NOT UNDIGNIFIED TO BE TRADESMAN

German Nobleman Appeals to Fellow-Aristocrats.

Kaiser Personally Conducts Extensive Pottery Works on His Estate in East Prussia.

BERLIN, March 6.—A young German nobleman has issued an appeal to his fellow-aristocrats to emancipate themselves from the obsolete idea that it is beneath their dignity to embark in a commercial occupation. He points out that they have the example of the Kaiser and several other exclusive German aristocrats. The Emperor possesses extensive pottery works on his estate at Cadmen, in East Prussia, and conducts them himself with great commercial zeal. The exquisite productions of the Imperial factory are sold in Berlin by a branch of the business known as the Hohenzollern stores. The Emperor, moreover, frequently seizes suitable opportunities to canvass for orders. When he notices a likely purchaser at court or other festive gatherings he asks him if he cannot place an order on his staff, and does not conceal his pleasure at having done a stroke of business.

Prince Christian Hohenzollern conducts several businesses on his ancestral estate at Oehringen, Wurtemberg. One factory makes oatmeal, which is sold under the name of Hohenzollern oatmeal. Another makes Hohenzollern cakes, and a third makes Hohenzollern corsets, which are much sought after by South German ladies owing to the princely trade-mark.

Prince Egon Fuerstenberg owns large breweries, which supply many South German inns with excellent beer.

Prince Guido Donnersmarck, one of the wealthiest Silesian magnates, conducts a silk factory.

The young nobleman urges those of his caste to follow these excellent examples.

THE INTERNATIONAL TYPOGRAPHICAL UNION

Something of the History of the Oldest Trade Organization in the World.

The great strike in the book and job printing industry, in which the International Typographical Union of North America and the United Typothetis of America have been pitted against each other for eighteen months, has attracted considerable attention to trade union methods and the history of trade organizations. The International Typographical Union was formed in 1852, and has had a successful and progressive existence since that time. Previous to 1852 there were many local associations or unions of printers, and a convention of these local associations was held as early as 1834.

The International Typographical Union is recognized as a conservative organization, and this is borne out by the effort that was made by the officers of the union to peacefully adjust the eight-hour contention with the employers before the strike was entered into. This strike has been a marvel of financing. The International Typographical Union has a membership of about forty-seven thousand, and with the exception of about fifty thousand dollars, these forty-seven thousand members have raised by assessment more than $5,000,000 for the conduct of their strike for the eight-hour day. The assessment was at first 50 cents per week, then 10 per cent. of all wages earned. The 10 per cent. assessment was reduced to 7 per cent., later to 5 per cent., and is now 3 per cent. The method of levying the assessment is also worthy of explanation. It was not placed by a convention, nor by the officers of the organization. The proposition was submitted to a referendum vote. The proposal to levy 50 cents per week received a majority of nearly twenty thousand votes, and the proposal to levy 10 per cent. assessment received a majority of more than eighteen thousand votes.

The International Typographical Union also conducts a Home at Colorado Springs, known as the Union Printers' Home. This institution was erected and is maintained by the International Typographical Union for its aged and distressed members. Thus far the union, in erecting and carrying on this part of its philanthropic work, has expended more than five hundred thousand dollars in about twelve years' time. There are at the present time at the Union Printers' Home about one hundred and fifty inmates.

Local typographical unions also have their benefit features, such as caring for sick members, assisting those who may be temporarily out of work, and burial funds which are contributed to by all members. Along these lines thousands of dollars are expended every year.

The headquarters of the International Typographical Union are located in Indianapolis, Indiana, and the officers of the organization are continually sending out pamphlets descriptive of the Union Printers' Home and explaining the methods of the union. James M. Lynch is the present president and J. W. Brammough secretary.

GAME OF POOL DECIDES WHO WILL MARRY GIRL

Trenton Men With Sweetheart Consent to Gamble for Her Affections

TRENTON, March 6.—William Britton and Edward Hill, of the city, two electrical workers, last night finished a pool contest for the love of their mutual sweetheart, and Britton won the girl. The sweetheart is a party to the arrangement, both men say, and she will marry Britton as soon as the wedding arrangements are completed. Both men came into a local poolroom last evening with J. Howard Johnson, who was the referee, and on whose decision the girl rested her future choice.

