

lected, except in cases of sickness, which must be specially reported; also, the Society shall, as far as possible, avoid undertaking the maintenance of pensioners, seeking rather to obtain permanent assistance for those needing it among the charitable institutions of the city.

ART. XIII.—These By-laws may be altered or amended at any regular meeting of the Society, a notice in writing being given a month before and ratified at the ensuing annual business meeting, held in the month of May.

ART. XIV.—A copy of the foregoing Constitution and By-laws shall be printed with the Annual Report, and shall be in the hands of every worker of this Society.

By-Laws of the Industrial Room.

I.—The Committee, after its appointment each season, shall appoint from among its members a Secretary and a Treasurer. It shall appoint the time of its own meetings, and three members shall form a quorum.

II.—All moneys raised by Industrial Room, and all donations shall be the special property of the Industrial Room and disbursed according to direction of Industrial Room Committee. The Industrial Room shall be responsible for its own indebtedness.

III.—The Rooms shall be as nearly as possible in the central part of the city.

IV.—Work shall be supplied only to those who are really destitute, and each applicant for work must bring a voucher as to need, from some member of the Board in the Division to which she belongs. The Industrial Room may have its own Visiting Committee, and may give occasional work to women whose names may not be on the books of the Relief Society, on recommendation of the said Visiting Committee.

V.—A scale of prices for work shall be fixed by the Committee of the Industrial Room.

VI.—As each Depository Committee will insist, when practicable, on some work being done by all applicants for assistance, the Industrial Committee shall not refuse work to inferior workers.

VII.—The Committee shall be at liberty to make any further By-laws for its own guidance, so long as they do not interfere with the above or with the Constitution or By-laws of the parent Society.

VIII.—The By-laws may be altered or amended at any meeting of the Committee by a two-thirds vote of those present, notice having been given in writing one month previously.
