LOCAL NEWS.

TO ADVERTISEES.

Owing to the Star going to press early on Saturdays during the summer months, advertisers are asked to please send all changes to the office on Friday afternoon. The Star cannot guarantee to change advertisements received any later.

Alexander Diggs was arrested this morning on King Square for drunkenness.

Good heavy soft wood, $1.20. Broad Cove coal, $2.50 per load. Watter's, Walker's Wharf, Phone 612.

It is now almost a month since a case of infectious disease was reported to the Board of Health. Not for years has the city had such a long spell of immunity from disease.

On the 19th inst. the R. K. Y. C. fleet anchored in the Cambridge Narrows on the Washademoak. On the 20th (yesterday) the fleet sailed for Belleisle, where it will probably arrive today.

Murray street mission Sunday school held their annual picnic yesterday at South Bay, when upwards of three hundred members and friends spent a very enjoyable time.

Benbow B. Ferguson, Miss Ferguson and daughter were in the city yesterday. Mr. Ferguson, who is now a real estate agent in Chicago, formerly carried on a large business.

A large shipment of blue berries, going from Clarendon, N. B., to Boston, passed through the city today. These are about the first New Brunswick blue berries exported. They were of fine quality.

There is being circulated for signatures a petition asking that for the month of August the stores close at seven o'clock. The majority of the dealers appear favorable to the proposal.

A party consisting of G. Dinges, of Port Worth, Texas; Fred Smith, of Miss Clara Smith, of Lincoln, and Miss May B. Dinges, of Gagetown, are at the York Hotel today. Mr. Dinges was formerly a resident of Gagetown, but he has lived for some years past in Texas, where he has made considerable money—Fredericton.

The death occurred yesterday from consumption of Michael McGuigan at his father's residence, 138 Britannia street. Deceased, who was twenty-eight years old, was a member of the Longshoremen's Association. He was a brother of Allan McGuigan, of the Franklin base ball team. The funeral takes place tomorrow afternoon.

Two sub-committees met at City Hall yesterday afternoon. One considered the application of George McKean for the lease of the slip at the foot of King street, west, for the storage of scows. The other, with the reporter, considered the case of Robert Tennant, who claims compensation for injury received by a fall in the Sand Point wharf some months ago.

The annual picnic of the Waterloo Street Free Baptist church and Sunday school will be held on the beautiful grounds of Mrs. C. F. Hoban, at Westfield Beach on Wednesday, July 27th, leaving the station at 8.25 a. m. in the morning and 1.10 p. m. in the afternoon. This is a splendid holiday and who desire to spend it in the country.

The St. John firemen, with their apparatus, are to be photographed. All Bullock's photographs are taken at all the fire stations, and will at the same time be taken at the headquarters of the firemen, which will make a valuable collection.

IN THE MARKET. The market was fairly well supplied with country produce this morning. Blueberries, strawberries and raspberries are coming in quite plentifully. Strawberries are pretty near their end and are selling at twenty cents per bushel. Raspberries are selling at fifteen cents per bushel. Peas and beans are abundant. Lamb is retailing at twelve cents per pound, and is plentiful. New potatoes have dropped from $1.00 to 80c. and 90c. per bushel.

The best native cucumbers came in yesterday from Sunbury. Reports indicate that blueberries will be a light crop this year, but raspberries are abundant.

The market on Saturday is expected to be a particularly big one.

CHURCH DEDICATION.

It is expected that the dedication of the new Catholic Church at Cork, which takes place on Wednesday, July 27th, will be a big event for that settlement. His Lordship Bishop Casey will officiate and there will be a large number of visiting priests from different parishes. Ice cream and refreshments will be served on the grounds in the afternoon, and it is expected that there will be a big crowd present, as special rates have been arranged for with the C. P. R. from St. John, St. Stephen, Woodstock and this city. The Fredericton Brass Band has been engaged to furnish music for the occasion—Fredericton Gleason.

PICNICS TODAY.

A very large crowd left the Union Depot at 9.25 this morning on St. Mary's church picnic to Westfield. The band of the boys' brigade of the church accompanied them and while in the six cars to accommodate the first contingent. The regular suburban left ten minutes past one this afternoon with a considerable number on board. The excursionists will return this evening in the 7.40 train.

