

Baking Powder

ELY PURE

...orning and elected to be tried at the assizes.

From Thursday's Daily. In the supreme court chambers this morning before Mr. Justice Walker...

MIDWINTER FAIR.

San Francisco, April 25.—Another very interesting feature to-day was added to already wonderful Russian section...

The committee on awards is now holding daily sessions. Nearly all the jurists have been appointed and the work of judging the exhibits will begin almost immediately.

San Francisco, April 25.—As many predicted, the Chinese took advantage of the winter fair concession to bring in a number of their countrymen intent on making a home in the United States.

San Francisco, April 25.—The captain of the steamer is not pained as was the case of New York by the Point Bonita rocks, but that she probably rests on her side, perhaps her bilges crushed to some extent, but not pinned through.

San Francisco, April 25.—Application was made to-day to have the personal property in this country, amounting to $15,000, belonging to the late Irish leader, C. S. Parnell, turned over to a receiver appointed in Ireland by the English courts.

San Francisco, April 25.—The delegates to the fourth annual convention of the International League of Press Clubs, which opens to-morrow in Atlanta, arrived here this morning on a special train of Pullman cars from Lookout Mountain, which had been entertained last night by Mayor Ochs and a committee of the citizens of Chattanooga. After a brief stop they were taken on an excursion to Chickamauga. On their arrival at Atlanta this evening they will be met by the members of the Atlanta Press club, the mayor and the city council and the directors of the Cotton State and International Exposition company and escorted to their hotel. Later an informal reception will be tendered them by the Women's Press club of Georgia, assisted by the Atlanta Press club, at the Kimball house.

San Francisco, April 25.—The king is believed to be in the best of health, and it is presumed, before that it is circumstances permit of early operation, that the king will be completely and perfectly, and Gladstone may live to spend many years of learned and peaceful leisure in full possession of that noble faculty of sight which throughout life has been the source of his greatest and most valuable pleasures.—The Hospital.

San Francisco, April 25.—Frederick Brandt, saloon keeper, shot and killed Dan Mahoney, an ex-convict, yesterday. The latter was creating a disturbance at the saloon man shot him as he was in the act of bringing down a chair on his head.

LABOR COMMISSION.

Reports of Majority and Minority Presented.

THEY DIFFER VERY CONSIDERABLY

The Majority Against Specific Labor Laws—They Advocate Arbitration—The Minority Says Workman and Capitalist Are Both Public Servants—Various Abuses Strongly Condemned.

London, April 30.—The majority and minority reports of the royal labor commission have been issued. The majority report endorses the present law, but condemns the thing of a legal limit to the hours of labor and advocates arbitration in cases of differences. The minority report expressed the opinion that the solution of the present industrial anarchy will come when workmen and capitalists are regarded alike as servants of the community. It condemns the present system, low wages and excessive hours, and recommends an eight hour day, with an increase of the minimum hours.

It was announced in the house to-day that there was no foundation for the report that the India mints are to be reopened for free coinage. In the house of commons to-day the foreign secretary said it would be possible to adopt the proposal of New Zealand to annex Samoa without the consent of Germany and the United States. The government, however, was pursuing the matter.

The Earthquake's Victims. London, April 30.—Four hundred persons were killed by the recent earthquake in Greece, and twenty thousand persons are homeless and destitute from the same cause.

Beale-Blaine. Washington, D. C., April 30.—Only the intimate friends of the two families attended the wedding to-day of Miss Hattie Beale, third daughter of the late ex-governor James G. Beale, and Hon. Truxter Beale, ex-minister to Persia and only son of the late General Edward L. Beale. The ceremony was solemnized without much ostentation at the Beale residence, Rev. Dr. Walker, the Episcopal pastor of St. John's, officiating. It had first been announced that Rev. Dr. Hamlin, who preached Mr. Beale's funeral sermon, would be the officiating minister, but that was subsequently changed.

