

SPECIAL OPENING TOMORROW and WEDNESDAY

Hats Demure or Dashing

Hats of rare beauty, individual models from leading Designers. Hats revealing in a fascinating manner all distinctive phases of the autumn mode.

Pokes from whose quaintly drooping brims flutter wide, soft glycerined ostrich plumes, or piquant hats with colorful embroidery.

New versions of the cloche hats that turn up sharply at the back, trim and jaunty. All in colors that suggest fine light and fall foliage.

In this special showing, which has just been received, you will find brilliant shades in profusion, as well as the ever popular black.

A visit tomorrow or Wednesday will prove most interesting.

WILL GET MOOSE IN ALL HIS MOVES

J. C. Bushong Here for the Woods With New Kind of Camera.

It is going to be a pretty lively moose that will escape the unerring eye of the motion picture camera that J. C. Bushong of Worcester, Mass., took with him early this morning when he left with Ralph Barron and Phillip Albertson, also of Worcester, to stalk our lordly game back of Clarendon station amongst the tall timber of the crown lands.

Most people know that movie cameras are clumsy, unwieldy contrivances propped up on long extension ladders and when "shooting" with them at a charging rhinoceros or trying to follow an athletic event they will not always give a perfect picture. But Mr. Bushong, who is an expert photographer, banking on outwitting Mr. Moose this year. He has imported from Paris the very latest thing in M. P. cameras. It is called the De Bris camera and allows the operator to hold the camera in his hands whilst a tiny motor drives the shutters.

With such an outfit the movie man will be enabled to get his moose at all sudden angles, on the ground or when in the long jumps of flight. The camera will be especially useful for feathered game pictures. Indeed Mr. Bushong received his first hint of the value of the new hand movie camera in seeing the falcon and dove fight in the wonderful pictorial production of "Robin Hood," in which aerial "shot" the De Bris camera was called into play.

Mr. Bushong is also employing telephoto lenses in his De Bris, which will bring the objects into close view, another method by which he hopes to impress his American friends with the hunting resources of New Brunswick. In fact the Worcester enthusiast is very much enamored of New Brunswick as a hunter's playground and the gentlemen accompanying him, who are very much enamored of New Brunswick, are joyfully anticipating a wonderful fortnight of sport.

A 3,000-foot moose hunting film "shot" by Mr. Bushong last year and is replete in all the thrills that make that sport so alluring.

PAYS $280 FINES

M. Vasileff on a Liquor Charge and Shop Open on Sunday.

The maximum penalty was meted out to Mike Vasileff by Magistrate Henderson in the police court this morning on charges of selling liquor in his beer shop in Main street and also for having the store open on Sunday evening at 9 o'clock. For the first offense he was fined $200 and for the second $80. He was told that all beer shops must be closed from 11:30 o'clock Saturday night until 7 o'clock Monday morning. Both fines were paid. Wm. M. Ryan appeared for the prosecution. The raid was made by Inspectors Crawford and Killen.

HIS MONEY GONE

Nova Scotian, Robbed in Montreal, Seeks Assistance Here.

Having fallen victim to a pick-pocket while in Montreal, Lester Grant appeared at Central Police station here last night and asked to be allowed to spend the night there. He explained that he had been with the harvesters in Saskatchewan and while en route to his home in Montreal, he was stopped in a fruit store to make a purchase, and while there pulled out his wallet containing $68. After making the purchase he replaced the wallet in his pocket, and before boarding the train discovered that his money was gone. Fortunately he had his ticket to St. John in another pocket, and was able to reach this city. His plight touched the heart of some of the kind-hearted police officials and an effort is being made today to secure him passage to his home.

As Hiram Sees It

"Hiram," said The Times reporter to Mr. Hiram Hornbeam, "what is the matter with New Brunswick? Things are not booming as they ought to be. It isn't merely that high wages and lots of work have been drawing people to Boston and Florida and California. We really aren't getting ahead as much as we should, in spite of the load the war put on us. What's the trouble?"

