A Great Farm Journal Offer From now to Dec. 1903 Nearly 5 Years

By special arrangement made with the publishers of the FARM JOURNAL we are enabled to offer that paper to every subscriber who pays for the MIRAMICHI ADVANCE one year ahead, for only $1.00—both papers for the price of one only; our paper one year and the FARM JOURNAL from now to December, 1903, nearly 5 years. The FARM JOURNAL is an old established paper, enjoying great popularity, one of the best and most useful farm papers published.

By this offer should be accepted without delay.

Miramichi and the North Shore, etc.

SHAWL LOST.—See advt.

CHARVIL DISCRIMINATION in the selection of the tea to be used in your homes can have but one result—Union Blend.

A LITTLE OUT.—The World says the Macdonald government fell in 1872. Most people know that it was in 1873.

DYSPEPSIA appears to be spreading in Chatham. It is stated that, in some cases, children from houses where the disease prevails have been allowed to attend the public schools. The school has been closed for a week as a precautionary action.

THE FUNERAL of the late James Clowry, one of Chatham's oldest and best known citizens took place from his late residence, Duke street, on Tuesday afternoon and was largely attended.

OTHERS SETTLED.—An oyster supper will be given under the auspices of St. John's Church Y. P. S. C. E. on Monday evening, Oct. 30th, commencing at 7.30. Oysters served in all styles; other refreshments extra. Admission 10c; oysters 15c.

ST. LUKE'S.—Rev. Geo. M. Young of St. Luke's Church, Chatham, preached in Queen Square Methodist Church, St. John, last Sunday. St. Luke's pulpit was occupied on Sunday morning by Rev. Mr. Fisher of Newcastle and in the evening by Rev. Mr. Waddell of St. John.

REV. R. LAINO, Principal of the Ladies' College, Halifax, N. S., was the preacher at both services in St. Andrew's, 1st Sunday. The Principal's services were highly appreciated by the congregation. The pastor, Rev. D. Henderson, enjoyed "a day of rest."

THE FARM JOURNAL is the bulled down, big-the-mail-on-the-head paper, out to the wide-awake farmer and villager. We give the Farm Journal for the balance of 1899 and all of 1900, 1901, 1902 and 1903, as a prize to every one of our subscribers who will pay a year ahead for it.

PRINCE BATES OF PUL.—Mr. M. F. Mooney, of the St. John pulp mill, and Mr. Wagon, of the Chatham mill, were heard before the special committee of the Common Council of St. John Friday evening in reference to excessive freight charges on pulp sent to London. Mr. Schofield, of the Furze Line, defended the charges, and said that this winter's trade that no contract has yet been signed.

MORRIS ROCK.—Mr. Willard Kitchin has been awarded the contract for enlarging the Morris Rock on the I. C. R. about five miles east of Campbellton, so as to give four feet more headway than at present. A gang of rock-drillers will be started at each end of the tunnel. The work is to be carried on without impeding traffic.

A BIG OFFER.—During the month of October we offer the following:—The Daily Montreal Herald, 1 year The Farm Journal for 4 years The MIRAMICHI ADVANCE, 1 year.

The three papers as above stated for $1.75 cash in advance. This is an offer never before made and it will be open for this month only.

OBITUARY.—Michael Foley died at his home in Nelson on Sunday morning, 15th. Deceased was about 21 years of age and had been in poor health for some time. His funeral took place at the R. C. burying ground on Tuesday afternoon and was largely attended. He leaves a mother, two sisters and two brothers, to whom all extend their deepest sympathy in their bereavement.

UNRIVALED TOURIST SLEEPING cars for the accommodation of passengers holding second class tickets, are run by the Canadian Pacific Railway on Trans-continental Express train, leaving Windsor Station, Montreal, at 11 a.m. every Thursday and running through to Seattle. Passengers for Canadian Northwest and Pacific Coast points will be accommodated in these cars, on payment of a small additional berth charge. Each berth will accommodate two passengers.

MIRAMICHI MARBLE WORKS.—Now is the time to place your orders for cemetery work and avoid the spring rush. We have now on hand and coming one of the largest stocks of marble and granite monuments, headstones and tablets ever shown on the north shore, all from the latest designs and worked from the best material the market can produce. Call and get our prices. They are right.

JOHN H. LAWSON & Co.

CONSERVATION AT HALIFAX.—Amongst the North Shore clergy present at the consecration of St. Mary's Cathedral, Halifax, on Thursday last were Rev. Thos. Barry, V.O. and Rev. Wm. Verrill, Bathurst.