American Editors' Excursion. Chicago, April 30.—The Illinois editors who are about to take a jaunt to Europe for the purpose of (they hope) paying their respects to Queen Victoria, "doing" the Antwerp exposition, dropping in on President Carnot and performing sundry other social missions, will round up in this city on Wednesday before proceeding to New York. The start should have been made on Wednesday last, but a change of programme was necessitated by the new schedule of the steamer that will take the editors across the Atlantic. According to advices received up to noon to-day at the office of the National Printer Journalist in this city the party will number about 50.

San Antonio, Tex., April 30.—Sixty Ceceles, leader of a band of brigands who had been terrorizing the people of the district around Capula, Mexico, has been captured with four of his band and killed.

San Francisco, April 30.—Frederick Brandt, saloon keeper, shot and killed Dan Mahoney, an ex-convict, yesterday. The latter was creating a disturbance at the saloon man shot him as he was in the act of bringing down a chair on his head.

San Francisco, April 30.—Frederick Brandt, saloon keeper, shot and killed Dan Mahoney, an ex-convict, yesterday. The latter was creating a disturbance at the saloon man shot him as he was in the act of bringing down a chair on his head.

GHOSTLY VISITS.

A Disabled Spirit Makes Things Somewhat Unpleasant.

Wilkesbarre, Pa., April 30.—Cornelius Boyle, a miner from Baltimore, No. 2, a mining camp near here, was married two weeks ago to Miss Sarah Collins, his first wife having died two months before, leaving four small children. The second Mrs. Boyle settled in her new home on Monday and every day since then, she says she has been visited by the ghost of the late Mrs. Boyle, whom she had never seen in the flesh.

Just after entering the house she was somewhat surprised to see the tables and chairs upset and every time she righted them they were again overturned. The next day she was in the kitchen when the spirit appeared suddenly and tried to lay violent hands upon her. She shrieked and then fainted. On Tuesday and Wednesday Mrs. Boyle called neighbors to witness the visitations of the late Mrs. Boyle. Some of them said they heard sounds, but could see nothing. Mrs. Boyle No. 2 became hysterical and shortly afterwards ran out of the house with ashes on her head which she said were thrown by the spirit. The wrath appeared again on Thursday and she mustered sufficient courage to question it. The spirit, she says, told her "be good to the children and to keep them warm."

She is positive in her statements of the visitations and is supported in them by her sister. The sister says she has frequently heard the noises but as yet had not seen anything. Mrs. Boyle left the house yesterday and said she would never enter it again.

EASTERN CANADA.

Record Breaking Landslide at Riviere Ste. Anne, Quebec.

Ste. Anne de la Perade, Que., April 30.—An extensive landslide occurred last Friday at a place called Riviere Noire, along Riviere Ste. Anne. Land about a mile wide and four miles long was dislodged and carried a distance of nearly twenty acres, completely blocking the river. The water rose high in consequence of this dam, which soon broke, the flood carrying away everything in its passage. The bridges at Ste. Anne and Ste. Anne were swept away. Lumber merchants also lost considerable timber, their booms being broken and carried down. It is reported that seventy houses were destroyed when the slide took place, and that a family of four persons named Gauthier, of Riviere Noire, perished. The parishes of Ste. Anne, Ste. Albans and St. Casmir, lose several thousand dollars each, and are now without communication, which is so badly felt under the circumstances as considerable business was transacted between these places.

St. John's, Nfld., April 30.—The trial for the murder of the late ex-governor of the province, Mr. J. B. McLean, of Cincinnati, and Mrs. McLean, of Cincinnati, who were the only European in the family, Miss Blaine or Mrs. Beale, is a bright and attractive girl, has travelled considerably and is well read. Her mother is the daughter of Mr. L. McLean of Cincinnati, and Mrs. McLean, whose husband is minister to Greece. He came into a large fortune by the death of his father, and has an extensive ranch in California.

SEALERS' CLAIMS.

The Local Government's Resolution Daily Forwarded to Steamers.

