

The Temple.

These walls the Lord, the heaven is my throne...

Let us pause awhile upon God's choice of spiritual temples...

God will look to the poor, that is, those who are destitute of all merit...

The Ministry. It is estimated that there are about one hundred thousand Protestant ministers in the United States...

The next word is "contrite spirit," that is, the man that feels his sin and hates it...

The third word describes the temple more graphically: "I will dwell with those that tremble at His word..."

Sympathy with the People. It does not begin to be so important to the minister to know the contents of Darwin's Life of Robert Emerson...

These that are close, lastly, with this: "Great blessing. God says He will look to those that tremble at His word..."

Be they who they may that do not receive God's help, contrite spirits shall have it. And it means benediction...

Now, many will go away and laugh, and say, "Well, I understand nothing about that..."

But, and if I speak to the poorest of the poor, who came in hither though they thought their clothes were not fit for decent company...

Unreasonable Demands.

Under the head of "Unreasonable and Unwise Clamor," Rev. Joseph Ricker, D.D., writes in Zion's Advocate...

Great sermons are the cry of the age, a cry that excites and lacerates...

Dr. Lucilla, a smaller factor, or the water will run all over your little chin...

And then I says to Arvilly, with a sort of a deep look into her, "You'll have to take the coat off and let me see your back..."