Rev. Father Joyner, of Chatham, Rev. Wm. McFarley, of Bathurst and Rev. Father Campbell, of Banbury Bay.

When Archbishop O'Brien was appointed there was a debt of $80,000 on the cathedral. This has been all paid off, and the building has been improved and beautified.

MUNICIPAL ELECTION.—Chatham (Town and Parish) is at last to be afforded the privilege of voting for its municipal council for the next two years. Warden Jas. F. Connor, Councillor Wm. Kerr and Mr. N. Cunningham are the candidates.

The field to choose from is not a very wide one. Warden Connor has proved a most capable representative, and it is worthy of note that when he is opposed something more in line with the intelligence of the community than what is offering for the purpose, cannot be brought out against him.

PERSONAL.—Mr. James Livingston, editor and proprietor of the Cambridge, Mass., Times, visited Chatham last week to see his sister, Mrs. W.J. Smith. He is a brother of the late John Livingston, formerly editor and proprietor of the St. John Telegraph, and was, for some time, in the business department of that paper. He left Chatham on Friday morning for Harcourt to see his brother, Mr. Gordon Livingston, another old newspaper man. Mr. Livingston is carrying on a successful paper and is to be congratulated on his prosperity.

THE PUBLISHER, Wilmer Atkinson Co., whose card will be found in another column, tell us Biggie Cow Book is most elaborately and beautifully illustrated in wood engraving, in half tone and in color; and the type, press work and binding are simply superb. Eight of the principal breeds are shown in colors true to life by a first class artist. No expense has been spared on these portraits, and they must certainly gratify and please. There are twenty illustrations covering the whole ground of the dairy.

St. John's Aliments and Remedies are worth the whole price of the book to any one owning even a small dairy. The village with one cow will find the work a great help. The creamery chapter is up-to-date, and will certainly interest many. It is an up-to-date book, and should form part of the library of every progressive farmer and cow owner in the United States. It contains 144 pages of type matter, and one hundred and thirty beautiful illustrations. It is handsomely bound in cloth. The price is $5.00, free by mail; address the publishers, Wilmer Atkinson Co., Philadelphia.

St. John Business College.

No other man in New Brunswick can claim the honor of starting so many young men on successful careers as the Principal of the St. John Business College. Almost every clerical position here, worth having, is held by his graduates.—Daily Telegraph.

Catalogues containing terms, courses of study, etc., mailed to any address.

Now is the Time to Enter.

A Good Offer.

The Farm Journal advertised (together with the Biggie Book) in another column is offered free for five years to all new subscribers to the ADVANCE who send their subscriptions within one month. The Biggie Books may also be obtained through this office at the advertised price.

To Our Readers.

The ADVANCE will be obliged to its numerous readers if they will enable us to make reference in our local columns to matters and events in which they are interested, or may think their friends may be interested. This can be done by giving the information in person at the office, or writing to us about it. Many things proper to be noticed in the ADVANCE's columns do not appear therein, simply because our attention is not called to them by those who would like to see reference to them in the paper, but have omitted to do their part in making them known. Come, therefore, or write and tell us your local news.

Mr. Strang's New Residence.

One of the finest residences of the North Shore is that which Mr. E. A. Strang is now building on his property fronting on Henderson Street (Station Road). The site is an excellent one both as regards drainage and prospect. It is about 150 feet off the road and approached by a slight ascent, while the ground slopes away to the north to the brook which is about 15 feet below the level of the foundation. From the upper windows a fine view of the town and the river—both up and down—had and, yet, it is within a few minutes walk of the public square.

The house is two stories 30x40 ft., exclusive of bay windows at each end, with an all 18x28 ft. bay windows, of which there are two—one at each end—extend up both stories. They are 4 ft. 6 in. x 10 ft. There is also a portion in front, which is 7 x 11 ft. Verandahs extend from the porches to each end of the house and also from the rear S.E. corner around the east end of the hall.

The bays are square and lighted up stairs and down by windows, the openings of which are 6 ft. x 4 ft. 10 in. The bay windows are divided into two panes each of polished plate glass 36x68 inches. The other windows are large and filled with 32 oz. glass and are all hung with cords and pulleys.

The roof is hipped and the cornice entablature under the eaves is heavy and richly moulded and bracketed, the pediment heads of the bays and porches combining with it to produce a handsome effect. The main entrance is at the front of the porch and is reached by broad steps between flaring buttresses.