Ottawa, April 30.—In the house this afternoon Tupper said the government had forwarded to the Imperial government a resolution passed by the British Columbia legislature regarding compensation to British sealers. The government, he said, had all along urged the claims of the sealers for compensation. Ottawa, April 30.—A report has been received from Winnipeg that Mr. Laurier had been offered and accepted nomination for Saskatchewan, N.W.T., district. There is no truth in the report. Some time ago Mr. Laurier did receive a communication from the Liberals of Saskatchewan on the matter but he has no intention of accepting the nomination.

Melita's Wedding Cake.

London, April 30.—An exact model of the wedding cake made for the recent marriage of the Princess Victoria Melita of Edinburgh, to the Grand Duke Ernest Louis of Hesse, was placed on exhibition in a confectionery store this morning in the Strand, and was inspected by a continuous throng of the aristocracy. The model is six feet in height and weighs nearly two hundred pounds.

Blue-Blooded Americans.

New York, April 30.—The marriage to-day at St. Thomas' church of Miss Marcel Montagu Seitch, one of the wealthiest of the season's belles, and Thomas C. Oakley, was attended by a large number of leading representatives of society, and was unexceptional. The king restores his parents to their constitutional rights as members of the royal house.

San Francisco, April 30.—Frederick Brandt, saloon keeper, shot and killed Dan Mahoney, an ex-convict, yesterday. The latter was creating a disturbance at the saloon man shot him as he was in the act of bringing down a chair on his head.

THE ANARCHIST HENRI.

The Bomb-Throwing Demon Makes Merry Over His Sentence to Death.

Paris, April 28.—Emil Henri, the bomb thrower, has been convicted and sentenced to death. During the trial he replied to the judge's questions coolly and impudently. He admitted that he had tried to escape, only in order to return and make his bomb on the next day. Continuing, he said: "I aimed at the mob at the centre of the cafe, where the orchestra was playing. I threw three bombs. However, you killed one person and wounded twenty others." The prisoner interposed, crying: "No! I injured only seventeen." In any case, the judge continued, you intended to kill twenty. "Certainly," replied Henri, with ostentation. "Certainly, I did. You took great care in making the bomb." The next remark of the judge: "Valiant declared that if he had meant to kill he would have put bullets and not nails in his bomb, on top 120 bullets in yours." "Precisely," was the calm reply, "I wanted to kill and not wound." "The jury will form its own opinion on the subject. They have seen the nails, inglorious cynicisms with which you avowed your intentions." The prisoner here interposed, exclaiming hotly: "It is not cynicism. It is conviction. I admit that I wanted to kill some of those bourgeois, and tried to destroy a building?" asked the judge. In reply to this question he answered contemptuously: "I did not care a snap for the bomb. The other witnesses included Police Commissioner, who tried to kill innocent persons." "No," replied Henri, "no bourgeois is innocent."

The prisoner, refusing later to relate his connection with the anarchist chief Orlin, the judge warned him against maintaining silence, which caused Henri to exclaim contemptuously: "Pooh, pooh, I am certain of being condemned to death, whether I maintain silence or whether I do not." The judge then resumed: "You are silent because you do not wish to admit that your hand is stained with blood. You took money from a thief." This caused the prisoner to retort indignantly: "If my hand are stained with blood red as your robe I am proud of what I have done."

A waiter of the cafe, who was wounded in the leg, testified to seeing Henri throw the bomb. The other witnesses included Police Commissioner, who was seriously injured by the bullets fired at him by the prisoner. When other witnesses backed upon the judge and affected to utterly disregard the proceedings. Thereupon Judge Potier reproached the prisoner with his callousness in the face of his victims, many of whom were poor working people.

The judge then resumed: "You are silent because you do not wish to admit that your hand is stained with blood. You took money from a thief." This caused the prisoner to retort indignantly: "If my hand are stained with blood red as your robe I am proud of what I have done."

Several persons whose names were attached to the call for a mass meeting denied that they were placed there with their consent. Leading white adherents of the queen like Widemann and Newman arrayed against the revolutionaries. The court districts are called upon to join in the resolution adopted to uphold the rights and welfare of the natives and are urged not to listen to Bush, Kaunamano, Nawahi, Kauii, John Cummins and the worthless foreigners with them. The court districts are called upon to join in the resolution adopted to uphold the rights and welfare of the natives and are urged not to listen to Bush, Kaunamano, Nawahi, Kauii, John Cummins and the worthless foreigners with them.

