Lawrence Strowbridge an elderly man whose eyes has been afflicted but considerably later now, on Monday went into the woods of Messrs. James and Wm. Danabas, to chop a tree down they had given him for firewood, accidentally fell the tree on one of their cows, injuring her so she had to be killed.

A certain number of young people hearts are galloping at a wonderful rate on account of the near approach of their festive day, which is to make them very happy or extremely miserable the rest of their lives. At the auction sale of James Stephenson on Monday, cows and pigs brought good prices, some cows over $20 up to $35 each. Notwithstanding the complaint of the hard times, good farms are in keen demand to rent.

CRAMPTON.

An unusually successful entertainment was given in the Foresters' hall on Wednesday evening, Sept. 27. It will be remembered that this active organization, Crampton, No. 723, has not been in existence but a brief fifteen months, but during that time the activity shown by the members has resulted in much improvement. The old frame edifice known once as a church and which was east aside, the Foresters have renovated, and on the ground flat is the fine commodious apartments of Mr. S. Morris, general merchant. The upper flat is the "Forest Home" of Court Crampton. On the date above mentioned the hall was crowded with a strikingly intelligent audience composed of friends from Putnam, Ayos, Harrisville, Mossley and Ingersoll. J. H. Hegler, bar-rister, of Ingersoll, presided in a manner which would have done honor to the most experienced. The programme supplied quite in abundance by Vaunting's orchestra. Recitations and readings by Miss Sage and Mr. Uren, and addresses from Rev. E. Thompson, J. Vaunting and the Chief Ranger, John Swartout. Miss Sage's whistling solos were much appreciated, as were her recitations. The committee are to be congratulated upon securing such a successful treat for people of Crampton.

KINTORE.

Mr. Armstrong was a young man, well known and beloved by all who knew him, and his loss will be much felt in our neighborhood. This is the sixth of the family who died. The funeral services were conducted by Rev. Mr. Munroe.

We understand that the Foresters intend to march to the Presbyterian church, next Sunday, where special services will be conducted by Rev. Mr. Hart.

Mr. Peter McGee is home on a visit.

On Wednesday evening a meeting of the ratepayers of our school was held in the school house. Several of the section are anxious to have a V form taught. No decision was arrived at however.

At Dunville Wednesday burglars entered Congco's hardware store and stole a quantity of silverware and small goods. Two men, John Chapman and Alex. Stevens, have been arrested in Buffalo charged with the robbery. The goods were found in their possession. The men are old offenders in Dunville. The former got twelve and the latter eighteen months at Central.

At a meeting of the coal sale agents at New York last week no change was made in prices for October delivery. The general trade situation was reported to be in good condition. The estimated output for October was fixed at 3,500,000 tons, against nearly 4,000,000 last year.

Mr. William Thompson, formerly city editor of The London Advertiser and editor of the Manitoba edition of the Farmers' Advocate, was terribly injured in a runaway accident at London last week.

Thomas Lawrence, farmer, of Nottawa saga, was found dead in a bush a few miles from Stayner on Saturday. He had been hunting and is supposed to have accidentally shot himself.

Ireland's Day at the World's fair was celebrated on Saturday in grand style. A monster parade of military, civic and church organizations was a feature of the day. Speeches were delivered by Hon. Edward Blake, Lord Mayor Shanks, of Dublin, and other prominent men. An interesting letter which he received from Mr. Gladstone just before he sailed for Canada.

By a vote of over three to one the Supreme Council of the Knights of Pythias for Minnesota has refused to admit saloon keepers to membership.

New Stoves.—Robertson & McKay are now offering two entirely new lines of parlor coal stove with and without oven.

ENGLAND'S UNEMPLOYED.

The Government Intends Taking Action—To Employ 1,000,000. People.