The walls under the verandas are built entirely independent of the main foundation. They are of sandstone to the level of the ground and of brick above that. They are well ventilated.

The foundation is one of the great features of the house. It was excavated for the full size of both main house and all, down through shelly sandstone to bed level. The walls are of prepared French Port Core quarry sandstone, and are also feet high laid in lime and cement. They are carried up to three feet average above the ground and so windowed that the basement is almost as light as the upper parts of the house. The furnace room is separated from the cellar, and the heating arrangements are on an adequate scale.

The first floor is divided into a hallway 10 ft wide which runs centrally from front to rear, wide porched openings to the right and left lead into the two rooms into which the front of the house is divided. These, when thrown into one, will give the hall and bays and will provide a parlor 40 feet long. In the south room there is a fireplace, where the old-fashioned wood fire on a hearth will glow.

Other rooms on the first floor are the dining room and a bedroom with kitchen, pantry, etc. in the ell.

The main staircase leads up from the rear end of the hallway and has a broad landing half way up, from which a second staircase leads into the back hall of which are the bath and other rooms in the ell to the east, while the broad stairs leads west, up to the second floor of the main house. Here there are four large bedrooms besides the ample hall.

A short distance to the rear of the house there is a new two-story hip-roofed barn 28x40 ft. It also is built on a sandstone wall of solid masonry affording large cellar storage room. It has, on the inside, a north end, and a 10 ft. square box-stall and four open stalls for horses, besides other usual accommodation.

Mr. Strang's new home is one planned by himself. The work has been carried on under his own personal superintendence, with Mr. Wm. Scott as foreman, and it is needless to say that it is well and thoroughly done.

Carlton Hunt.

Messrs. G. A. Lounsbury, Geo. Hildebrand and Chas. Sergeant, with James Way as guide, started from Newcastle on Monday last week for a caribou hunt on the Fur, Fin and Feather Club's grounds—a four hours' drive from the shore town. They reached the camp about 9 p.m. and next morning started for Donahue Lake and barrens. Arrived at the lake they sighted a very fine buck caribou on the opposite side, about half past ten a.m. In trying to get around the lake to have the buck off they started three other caribou, while they did not succeed in coming upon the one they were after. Having thus failed to get near enough to any big game that day they returned to camp for the night.

On Wednesday morning they went to the upper meadows on Trout Brook, but did not find anything, although there were plenty of signs of game. Retaining by way of the lower meadows they suddenly came in sight of a very fine buck caribou. Mr. Way pointed the buck out. Messrs. Lounsbury and Hildebrand were manoeuvring to get the animal in a more advantageous position, and their guide knew that if they delayed much longer they would lose the buck. His orders for them to fire were, therefore, given with more intensity than loudness and were withal of a cursory character. However, the two at last "let strip," almost together, and down went the buck, much to Mr. Way's relief.

Mr. Lounsbury, after the venison had been taken care of and the party, somewhat tired, were around the evening camp fire awaiting the preparation of the well-earned evening meal, delivered quite a lecture on the advantages of being calm under all circumstances, and particularly when about to shoot a caribou.

"Had it not been for our great deliberation," said he, "those two shots indicated by the two perforations the buck would not have gone so true to the right spot."

"That's all right," said Jim, "but as one ball went in one side and the other I wonder where the other shot went, and which of you calm, cool and collected gentlemen missed?"

Mr. Hildebrand, during this time, was heard to say that Jim's cursory remarks about the time he fired, rather unsettled him, but all the same he couldn't feel that for the sake of the party's reputation, it was a good thing that he took such deliberate aim. "In fact," said he, "I was always a pretty good shot."

Chatham Joke in Support of the Volunteer Movement.

Mayor Winslow, of Chatham, received the following telegram from Mayor Sears of St. John on Monday.

ST. JOHN, Oct. 23, 1899.

To the Mayor of Chatham, N. B.

I am an earnest supporter of you that St. John has started a Provincial Volunteer Fund to provide additional pay and assistance to our New Brunswick African contingent and invites your cooperation and contributions. About $2,000 already collected here, with assistance from the St. John Council up to $2,000 for deficiency. Eight thousand dollars at least required.

Edward Sears, Mayor.

Mayor Winslow replied as follows on Tuesday morning:—

CHATHAM, Oct. 24, 1899.

To His Worship the Mayor, St. John:

Chatham citizens cheerfully contribute to assist New Brunswick contingent, and on their behalf I wish the brave boys God speed.