A PATRIOT'S TRIBULATIONS.

New Orleans, April 28.—Fire started about 11 o'clock to-night in the St. Charles hotel. The progress of the flames was so rapid that the Commerce street side of the third, fourth and fifth stories were soon in flames, and before the occupants, the guests and servants could be moved. Every effort was made to awaken the occupants, but the flames drove the firemen and others back. Several persons were seen at a window on the fourth floor, facing on Commerce street, apparently in the flames, crying for help. One of them, a man, sprang from the window, falling on the pavement on his head and dashing out his brains. His clothes were burned from him and his body was black from burns. What became of the others who were standing around him, whether they escaped or whether burned to death, it is impossible to say, and will not be known until the ruins are searched. The dead man was buried beyond recognition, and it was impossible to say whether he was

FIRE AT NEW ORLEANS.

The St. Charles Hotel Burned—Several Lives Known to be Lost. New Orleans, April 28.—Fire started about 11 o'clock to-night in the St. Charles hotel. The progress of the flames was so rapid that the Commerce street side of the third, fourth and fifth stories were soon in flames, and before the occupants, the guests and servants could be moved. Every effort was made to awaken the occupants, but the flames drove the firemen and others back. Several persons were seen at a window on the fourth floor, facing on Commerce street, apparently in the flames, crying for help. One of them, a man, sprang from the window, falling on the pavement on his head and dashing out his brains. His clothes were burned from him and his body was black from burns. What became of the others who were standing around him, whether they escaped or whether burned to death, it is impossible to say, and will not be known until the ruins are searched. The dead man was buried beyond recognition, and it was impossible to say whether he was

DaGama Captured by His Friends and Again by Uruguay.

New York, April 28.—The Herald's Montevideo dispatch says: A party of Amalir da Gama's friends rescued him from the Portuguese transport on which he was a prisoner and started for the shore. The Portuguese guards were sound asleep when the admiral was taken from the transport. In an attempt to land the party were fired upon by the Uruguayan government soldiers, and DaGama is now a prisoner of that government.

San Francisco, April 30.—Frederick Brandt, saloon keeper, shot and killed Dan Mahoney, an ex-convict, yesterday. The latter was creating a disturbance at the saloon man shot him as he was in the act of bringing down a chair on his head.

WEALERS IN WOE.

Coxey's Commonweal Army in Very Bad Luck.

Washington, D. C., April 30.—Coxey's "Wealers" spent a bad night at Brighton driving park, where they will remain, to quote Coxey, "until the stench of their bodies fills the nostrils of the national legislators." They had no shelter, they were soaked with dew and chilled to the bone. A number of people visited the camp to-day and contributed small change. The first to arrive was "Old Man" Hotchins, the populist orator from Los Angeles, who reached Washington from California. He said he had known Carl Brown in Los Angeles some years ago, as editor of a political paper called "The Cactus."

OLD AND WET WAS THEIR LOWLY BED.

At Brighton Driving Park Last Night—Coxey Says the Legislators Will Soon Smell Them—Small Change From Charitable Visitors—The Other Detachments Tramping Forward.

Washington, D. C., April 30.—Coxey's "Wealers" spent a bad night at Brighton driving park, where they will remain, to quote Coxey, "until the stench of their bodies fills the nostrils of the national legislators." They had no shelter, they were soaked with dew and chilled to the bone. A number of people visited the camp to-day and contributed small change. The first to arrive was "Old Man" Hotchins, the populist orator from Los Angeles, who reached Washington from California. He said he had known Carl Brown in Los Angeles some years ago, as editor of a political paper called "The Cactus."

HAWAIIAN AFFAIRS.

San Francisco, April 28.—Advices per the barkentine W. H. Diamond from Honolulu, dated April 11, are to the effect that the announced mass meeting of Royalists took place on the evening of April 10 in the Palace Square. There might have been as many as one thousand present, possibly all the natives, of whom were natives, the rest Chinese and whites.

