[Paconness is for sale in St. Stephen at the boox-stores of C, H. Smith & Co. and G. S. Wall.] SET. 25.—A very pleasant wedding party gath-ered, this morning, at the residence of Mrs. Mary Watgon, to witness the marriage of her eldest daughter, Miss Julia Watson, to Mr. Charles Grant, one of St. Stephen's most popular young merchants. The czeremony was performed at 8.20 a. m., the Rev. R. Cross, of Milltown, officiating. The bride was handsomely attired in a costume of dark blue satin, with triamnings of creans, colored surah. After breakfast had been partaken of, Mr. and Mrs. Grant were driven to the depot, and took the "Flying Yankee" for a trip to Boston, followed by heartiest good wishes and well-aimed showers of rice. The presents were numerous and costly, among them a handsome gold watch, the gift of the groom. A matrimonial ware seems to foat over St. Stephen, for at 7 o'clock this morning, at her father's residence, Miss Clara Tikill was married to Mr. Arthur Moran, of St. George. The bride was pretti-ly dressed in a handsome travelling suit, with hat to match. The presents were useful and handsome, The happy couple left on the Shore line railway for their future home in St. George. Mr. and Mrs. H. Q. The garden party and parlor concert which took place on Thursday at the residence of Mr. S. Hay-ward, nowlinkstanding the wet day, were very suc-cessful. The evening was fine and the spacious par-lors and hall were completely filled with a gay throng. I shall not attempt to particularize upon the evening's entertainment, but all present seemed to be highly delighted with the programme. The proceeds amounted to $136. A large number of those who attended, as well as many who were pre-vented by the storm from being present, have signi-fied a desire for a repetition of the concert at all events.