"Spending too much time talkin' about the things we know we can't do an' not goin' full steam ahead with the things we kin do," said Hiram. "An' we don't work together. We're all the time talkin' about it but we don't do it. D'you mind the time when St. John went after commission government? You had a lot of committees—they was committee meetin' every night most all winter. Everybody worked, an' compared notes an' staid right on the job. Everybody went to sleep agin as soon as you got what you went after—but you got it. Now if all the blindest men 'nd put their heads together, they could start an' make it pay—but a big apple they'd get somethin' goin' an' then somethin' more—an' so on. But just as long as every feller keeps turnin' over the same dollar all the rest is turnin' over they won't have no dollars in sight—no, sir. D'you mean to tell me we all got softenin' of the brain? Well, sir—we haint. We're gents wake up an' start somethin'—By Hien!"

HYDRO RUMORS AFLOAT TODAY

Discussed by Engineer S. R. Weston and E. M. Sanderson.

A report which was current in the city the last few days to the effect that officials of the New Brunswick Power Company had informed the Hydro Commission that the Power Company would not link up to supplement the Musquash hydro was denied today by S. R. Weston, Chief Engineer of the New Brunswick Electric Power Commission.

Mr. Weston said that no information to this effect had been given to him, but in fact the commission has the assurance to the contrary, as the Power Company through its President, E. N. Sanderson, had offered to help the serious situation caused by the shortage of water at Musquash in every way possible.

E. N. Sanderson, who arrived in the city from New York at noon, when asked about the rumor, said that he had nothing whatever to say in the matter. Apparently such a report was news to Mr. Sanderson. He went on to say that he could not say anything definite until he had communicated with M. A. Pooler, the general manager of the Power Company.

ENTHUSED OVER WESTERN TRIP

Dr. E. J. Ryan, Home, Talks of It—Met Earthquake Survivors.

"A trip, which shall live long in my memory, not only as one whose object was pleasure, but one which presented to me an entirely different viewpoint of the Canadian people in the west, and pointed out to me the vast possibilities of this land of ours, and stirred up in me a new national spirit," were terms in which Dr. E. J. Ryan, president of the St. John Canadian Club, spoke yesterday of the convention of Canadian Clubs in Victoria, which he attended. He and Mrs. Ryan arrived home yesterday.

From start to finish, he said, the trip presented new surprises every minute. The people of the cities through which the party passed, he said, could not do enough for them. They saw everything and met everybody. The officials and employees of the railways and boats on which they travelled could not do enough for them to assure their comfort and convenience. The party, which was composed of forty-eight members, had three special cars, from Montreal, on the C. P. R. As they travelled west they stopped at all the principal cities and were met by the delegates. A remarkable thing about the people of the west, said Dr. Ryan, was their hospitality and cordiality. It was trouble at all to know them. There seemed to be a greater democratic attitude in the west than in the east, he said. People there knew each other better, and citizens did not stand on ceremony with higher officials, as they did here. They seemed to be all members of a harmonious family.

It would tax the expressive powers of all the superlatives in the English language, Dr. Ryan said, to express the beauties of the Rockies.

The convention in itself, he said, was most successful. The citizens of Victoria vied with each other in making the stay of the party enjoyable. The Parliament buildings, which are fringed with lights, which are lighted only for royalty, were alight during their two days stay in the city. A civic banquet was held in honor of the visiting delegates, and was one of the most enjoyable features of the trip.

TALKED WITH SURVIVORS OF THE EARTHQUAKE

In Vancouver, Dr. Ryan said, that he had talked with several survivors of the earthquake and flood disaster in Japan. The tales of horror and destruction told by them, he said, made the reports which were received on this side of the water appear very inadequate. One gentleman told him that he had been down town when the first quake occurred. He rushed to his home, only to find it scattered like a pack of cards. He found his wife in the basement and rescued her through a hole in what was once the roof, just as the building took fire.

The return trip was made by Canadian National, and was just as enjoyable as was the first half of the journey. Of the delegates he could not speak too highly. The conference will be held in St. John next year, he said, but the date is uncertain. It will probably be about the time that 250 weekly newspaper men will be here en route to England, where they will hold a conference.

EQUALLED RECORD

In connection with the Provincial Rifle Association medal shoot held on Saturday and won by J. H. Donnelly, Sergeant Landry, holder of the record, said this morning that his score last year was 100 and that Mr. Donnelly had equalled that. The shooting was with a Lee Enfield open sight service rifle.