There were five speakers, one pure native, a Canadian, Ashford, and an Englishman named Phillips. All the speakers were quiet, peaceableness, moderation and a policy of inactivity, taking no part in voting while awaiting the answer of the United States to the pending protest or appeal of the Hawaiian people. Nothing was said of loyalty to the queen or of a desire to return to monarchy. Resolutions were adopted pledging the Royalists to decline to take the oath of allegiance to a provisional government and to oppose the re-establishment of the monarchy as provided in the call for the constitutional convention. A copy of the resolutions were ordered presented to United States Minister Willis with the request that they be forwarded to Washington.

The following is the substance of a circular issued yesterday from the Honolulu office. It appeals to the natives to join with those who conducted Monday's mass meeting. "Three thousand people assembled at the mass meeting in spite of the resistance of Hui Aloha Aina and the newspapers Ka Leo, and Bush, and Kaunamano. The court districts are called upon to join in the resolution adopted to uphold the rights and welfare of the natives and are urged not to listen to Bush, Kaunamano, Nawahi, Kauii, John Cummins and the worthless foreigners with them. The court districts are called upon to join in the resolution adopted to uphold the rights and welfare of the natives and are urged not to listen to Bush, Kaunamano, Nawahi, Kauii, John Cummins and the worthless foreigners with them.

THE OLYMPIA CAPITOL.

Architect Flagg, of New York, the Successful Competitor. Olympia, April 27.—The capitol commission has made choice of plans entered for competition instituted by the state for the purpose of securing a suitable plan for a state capitol building. The four prize winners are: First, Ernest Flagg, New York; second, William M. Keston, Minneapolis; third, W. H. Dennis, Minneapolis; fourth, German & De Waard, Duluth, and W. E. Brown, Chicago. Following is a description of the buildings:

The plan general consists of a central rotunda, to the north of which is the senate chamber and to the south the house of representatives, with the main entrance at the east and a supreme court room at the west. Ample corridors traverse the building parallel to the principal axis, affording access to and separating the various parts. Entrances are provided at the east and west on both the first and basement floors. The rotunda has double walls and is lighted from above and at the sides. Between the walls is placed the grand staircase, in four flights, so that one can mount from the four main openings. The rotunda extends through the whole height of the building, and is crowned by a dome in open work masonry. The senate chamber, in the form of a hemicycle, is adorned with a semi-circular Corinthian colonnade, separating the part for the members from the visitors gallery. The seats are arranged in tiers sloping towards the speaker's desk. Members can thus enter from the level of the main floor or from that of the basement. The committee rooms are on the first floor to the north of the chamber and open on the members' corridor. The space below the committee rooms in the basement, is devoted to the senate clerks and stenographers.

San Francisco, April 30.—Frederick Brandt, saloon keeper, shot and killed Dan Mahoney, an ex-convict, yesterday. The latter was creating a disturbance at the saloon man shot him as he was in the act of bringing down a chair on his head.

WEALERS IN WOE.

Coxey's Commonweal Army in Very Bad Luck.

Washington, D. C., April 30.—Coxey's "Wealers" spent a bad night at Brighton driving park, where they will remain, to quote Coxey, "until the stench of their bodies fills the nostrils of the national legislators." They had no shelter, they were soaked with dew and chilled to the bone. A number of people visited the camp to-day and contributed small change. The first to arrive was "Old Man" Hotchins, the populist orator from Los Angeles, who reached Washington from California. He said he had known Carl Brown in Los Angeles some years ago, as editor of a political paper called "The Cactus."

OLD AND WET WAS THEIR LOWLY BED.

At Brighton Driving Park Last Night—Coxey Says the Legislators Will Soon Smell Them—Small Change From Charitable Visitors—The Other Detachments Tramping Forward.

Washington, D. C., April 30.—Coxey's "Wealers" spent a bad night at Brighton driving park, where they will remain, to quote Coxey, "until the stench of their bodies fills the nostrils of the national legislators." They had no shelter, they were soaked with dew and chilled to the bone. A number of people visited the camp to-day and contributed small change. The first to arrive was "Old Man" Hotchins, the populist orator from Los Angeles, who reached Washington from California. He said he had known Carl Brown in Los Angeles some years ago, as editor of a political paper called "The Cactus."