A large number left for the Ferns during the morning, where Father O'Donovan's church picnic is being held. For the convenience of those who prefer to go via Carleton, buses are leaving the west side ferry for the grounds.

CAMMICK WILL GET WELL.

Will Be Taken to Woodstock Hospital Tonight.

In Signed Statement He Has Confessed His Guilt and Exonerated His Son.

(Special to the Star.)

WOODSTOCK, N. B., July 21.—Deputy Sheriff Foster and constable Wolverson, who went to Cammick's home yesterday have not yet returned to Bath, and as there is no means of communication with Cammick's home, it is expected that he will bring Cammick with him. If he brings his prisoner here Cammick will be placed in the hospital.

The authorities are very anxious that Deputy Sheriff Foster be due to arrive here at six o'clock tonight and when he would be brought to Woodstock. Walter is perfectly satisfied that his father will recover.

(Special to the Star.)

BATH, N. B., July 21.—Cammick was brought to Bath this morning by Deputy Sheriff Foster and Constable Wolverson. He is conscious, talks well and will recover. He is lodged in Woodstock jail tonight.

Cammick made the following confession yesterday afternoon: "I intended to shoot her (his wife). Walter did not have anything to do with it. May God forgive me. I bought a revolver in Woodstock with the intention of shooting. I wanted to put her out of the road. I meant to shoot the man who was keeping company with Alice. No one came with me. I got into the house. When I lit a match Charlie Doty woke up. I fired at him. That woke up Billy and George. They grabbed me; I shot them. Then Alice got up and lit a lamp. Billie hit her and she knocked the lamp out of her hand and this set fire to Billie's clothes and then the house caught.

"Alice ran downstairs and I chased her outside and picked up a stick and beat her on the head with it. I fired a shot at Alice in the house but the revolver missed fire. I hit her five times with a stick. She never would have got out of doors if the revolver had not missed, as I intended to kill her.

"My head had left me. I was worrying a long time. I couldn't get a chance at her alone.

"I stole out of my house about ten o'clock at night when Walter and his wife were in bed. I had my shoes and my hands. I was afraid Walter would have watched me if he knew I was going. Mr. and Mrs. George Freeman were at my house about 9 o'clock. They saw Walter there then.

"I wish I was dead. I am tired of life. (Signed) "THOMAS CAMMICK, "DOUGLAS MARTIN, Witness."

TOURIST TRAVEL.

St. John Not Getting Its Share of Visitors. But Better Times Expected.

So far this season the number of tourists visiting St. John has not been up to that of previous years, though the tourist information bureau reports five times as many applications for literature and information. The great bulk of the traffic begins about the middle of July, and continues through August and September.

Observers of this annual stream report a great difference in the class of tourists now attracted to the province. It has been noted that the provincialists who are now settled in the states will choose June and the early part of July as the time for a visit to the old homestead during July and August the clerks and generally speaking the middle classes or working people predominate, while the richer people prefer the autumn months, especially September.

While the tourist travel is well scattered over the province, the St. John river excites the most admiration and are attracted here by the stories their friends tell of its beauty and grandeur. The tourist travel changes from season to season and it is the exception to see the same person come here for two or more successive years.

THE FISH MARKET.

With the exception of Salmon, the fish market tomorrow will have the regular supplies of fish. The salmon season is about closing and that fish is becoming scarce. The prices for tomorrow will be as follows: Flinnhaddock, 7 cents per pound. Cod and haddock, 5 cents per pound. Fresh shad, 15 and 25 cents each. Salmon, 14 to 20 cents per pound. Halibut, 19 to 25 cents per pound. Salt shad, 20 to 25 cents. Smelts, 8 cents per pound.

BEGGARS AND THE VAGRANTS.

St. John is at present infested with able-bodied vagrants, who stop pedestrians and ask for money. A gentleman tells of being stopped five times within the course of a week by men whose quest each time was the same—ten cents to relieve a pressing necessity. The gentleman says that he handed over the ten cents the first time, but that afterwards declined and once rebuffed the person who made the request, as he then began to see that a game was being worked upon citizens by a number of city tramps. Different people have been caught by these stalwart beggars.

CIVIC MEETINGS.

The board appointed to deal with the wharfage dispute between the city and C. P. R. will meet tomorrow afternoon at 2 o'clock.