WARREN C. WINSLOW, Mayor.

Pursuant to the foregoing Mayor Winslow called a public meeting in the Town Hall for Tuesday evening, The Citizens' Band, under the leadership of Mr. Walter White, turned out and played through several of the streets, returning at 8 p.m. to the front of the Town Hall, where quite a large crowd had gathered.

Mayor Winslow addressed the people from the balcony, reading the telegram he had received from Mayor Sears and referring to the meeting he had called, to the war and the volunteers who were going from Canada and especially from New Brunswick. He said he would do all in his power to show that our sympathy and support were with them. The meeting would, no doubt, begin the work and subscription lists would probably be opened at the two banks and the two drug stores of the town and at the office of Hon. Senator Snowball.

After the Mayor had closed his remarks, the band played, God Save the Queen.

Quite a large number of citizens assembled in the council chamber about 8.30 and Mayor Winslow stated the object of the meeting and read the telegram he had received from the Mayor of St. John. He said that in talking the matter over with several leading citizens last night and to-day the idea had been expressed that the contributions made should go forward as the County of Northumberland, rather than as for particular localities. Those who had talked with him of the matter were Mr. James Robinson, our M. P., with the understanding that the movement would be a county one, had placed in his hands his check for $100 as his subscription. (Applause.)

Mayor Winslow said he had appointed a citizens' committee in St. John to solicit subscription and it might be well to do the same thing here.

Ald. Watt suggested that two or three collectors be appointed to secure subscriptions. Lists could also be left at the banks, drug stores and Mr. Snowball's, so that the ground would be pretty well covered. He asked how soon it would be necessary to have the money?

Town Marshall Lt. Col. McCulley said it was to pay the men with, its payment at once would not be necessary, but if for personal comfort it would be well to collect it at once. He moved that a committee of three be appointed to solicit subscriptions. Carried.

Mr. D. G. Smith suggested that as it was evidently desired that the movement should be a county one it would be well to take steps to cooperate with Newcastle, whose Mayor had also been communicated with on the subject by the Mayor of St. John.

Mr. F. E. Winslow suggested that whatever was subscribed should be collected by the end of the month and forwarded to the proper quarter.

Mr. R. A. Lawlor said the whole matter should be closed by the end of the week. Our boys who were going to South Africa might be conscripted as to their wishes in regard to the disposition of what they were to receive. Some of them might want to have it paid over to their mothers or families in their absence.

Town Marshall McCulley, said it was customary, when men went into active service, for them to have a part of their pay reserved to be paid to those depending upon them at home in their absence.

Capt. Mackenzie said the money subscribed would be divided by the department at Ottawa in a lump sum amongst the men who went to the front.

Mr. D. G. Smith said, as he understood it, this was a New Brunswick undertaking, and it was hardly reasonable to suppose that the militia department at Ottawa would undertake the administration of such a fund. The military authorities would only administer monies placed at their disposal by government, or perhaps by a parliamentary grant, which he hoped would be made. The Red Cross Society had asked for subscriptions and he observed that St. John had sent $200 to it, but that was all he had heard of as having been sent out of the Province for administration at Ottawa.

Dr. Cox asked the subscriptions sought were for a provincial, not a Dominion fund. A committee appointed here might become connected with a central committee for the Province. He agreed that whatever was contributed in Northumberland should form part of a New Brunswick fund. It would be broader—not merely local.

Mr. E. W. Jarvis: Would it not be as well to make it a Dominion fund?

Mayor Winslow: We are asked to join with St. John and other places in contributing to a New Brunswick fund.

Mr. J. L. Stewart said all the provinces were doing this kind of thing for their men. This was started in St. John and we were asked to cooperate with them in behalf of New Brunswick. If we send a good money we shall be doing our duty, or if we send only a few men and a large sum of money, we shall be equally doing our share.

On motion of Ald. Watt, Mr. R. A. Lawlor was chosen a member of the subscription committee; on motion of Mr. C. A. G. Bruce, Major Mackenzie was also chosen.

Ald. Watt moved for the appointment of Col. Ferguson, but that gentleman nominated Lt. Col. McCulley, who was chosen as third committee member.

On motion of Mr. J. L. Stewart, Mayor Winslow was added to the committee and they were instructed to communicate with the Mayor and committee of the town of Newcastle with the object of making the undertaking a County one.

Mr. Jas. Nicol asked what would be done with the money should Kruger "knuckle down" before our men got to Quebec.