HAWAIIAN AFFAIRS.

San Francisco, April 28.—Advices per the barkentine W. H. Diamond from Honolulu, dated April 11, are to the effect that the announced mass meeting of Royalists took place on the evening of April 10 in the Palace Square. There might have been as many as one thousand present, possibly all the natives, of whom were natives, the rest Chinese and whites.

There were five speakers, one pure native, a Canadian, Ashford, and an Englishman named Phillips. All the speakers were quiet, peaceableness, moderation and a policy of inactivity, taking no part in voting while awaiting the answer of the United States to the pending protest or appeal of the Hawaiian people. Nothing was said of loyalty to the queen or of a desire to return to monarchy. Resolutions were adopted pledging the Royalists to decline to take the oath of allegiance to a provisional government and to oppose the re-establishment of the monarchy as provided in the call for the constitutional convention. A copy of the resolutions were ordered presented to United States Minister Willis with the request that they be forwarded to Washington.

The following is the substance of a circular issued yesterday from the Honolulu office. It appeals to the natives to join with those who conducted Monday's mass meeting. "Three thousand people assembled at the mass meeting in spite of the resistance of Hui Aloha Aina and the newspapers Ka Leo, and Bush, and Kaunamano. The court districts are called upon to join in the resolution adopted to uphold the rights and welfare of the natives and are urged not to listen to Bush, Kaunamano, Nawahi, Kauii, John Cummins and the worthless foreigners with them. The court districts are called upon to join in the resolution adopted to uphold the rights and welfare of the natives and are urged not to listen to Bush, Kaunamano, Nawahi, Kauii, John Cummins and the worthless foreigners with them.

THE OLYMPIA CAPITOL.

Architect Flagg, of New York, the Successful Competitor. Olympia, April 27.—The capitol commission has made choice of plans entered for competition instituted by the state for the purpose of securing a suitable plan for a state capitol building. The four prize winners are: First, Ernest Flagg, New York; second, William M. Keston, Minneapolis; third, W. H. Dennis, Minneapolis; fourth, German & De Waard, Duluth, and W. E. Brown, Chicago. Following is a description of the buildings:

The plan general consists of a central rotunda, to the north of which is the senate chamber and to the south the house of representatives, with the main entrance at the east and a supreme court room at the west. Ample corridors traverse the building parallel to the principal axis, affording access to and separating the various parts. Entrances are provided at the east and west on both the first and basement floors. The rotunda has double walls and is lighted from above and at the sides. Between the walls is placed the grand staircase, in four flights, so that one can mount from the four main openings. The rotunda extends through the whole height of the building, and is crowned by a dome in open work masonry. The senate chamber, in the form of a hemicycle, is adorned with a semi-circular Corinthian colonnade, separating the part for the members from the visitors gallery. The seats are arranged in tiers sloping towards the speaker's desk. Members can thus enter from the level of the main floor or from that of the basement. The committee rooms are on the first floor to the north of the chamber and open on the members' corridor. The space below the committee rooms in the basement, is devoted to the senate clerks and stenographers.

San Francisco, April 30.—Frederick Brandt, saloon keeper, shot and killed Dan Mahoney, an ex-convict, yesterday. The latter was creating a disturbance at the saloon man shot him as he was in the act of bringing down a chair on his head.

WEALERS IN WOE.

Coxey's Commonweal Army in Very Bad Luck.

Washington, D. C., April 30.—Coxey's "Wealers" spent a bad night at Brighton driving park, where they will remain, to quote Coxey, "until the stench of their bodies fills the nostrils of the national legislators." They had no shelter, they were soaked with dew and chilled to the bone. A number of people visited the camp to-day and contributed small change. The first to arrive was "Old Man" Hotchins, the populist orator from Los Angeles, who reached Washington from California. He said he had known Carl Brown in Los Angeles some years ago, as editor of a political paper called "The Cactus."