The following will be the regular meetings next week: Board of Safety—Monday. Board of Works—Tuesday. Water and Sewerage Board—Wednesday.

PUNISHED FOR SWEARING.

Two profaners of the Lord's name were before the police court this morning. They were William McLaren and Charles Kelley, who were arrested yesterday, while intoxicated. McLaren forfeited a deposit of sixteen dollars and Kelley went to jail for ten days.

PERSONALS.

C. H. Lane of Moncton, has been elected principal of the normal school department of Rust University, Holly Springs, Mississippi. Mr. Lane graduated from Mount Allison University in 1903.

Conductor A. E. Brown was reported much better yesterday. Mr. Brown expects to resume his duties on the Intercolonial on Monday.

James F. Murphy, a St. John boy, row a prosperous dry goods merchant of Tacoma, Washington state, is paying his annual visit to his native city. He arrived from Boston on the Calvin Austin Tuesday morning.

The engagement is announced of Miss Hilda Burford, daughter of Joseph Burford, Customs Dept. of Halifax, to David S. Crawford, of New Brunswick, now employed as an engineer on Boston and Albany Railroad, with a view to the wedding taking place in the near future.

A. L. Slipp, the well known horseman, who went to Hampton, N. B., for his health, has had a stroke of paralysis. Little hope is entertained for his recovery.

Walton Small, formerly of this city, but now of Boston, is here on a visit. Small was the predecessor of F. Harrington as ticket agent at the railway station.

Dr. H. B. Hay, of Woodstock, was in the city last night on his way to St. Andrews, where his brother is ill. Dr. Hay had word last evening that his brother was somewhat improved.

Rev. Glendon Swinn, whose resignation as pastor of the Free Baptist church of Moncton will take effect October 1st, has decided to locate at Aroabiqui for six months or a year.

P. S. Archibald left Moncton on Monday from Winnipeg, where Mrs. Archibald has been staying for some time with her daughter.

Geo. G. Hallifax, N. S., left yesterday for Calgary, to be married to Miss Irene McQuinn, daughter of Jas. McQuinn, of the agricultural department, Halifax.

Miss Nellie Shaw, of St. John, is visiting in the city the guest of her brother, E. E. Shaw, Nepean street—Sydney Post.

Mr. and Mrs. William Young have gone to E. I. for a month's vacation. Thomas C. Haastings and family of North End, are in Hampstead to spend a few weeks, and also James Lawton and family of St. John.

Miss Grace Estey, of St. John, is the guest of her aunt, Mrs. Clarence Knapp, Seville.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Roberts left Tuesday for Grand Manan on a holiday trip.

Matthew Nelson arrived in the city today. D. W. McCormick returned to the city on the P. R. this morning.

The many friends of John H. Butt, of Butt & McCarthy, will regret to learn that he is quite seriously ill at his home.

Willard Kitchen of Charlottetown is in the city. Dr. Mullin, of Fredericton, arrived in the city this morning.

Mrs. Alex. Gibson, of Marysville, and Mrs. J. S. Colter, of Fredericton, are stopping at the Royal.

W. Knowles and family, of Boston, are stopping at the Victoria.

J. B. Pollock arrived today from Halifax and is at the Victoria.

F. B. Street, of Moncton, is in the city. Robert D. Campbell, of Toronto, is stopping at the Dufferin.

J. M. Anderson came in this morning from St. Martins and is at the Dufferin. J. Edwards, of Moncton, arrived in the city today.

ANOTHER G. P. GONE. Jerry Maher Declined Not to Stay for a Year.

Another G. P. has skipped. This time he is Jeremiah Maher, who was serving twelve months for assaulting Daniel O'Leary on Pond street last May.

Maher made his departure yesterday while the gang were working on the road running from the Westmorland Road to the One Mile House, Marsh Road. He went into the old powder house by permission and once out of sight was never seen again.

He is a young man and hails from P. E. Island.

Exciting Boat Race. At the Victoria street Baptist church Sunday school picnic which was held at Watters' Landing yesterday, quitted an exciting boat race was rowed between George Kierstead and George Hunter, forming one crew, and Harry Seely and Norris Vanwart forming the other. The race was two hundred yards and return and was won by the Kierstead-Hunter crew. Rev. Mr. Perry umpired.