Capt. Mackenzie said the men were now enlisted for six months, and must serve for not more than six months to the right spot.

Dr. Cox said the money should go to these young men as a reward for their heroism and patriotism in volunteering for the front.

Mr. F. E. Winslow referred to the fact that St. John city council had guaranteed the fund necessary to be raised to the extent of $2,000 and asked why the Chatham and Newcastle councils should not take the same action.

Mr. Mackenzie said it had been suggested that the Council take no action in the matter but leave it to individual generosity.

Mr. James Nicol doubted the power of the Council to appropriate money for such a purpose.

The Mayor said it might be dangerous to raise the question of constitutionality in a matter of this kind. (Laughter and applause.)

Col. Ferguson said this meeting might express itself in favor of the Town Council continuing until their rails were washed in the waves. The Shamrock labored more than the Columbia. Once or twice he buried her bows in the sea, wetting her head sails. Ten minutes of this satisfied the patriots that the Shamrock was superior to the Shamrock in rough weather, and declared that it was illegal for this meeting to force the Council to vote away the people's money, etc.

Mr. Lawlor pointed out that it was only proposed to show the Town Council that they were in favor of a vote of money towards the fund that was being raised and that such action would be endorsed by the people.

Mr. F. E. Winslow made a similar explanation for Mr. Cunningham's enlightenment.

Mr. Cunningham was de further mystifying remarks which showed that he did not understand what was proposed.

The motion was carried by every vote in the room, save that of Mr. Cunningham, who said "yes" in a very pronounced tone.

Capt. Mackenzie was appointed treasurer of the fund, and the meeting adjourned.

Northumberland's Volunteers.

Messrs. Robert Ward, J. R. Munroe and Josiah Jackson of Chatham—73rd Battalion (infantry)—and Messrs. C. W. Anslow, W. Kitchin, B. Gifford, B. Harris and Matheson of the Newcastle Field Battery, have enlisted at St. John and are enrolled in the rank of the Canadian South African regiment. Lt. Col. Call presented each of the five Newcastle volunteers with a five dollar gold piece on their departure for St. John.

There appears to have been some misunderstanding in the matter of the medical examination of the volunteers. Those of the 73rd who took the medical examination were obliged to go to St. John at their own personal expense for the examination, while the medical officer in Newcastle examined the volunteers in that town. The Chatham, Black River and other men were not informed that there was a local medical examiner and a number who could not go to St. John for examination, but would have been glad to submit the bill be examined here, were not afforded the opportunity to do so.

Columbia Wins!

New York, Oct. 20.—Through rough seas and a breeze that approached the dignity of a gale, the sloop Columbia today vanquished the Shamrock by six minutes and eighteen seconds actual time, and six minutes and thirty-four seconds corrected time.

To-day's race was a fine test of the rough weather qualities of the two sloops. Both yachts sped across the starting line before a 25 knot breeze, wind and wing, with their spinners breaking out. The Shamrock was over a minute and one second before the defender. But this was not due to superior seamanship. Captain Bar held off for that length of time after the Shamrock crossed in order that he might get the position astern, where he could have an opportunity to blanket his rival.

The Columbia carried her spinners boom at an angle of almost forty-five degrees. This allowed the big sail to belly far out forward and draw like a locomotive. But in another dangerous, and twice an extra puff of wind carried the forward and up until it tumbled over the stay.

The Shamrock had so much mishap, as Hogarth carried his boom much lower. The Yankee trick, however, did its work, lifting the head of the Columbia out of the water, until she seemed to be skimming over the surface. The Yankee slowly but surely overhauled her rival. When the Columbia had crept up to within striking distance, the Shamrock crowded on a little more canvas, setting a baby jib-top-sail, and for ten minutes she seemed to hold the American even. As the yacht approached the outer mark it was again seen that the Columbia was again picking up on the Shamrock. The yacht swept around the mark, the Columbia's advantage, secondly, she was not so close than one chorus from the fleet answered for both. The Columbia had gained a minute and eighteen seconds on the fifteen mile run. As they leaned away the standard yard for the last home the Columbia was to windward and about a length ahead.

With their sheets trimmed flat, aft, they surged into the head seas, sending the brine spraying high as the spreaders. They continued until their sails were washed in the waves. The Shamrock labored more than the Columbia. Once or twice he buried her bows in the sea, wetting her head sails. Ten minutes of this satisfied the patriots that the Shamrock was superior to the Shamrock in rough weather, and declared that it was illegal for this meeting to force the Council to vote away the people's money, etc.