OLD AND WET WAS THEIR LOWLY BED.

At Brighton Driving Park Last Night—Coxey Says the Legislators Will Soon Smell Them—Small Change From Charitable Visitors—The Other Detachments Tramping Forward.

Washington, D. C., April 30.—Coxey's "Wealers" spent a bad night at Brighton driving park, where they will remain, to quote Coxey, "until the stench of their bodies fills the nostrils of the national legislators." They had no shelter, they were soaked with dew and chilled to the bone. A number of people visited the camp to-day and contributed small change. The first to arrive was "Old Man" Hotchins, the populist orator from Los Angeles, who reached Washington from California. He said he had known Carl Brown in Los Angeles some years ago, as editor of a political paper called "The Cactus."

HAWAIIAN AFFAIRS.

San Francisco, April 28.—Advices per the barkentine W. H. Diamond from Honolulu, dated April 11, are to the effect that the announced mass meeting of Royalists took place on the evening of April 10 in the Palace Square. There might have been as many as one thousand present, possibly all the natives, of whom were natives, the rest Chinese and whites.

There were five speakers, one pure native, a Canadian, Ashford, and an Englishman named Phillips. All the speakers were quiet, peaceableness, moderation and a policy of inactivity, taking no part in voting while awaiting the answer of the United States to the pending protest or appeal of the Hawaiian people. Nothing was said of loyalty to the queen or of a desire to return to monarchy. Resolutions were adopted pledging the Royalists to decline to take the oath of allegiance to a provisional government and to oppose the re-establishment of the monarchy as provided in the call for the constitutional convention. A copy of the resolutions were ordered presented to United States Minister Willis with the request that they be forwarded to Washington.

The following is the substance of a circular issued yesterday from the Honolulu office. It appeals to the natives to join with those who conducted Monday's mass meeting. "Three thousand people assembled at the mass meeting in spite of the resistance of Hui Aloha Aina and the newspapers Ka Leo, and Bush, and Kaunamano. The court districts are called upon to join in the resolution adopted to uphold the rights and welfare of the natives and are urged not to listen to Bush, Kaunamano, Nawahi, Kauii, John Cummins and the worthless foreigners with them. The court districts are called upon to join in the resolution adopted to uphold the rights and welfare of the natives and are urged not to listen to Bush, Kaunamano, Nawahi, Kauii, John Cummins and the worthless foreigners with them.

THE OLYMPIA CAPITOL.

Architect Flagg, of New York, the Successful Competitor. Olympia, April 27.—The capitol commission has made choice of plans entered for competition instituted by the state for the purpose of securing a suitable plan for a state capitol building. The four prize winners are: First, Ernest Flagg, New York; second, William M. Keston, Minneapolis; third, W. H. Dennis, Minneapolis; fourth, German & De Waard, Duluth, and W. E. Brown, Chicago. Following is a description of the buildings:

The plan general consists of a central rotunda, to the north of which is the senate chamber and to the south the house of representatives, with the main entrance at the east and a supreme court room at the west. Ample corridors traverse the building parallel to the principal axis, affording access to and separating the various parts. Entrances are provided at the east and west on both the first and basement floors. The rotunda has double walls and is lighted from above and at the sides. Between the walls is placed the grand staircase, in four flights, so that one can mount from the four main openings. The rotunda extends through the whole height of the building, and is crowned by a dome in open work masonry. The senate chamber, in the form of a hemicycle, is adorned with a semi-circular Corinthian colonnade, separating the part for the members from the visitors gallery. The seats are arranged in tiers sloping towards the speaker's desk. Members can thus enter from the level of the main floor or from that of the basement. The committee rooms are on the first floor to the north of the chamber and open on the members' corridor. The space below the committee rooms in the basement, is devoted to the senate clerks and stenographers.

San Francisco, April 30.—Frederick Brandt, saloon keeper, shot and killed Dan Mahoney, an ex-convict, yesterday. The latter was creating a disturbance at the saloon man shot him as he was in the act of bringing down a chair on his head.