JUDGE FORBES

In a letter from Vancouver describing the front rank men in the Presbyterian

General Assembly, the Halifax Chronicle says: "Judge Forbes, whose work in the Presbytery of St. John and the Maritime Synod is so prized, is one of the men who wakes the sleepy commissioners of the assembly when he mounts the platform stairs. The judge invariably begins his speech as he walks up the aisle so that when he faces the house he has his subject well in hand.

He evokes loud applause every time by his breezy utterances. Though he comes from St. John there is no fog in his ideas."

street, tomorrow night. A good time is promised to those who attend.

The trim little schooner Souvenir, owned by James Robichaud, of Metz-gan, N. S., made her first visit to this port this morning. The Souvenir is one of the trimmest looking vessels of her kind that ever came into this port.

The new shaft for the steamer Prince Rupert which was cast in Glasgow,

Scotland, was shipped on the 19th inst.

Upon arrival here the shaft which is made of the best pressed steel will be fitted and finished by Messrs. Fleming's men. The shaft weighs in the vicinity of fourteen tons.

Kemp's large well borer, with which foot deep was sunk recently at Green

Head for Messrs. Baker, is receiving some slight repairs at Stephenson's machine shop. When the repairs are completed the machine will be taken to Amherst where a well will be sunk for parties at that place.

JUNE WEDDINGS

Carmarthen street church was this morning the scene of a very pretty wedding when Miss Lottie Kain, second daughter of John Keen of 235 St. James street, was married to Andrew Martin.

The ceremony was performed at 7.15 o'clock by the Rev. C. W. Hamilton, in the presence of a large number of guests.

The bride looked charming in a blue cloth travelling suit trimmed with white silk, and a blue hat to match, and carried a bunch of white carnations. She was unaided except for little Miss Hazel Stewart, niece of the bride, who was maid of honor, wearing white muslin and carrying a basket of pink and white carnations.

Mr. and Mrs. Martin drove directly to the steamer Prince Rupert for a trip through Annapolis Valley. On their return they will live on Princess street.

FITZPATRICK-HARRINGTON.

A charming nuptial event took place at half-past seven o'clock this morning in Holy Trinity church when Rev.

Father Walsh united in marriage Miss Alice Maud Harrington, daughter of John Harrington, 15 Long Wharf, to Michael Fitzpatrick, engineer of the city stone crusher. The bride was gowned in a costume of old rose with white satin and lace trimmings and white picture hat, and carried a bou-quet of pink roses.

The bride was the recipient of many beautiful presents among which was a parlor lamp from the employes at the stone crusher.

Mr. and Mrs. Fitzpatrick will live on High street extension.

ROSS-McDUFFEE.

At St. Jude's church, West End, at 8.30 this morning, by Rev. G. F. Scott, Miss Ella M. McDuffee, daughter of John W. McDuffee, 191 City line, West End, was married to H. F. Ross, of Worcester, Mass. The bride, who was unaided, wore a travelling outfit of blue cloth with hat to match, and despite the early hour a goodly number of friends were present to witness the ceremony.

Mr. and Mrs. Ross will take a bridal trip to the old country, and on their return will reside in Worcester.

COOPER-PETERS.

Another pretty wedding was that of Miss M. Jennie U. Peters, youngest daughter of Albert Peters of 99 Queen street, to George T. Cooper, now of this city and formerly of Henley on the Thames. The ceremony was performed at the home of the bride, at a quarter of ten o'clock this forenoon.

Rev. G. O. Gates of Germain street

Baptist church performed the ceremony and there were present only the relatives and immediate friends of the parties.

Miss Peters wore a wedding dress of white voile over white silk and carried a bouquet of sweet peas. She was attended by Miss Alice M. Armstrong, whose costume was of fawn voile over blue with white chiffon and Persian trimmings. Miss Armstrong carried a bouquet of white carnations.

LeBaron Peters, cousin of the bride, assisted at the ceremony.

MARTIN-KAIN.

street, was married to Andrew Martin.

Mr. and Mrs. Martin drove directly

their return they will live on Princess

street.

LITTLEJOHN'S CHANCE.

The Manitoba Free Press has the following article published:

I, William Hannay, am fully prepared to meet any man in Canada, at 150 pounds, for the championship and $750 or $1,000 a side, under the Marquis of Queensbury rules, twenty-four foot ring, to box six weeks after signing articles; nobody barred. An answer through this paper will be promptly attended to. Business meant.

THAT FAKE RACE.

Hasen Campbell, backer of Eastman, the sprinter, called at the Star today to state that he positively protests against the delivery of the stakes for Monday night's race, which the Kelley party claim to have won. Daniel Connelly still holds the stakes. Mr. Campbell feels sore over the way in which the public were treated, being buncoed out of their money, $68.10. He made a proposition to Kelley's backers to throw the gates open and let the men run a 100 yard dash, and that the $6.10 be
