NEW YORK, Oct. 15.—The entire ime at today's hearing of the U. S. Shipbuilding Company investigation before Referee Oliphant was given up to the taking of testimony covering the incorporation and organization of the company in New Jersey. Frederick Seward, Horace Gould and Kenneth McLaren, young men connected with the Corporation Trust Company of New Jersey, who acted either as in-corporators or directors of the shipbuilding combination, were called to the stand and examined at length as to the circumstances under which they served the promoters of the enterprise. Frederick Seward, who had served as a director, was questioned for three hours, the inquiry covering his con-nection with the company from the time Alexander and Green asked him

Most of the men from London had spent the early hours of the day in preparations for departure, at the historic Fanueil Hall, the Boston Ancients' headquarters, there had been and on the march to the dock through Boston's streets thousands of spectators had joined in final salutations. On the wharf were the members of the Boston Company and on the deck of the Columbus those of the London or ganization, and as the two bands which had played in the marching column struck up the familiar tune, the strain was caught both by those who had played the host and those who had been the guests, and was sustained until the vessel was well out towards the channel. Then the music Wallace. gave place to cheering and waving of handkerchiefs until the steamer was hidden from view by the islands in the harbor. As she disappeared the Boston Ancients marched back to their armory, where they disbanded, and the details of a visit, plans for which many months, were closed.

The visitors left under the command of Major Budworth, adjutant of the organization, as Lord Denbigh, with Lady Denbigh, is to make an extended tour of the country. About thirty others of the company also remained behind to make tours in various directions. Lord Denbigh, it is understood will include Mexico in his itinerary.

FR. MICHAUD DEAD.

A Well Known and Zealous Priest.

Thursday morning his Lordship Bishop Casey received a telegram from Buctouche, Kent county, announcing the sad news of the death, after a lengthy threes of Pers. lengthy illness, of Rev. F. X. Joseph Michaud, parish priest at that place. Father Michaud labored for several years in this city, where he met with abundant success, and although it has been nearly twenty-seven years since he left St. John, he still had many friends here, who heard with sincere regret the news of his death. He was an ardent advocate of total abstinence, and aided in organizing many ocieties in town and country for boys and men.

Father Michaud was born in the county of Madawaska on the 14th of February, 1841, received his early education in the common schools of that county, and afterwards attended St Ann's College, Quebec. He was ordained priest in the Cathedral here on June 10th, 1867, by the late Bishop Sweeny. For some time he was on the Cathedral staff and attended some nissions outside the city. After a time he was appointed pastor of St. Peter's church, and held that position for four years, after which he was senior priest at the Cathedral, where he was inde-touche parish, where he labored until his death. Father Michaud worked not turned in their favor, and they are only in the spiritual but also in the material field, and he did much to protwo churches, cheese and butter factories, and encouraged wheat raising Bishop Sweeny on one of his trips to and in conjunction with Mr. Foster to a great extent. Arnold-Forster secretary to the admiralty in the Brit-ish cabinet. The name of this lady figures conspicuously in a suit brought by Captain Horsfall, R. N. R., against a Sydney paper for libel. Captain Horsfall is alleged to have advertised in the English papers a school for the education of English gentlewomen, in literature, ancient and modern languages, as well as agricultural and horticultural subjects. Mrs. Arnold-Forster was named as a reference, and in response to this advertisement a number of refined young English ladies came out to Sydney to enter this school. Mrs. Arnold-Forster also came, as well have sent the accused a copy but remained only for a short time, of the criminal code and marked the when she returned home to England. The girls soon after found that absolutely no preparations were made to give any sort of an education; in fact, that the school as advertised was a farce, and that they had been humbugged. They left their domicile at Captain Horsfall's, and a complete exposure soon followed, out of which grew the present suit. Exactly what relation, if any, existed between Mrs. Horsfall and Mrs. Arnold-Forster in in accordance with the provisions of connection with the school has not yet the code, and were therefore null and been determined. The exposure of the so-called school created a decided sence called and on motion of their counsel. sation at the time