New York, Oct. 1.—The London correspondent of a New York newspaper cables as follows: The English Government have at last determined to deal with the vital question of the unemployed and their experiment will be watched with interest by all the world. Sir John Gorst has pronounced himself in favor of a plan for dealing with the question in the rural districts which has received the sympathetic consideration of the Government. The proposal is to employ the local authorities to buy, or lease, waste or unoccupied land and to turn the surplus labor upon it. By this means it is believed that tens of thousands of acres now useless could be made fertile by spade labor and at the same time an effective check be put on the persistent migration of unemployed agricultural laborers into the towns, an evil which is the despair of many economists.

It is asserted that this is almost the only way profitably to employ the idle without bringing them into subsidized competition with actual workers. Meanwhile that energetic and remarkable practical socialist member of Parliament, John Burns, after many interviews and much correspondence with Mr. Fowler, president of the Local Government Board, has persuaded that gentleman to issue a circular to the local authorities giving them permission to institute relief works, taking the form of the reclamation of waste lands, and some authorities will probably utilize the men's labor in that manner.

Always Picturesque.

Styles for the approaching winter are to lean more than ever to the picturesque—American Wagon.

Just as if the styles had not always leaned to the picturesque. Can any observer whose memory goes back twenty-five years recall a time when the dress of women was not perfectly beautiful? Crinolines, bustles, broad skirts, big bonnets, round hats, no hats at all, it is impossible that woman should be dressed in any style that men will not adore.

Entitled to the Best.

All are entitled to the best that their money will buy, so every family should have, at once, a bottle of the best family remedy, Syrup of Figs, to cleanse the system when colds or biliousness. For sale in 75 cent bottles by all leading druggists.

Of this number there were 71 widowers and 129 widows over 12 years of age and under 20 years of age, and 2,065 widowers and 3,840 widows over 20 and under 25 years of age.

A New and Remarkable Amusement. The Court Journal.

After palmistry comes the near society amusement, that of proclaiming character and the future fortune by means of the color of the skin of the arm, the lines in the skin, their number, convolutions, their abundance, or the contrary. This can be made a very interesting amusement.

So Thinks a Californian. The San Francisco Chronicle.

Of one thing, however, we may be reasonably certain, and that is that if women in the civilized world once adopt short skirts for outdoor wear they will never revert to long ones.

The Division He Wanted. Mother—Here, son, is a cake for you and your brother. Divide it up equally. Son—Why do they make cakes with holes in the middle, mamma? Mother—Just to look pretty, I suppose. Don't you like them so? Son—Yes'm, they're good enough, only I wish I had to divide with somebody that could eat the holes.

The Only Thing Let Unshown. For two hours the fashionable lady kept the draper exhibiting his goods, and at the end of that period she sweetly asked: "Are you quite sure you have shown me everything you have?" "No, madam," said the draper, with an insinuating smile, "I have yet an old account in my ledger which I shall very gladly show you."

Cherokee Checkers.

A game of checkers was played for a claim on the Cherokee strip last Saturday. Alexander Gillespie, having raced from the border, dismounted from his horse on a vacant claim, when another man, armed with rifle, rode up. "We will play a game of checkers for this claim," said he. "I've jumped and it's your move." At these words the second corner raised his rifle to his shoulder and aimed at Gillespie. Mr. Gillespie moved and the stranger got into the king row.

Catarrh, Heart Failure, Paralysis of the Throat

"I Thank God and Hood's Sarsaparilla for Perfect Health."

"Gentlemen: For the benefit of suffering humanity I wish to state a few facts: For several years I have suffered from catarrh and heart failure, getting so bad I could not work and

could scarcely walk

I had a very bad spell of paralysis of the throat some time ago. My throat seemed closed and I could not swallow. The doctors said it was caused by heart failure, and gave medicine which I took according to directions, but it did not seem to do me any good. My wife urged me to try Hood's Sarsaparilla, sending me of Mr. Joseph C. Smith, who had been

At Death's Door but was entirely cured by Hood's Sarsaparilla. After talking with Mr. Smith, I concluded to try Hood's Sarsaparilla. When I had taken two bottles I felt very much better. I have continued taking it, and an now feeling excellent. I thank God, and Hood's Sarsaparilla and my wife for my restoration to perfect health." HARVEY HEED, Laceyville, O.
