These petitioned for the appointment of the brother, Albert McArthur as administrator, and he was accordingly sworn in. There is no real estate, personal estate under $7,000. G. It is becoming a habit of late with an unfortunate Finn, Alexander Almon, to be arrested on charges of wandering about without satisfactorily accounting for himself, and last night he was again taken into custody on the same charge. This morning he was once more allowed to go. The case of the man is a hard one, as he is said to have family in Montreal, but is stranded here and unable to do anything, being almost ignorant of the English language. He was ordered back to Montreal some time ago. Fines of $4 were imposed on Wm. Chiffick, Wm. Lanthan, Charles Gabrielson, and Thomas Wynne for drunkenness.

BERTHS ALL TAKEN; BUSY AT THE POINT

Sand Point never presented a scene of greater animation than at the present time. Every berth is occupied, and in some cases two steamers are at the same berth.

The rows of big funnels of various colors and two lines of fine steamers make an imposing sight. Allan liner Tunisian is at No. 1 berth, C. P. R. liner Empress of Britain at 2 and 3, Dominion liner Athena at No. 4, Head liner Bray Head at No. 5, Australian liner Wakanaui and C. P. R. liner Monte Temple at No. 6, and Elder Dempster, South African liner, Kaduna at No. 7. As there was no room elsewhere, the Monte Temple had to be crowded at the stern of the Australian liner Wakanaui. With the Bray Head sailing today, however, there will be some relief, as the Wakanaui will shift to No. 5. With a number of steamers coming along, in fact daily expected, it will require some planning to find places for them. Dominion liner Casandra is at the McLeod wharf, and Allan liner Sardinian at the I. C. R. deep water.

MOUNT TEMPLE IN; HAS OVER 1,500 PASSENGERS

All passenger records for a single steamer this season were eclipsed by the C. P. R. liner Mount Temple, Captain Moore, which arrived off the island last evening from London and Antwerp with 1,507 passengers, and docked at No. 6 Sand Point this morning. The steamer had a fairly good passage out and sighted a lot of field ice, but managed to keep clear of it. The new-comers are of various nationalities, a large portion being Galicians. Ten cars filled with immigrants from the steamer, Parisian and Campanella, passed through the city this morning on the way west. The new-comers arrived in the city about 10:30, but did not get away until nearly 1 o'clock. They were a fine healthy looking lot of people.

MATTERS IN CHANCERY COURT THIS MORNING

EX. ALD. LEWIS DIED TODAY

End Came Suddenly—Was 83 Years Old—Walked Here From North Shore in Youth and Became Esteemed Citizen

The city sustained a great loss this morning in the death of ex-Alderman John Lewis, whose life ended at his home in St. James street about 7 o'clock, after an illness of comparatively short duration. Mr. Lewis, who was in the 83rd year of his age, had been complaining of his heart for some time, but was confined to the house for only about a week. All last night he was quite low, but early this morning he was able to be up, but soon after was stricken.

He was one of the city's most respected citizens, and took a very active part in civic politics. He was a life-long Conservative.

Up to the time of his retirement from the council he was one of the oldest members of the board. He was born in Eucumaine, Northumberland County, in 1828 and came to St. John in 1849, starting a blacksmith shop in British street, and there he conducted business ever since. After being in the city a couple of years, he married Miss Mary Mahoney of Charlotte county, who died thirty years ago. Four sons and three daughters survive. The sons are William F. and James, who were connected with their father in his business, and P. J. of the ferry service, and Wentworth of Calgary. The daughters are Mrs. F. M. Tins of this city, Mrs. E. A. Duxie of Alameda, California, and Mrs. M. F. McDonald of Seattle. Nineteen grandchildren and six great-grandchildren also survive. Up to about fifteen years ago Mr. Lewis was actively engaged in business, but ill health forced him to retire. Since then the sons have conducted the business.

He was one of the oldest members of the St. John street Baptist church, and held the position of deacon. In former years he was also connected with the British street Baptist church, but not for long. He was a very ardent church worker and was always ready to help in the work of charity. All his life Mr. Lewis was a strong advocate of temperance, and a member of the Sons of Temperance and also of the Temple of Honor, having held office in both. As an alderman he had an upright career. He entered the common council in 1880, as a member of the union, and held office until 1891. He retired then, but was re-elected in 1892, and remained at the head of the union until he was succeeded by Alderman J. B. Jones. He acted as deputy mayor in 1905-06, and was, up to last year, chairman of the present sound committee. At all times he did his best to further the interests of the city and was as popular as he was ever at the board.

He was a man of sterling character, well liked by all who came in contact with him, and always willing to lend a helping hand to the needy. His business sense was in keeping with the rest of his life. The funeral will take place on Thursday afternoon at 2:30 from his late residence 58 St. James street.

CLOSE OF THE SEASON OF FISHING THROUGH ICE

Was a Profitable One for the Men on the Kennebecas—Ice Shows Signs of Breaking up

Today or tomorrow will probably mark the close of the fishing season on the Kennebecas river, a season which has been very profitable for the number of men who will now lay aside their nets and prepare to return to their regular labor for the summer. The ice is commencing to honeycomb in the river, a sign which is not regarded with favor by the fishermen, and before it is too late they will cease their operations.

The fishing season this past winter has been one of the best for some time with the men engaged in it, as the prices have been quite high, and the supply encouraging, though not too plentiful. Casperax are the fish sought after for the most part, and they have ranged in price from three to six cents wholesale during the winter, and the catch was sufficient to cope with the local demand, as well as to give a large quantity for outside consumption. The men engaged in this industry are mostly those who are employed in the lumber mills about the harbor front in the summer, and in the late fall, when the milling is finished, rather than to the woods, as do many of the millmen, they invest in nets and other fishing apparatus and, digging a few holes in the ice in the Kennebecas, try their luck. The ice has not yet begun to break up in the river, but there are signs in certain places that it will not be long before this happens. In the main river the ice is still quite firm, although there is open water for quite a distance. On Sunday last in his motor boat Charles Huggard of Indian town went as far as Brandy Point and had dinner there.

THE HATTLE LINE Steamer Cherone, Capt. Hatfield, from Rio Janeiro, arrived at Sixtina today. Steamer Leona, Capt. Hilton, bound for New York, sailed from Genfuegos yesterday.
