather. A warmly tinted Heather whose Reds come out again in a shadowed plaid taking in touches of Gray—belt and patch pockets—just $28.75. There's a Bluish Plaid for the same.

Autumn modes are calling.