Britton won the first game by the score of 25 to 23. Hill won the second game, 29 to 19, but Britton duplicated his victory in the third game and won the girl.

Neither man would disclose the identity of the woman who consented to so strange a wager. Both men declared that the contest was for the young woman's hand in marriage.

Hill said he would be the best man for Hill at the wedding. The girl was not a spectator of the tournament.

BRITISH STEAMER ASHORE

HONOLULU, March 6.—The British steamer Lochdarv is ashore at Kamalo on Honolulu Island. Steamers have been sent to her assistance.

The Lochdarv mistook the channel. She went ashore last Monday and will probably be a total loss.

The Lochdarv was bound from Antofagasta, Chile, to Honolulu, with a cargo of nitrate.

BOMB THROWN AT CARRIAGE; A GENERAL INJURED.

SEBASTOPOLE, March 6.—As General Neuphew, commandant of the fortress here, who has just been transferred for duty at a less hazardous post, was driving through the city this evening to attend a farewell banquet at the palace given in his honor by Admiral Skrydloff, a bomb was thrown under his carriage, where it exploded. The general sustained injuries about the feet. His coachman was wounded, a woman who happened to be passing at the time sustained serious injuries and the horses that were drawing the vehicle were crippled. The man who threw the bomb escaped. This is the second serious attempt made upon the life of General Neuphew within a year.

OFF VIRGINIA CAPES BATTLING WITH WINDS.

NORFOLK, Va., March 6.—The U. S. monitor Florida, according to reports from the office of the commandant of the Norfolk navy yard, was today off the Virginia Capes battling with the fierce winds which reached a velocity of fifty miles an hour this morning. At 2 o'clock the wind had decreased in velocity to some extent and was blowing at the rate of forty miles an hour. The Florida sailed from the navy yard last evening for the purpose of tests at sea to demonstrate the effect of the blast of a large calibre gun fired over a turret and particularly to demonstrate whether such a blast would be dangerous to the lives of men in a turret.

ILL-ADVISED.
"That speech was ill-adviced," said Senator Cullom, referring to a colleague's too outspoken address. "It reminds me of a speech that a widow made to her new husband on the honeymoon."
"Oh," she sighed, throwing herself in the man's arms, "how happy poor dear James would be if he could only know by what an agreeable gentleman he has been replaced!"

MAYOR SCHMITZ WILL RUN AGAIN.

SAN FRANCISCO, March 6.—Mayor Eugene Schmitz arrived this evening from Washington, where he had been to see President Roosevelt in regard to the admission of Japanese to the public schools of San Francisco. In response to a question as to whether he would be a candidate for re-election as mayor, he declared that he would stand by "his guns" and that he would not be driven out by the newspapers.

Mayor Schmitz, in an interview at Los Angeles, is quoted as saying: "Although I went to Washington to confer with the president about admitting the Japanese into the public schools, I found my views were not altogether right and when the matter was presented to me in a light that I had not considered, I could see that there was some reason for the attitude of the head of the nation took."

"I found that President Roosevelt was strongly in favor of admitting them, and of course he is in a position to know what is really best."

"I feel that the wholesale immigration of Orientals would be detrimental to the work of the people, and I am not in favor of letting down the immigration bars. But so far as letting them go to school, I have come to the decision that the Japanese have some right to get an education."

HUMOR IN THE FAIR EAST.

Abdur Rahman, the late ameer of Afghanistan, had a grim sense of humor which was sometimes exercised without scruple. On one occasion a durbar he was holding was interrupted by a man who, in a state of the greatest excitement, rushed in declaring that the Russians were advancing for a moment the man to the summit to conduct the man to the summit. The ameer in the most unceremonious tones ordered his sharps to conduct the man to the summit. "Look out well for the Russians," commanded Abdur Rahman, "for you will not get out until you see them arrive."
