

ROAD GAME ON SATURDAY

was a large attendance at the of the St. John Athletic Club evening in the rooms of the Bowling Academy on Charle... and a number of new... were enrolled.

ARDON AND RAY DEFEATED

to, Sept. 29.—George Cumming... of the Toronto Golf Club... defeated... and Edward Ray, the... by three... holes.

DODD'S KIDNEY PILLS
FOR 23 THE PROTECTIVE...
KIDNEY DISORDER...
DIABETES...
URIC ACID...

SHAD
Bbls. No. 1 Shad
JAMES PATTERSON,
20 South Market Wharf,
St. John, N. B.

MASTERS
MASON
CUT PLUG
TOBACCO

FILLED WITH NEWCASTLE

John Blaine, of Chatham, Dead as Result of Accidental Shooting—Revolver Discharged.

Chatham, N. B., Sept. 29.—A fatal hunting accident occurred late last night near the Grant Downs, when John Blaine, aged twenty-one years, the only son of his widowed mother, Mrs. Annie Blaine, of Ferryville, lost his life. He was with William Currie, in a team, and while passing a revolver to his companion it was discharged. He died before his companion could bring him home. The deceased, who was a most estimable young man, is survived by his mother and two sisters, Miss Jean Blaine, of Merseman's studio, and Miss Mildred Blaine, of the Newcastle exchange.

BANNER SHOW MARKS IMPERIAL THEATRE

New House was Crowded at every Performance Yesterday—Singing Proved the Big Attraction.

Eleanor Rae Ball, the delightful violinist at the Imperial, played her way further into the hearts of the music-loving public yesterday when she commenced her final week in this city with a programme that fairly scintillated with exquisite melody and technique. The big new stage was fully set in its brilliant new dress of fact—a symphony in rose, French grey and white, touched with gold—over the floor covering being in corresponding colors. With such surroundings Miss Ball's music seemed doubly enjoyable. She was encored time and again and responded gracefully each time.

Signor Manetta too was well received. He sang "Ma Appari" ("Ah So Fair") from Puccini's opera "Tosca" and his rich round tenor voice did handsome justice to the showy number. He too used the drawing room scene, giving his number proper set-off. In fact large crowds were pleased with the whole musical bill, it being far and away from the common-place numbers of most programmes—a charming little musical in itself.

For those who like contemporary stories, stories of the dog's life, people in high places in this present day of ours, "The Burning Rival" in two Lubin reels must have been a most enjoyable film fiction. It is a sensational newspaper and political rivalry, a doughy mayor and an unscrupulous boss politician. There is love, intrigue, big construction work, struggles and racing in the story, a mixture that succeeds one after the other in such rapid order that the watcher is spellbound. It all turns out finely for the lovers of course. The Vitaphone Co. with Leo Delaney and Norma Tallage in the leads, put on a good costumed drama, "Arriet's Baby," touching tale and well enacted. Then there are Egyptian pyramids, the sphinx and some charming eastern pastorals, winding up the whole show with a comedy by Edison, "A Dose of His Own Medicine."

Health and Beauty Hints

Laura: You say you are under 45 and have wrinkles in spite of all your care. There is nothing wrong with the face cream you use, have found that to remove wrinkles and restore firm outlines and softness there is nothing better than Pinksam's skin cream which you can easily make yourself and which shows results right away. It does not induce hair growth. Stir 2 teaspoonfuls glycerine and one ounce alcohol in 1-2 pint cold water. Use it as you would any cold cream. This cleanses and tones the skin—fills out wrinkles and hollows and reduces the pores.

Mrs. A. B.: Rub a little pyroxin on eyebrows and they will come in thick and have a beautiful gloss. Your short eyelashes will grow long and delightfully curly merely by applying pyroxin to lash-roots with thumb and forefinger. Be very careful not to get pyroxin where no hair is wanted.

Betty: That dry, unhealthy state of your hair is probably due to improper washing. Maybe you use soap? Avoid it and try only this simple, safe shampoo. Get some castor oil from your druggist and stir one teaspoonful in hot water. Wash your hair with this washing. It leaves the hair as soft as silk and extremely fluffy. It dries quickly and removes the dandruff, but greasiness. Perhaps you need a little tonic to brace the whole system. For this see answer to Theo.

Theo: Indeed, you must not neglect that tired, depressed feeling, which is accompanied with a pimply condition of the face. They are caused by sluggish blood which is not properly eliminating the poisons from the system. Try this blood purifier and tonic: Into 1-2 pint alcohol (whisky must not be used), pour 1 ounce barbed, then add 1-2 cupful sugar and hot water to make a full quart. Take 2 teaspoonful of this old-fashioned blood cleanser and tonic before each meal. This is splendid for that weak, worn-out feeling and restores the kidneys to normal action and the blood to a healthy condition. Its timely use will save much serious sickness.

Cornelia: You are having your troubles, certainly, if you are "very busy," and yet want to wear the latest styles. Have you ever heard of this sure and simple means of reduction? Dissolve 4 ounces of paronita in 1-2 pints warm water and take a teaspoonful a few minutes before meals. It is harmless and yet very effective and does the work so naturally as to leave no sagging or wrinkled tissues. It has the added advantage of requiring no strictness in diet or exercise.

Lulu: You can easily stop that dandruff and your hair from falling out if you will use a good tonic twice a week. Here is a splendid old remedy which costs little and which you can prepare at home. Mix together one ounce quinine, 1-2 pint alcohol and 1-2 pint water. Rub it well into the scalp two or three times a week. It is invigorating to the hair roots, encourages luxuriant, soft growth and affords immediate relief from the itching scalp. Be sure to rub it into the roots.

Lacy: Instead of clogging up the pores of my skin with face powder, I use this recipe in which I find a very dependable lotion, protecting, softening and beautifying the skin. Get 4 ounces apricot kernel oil, 2 ounces and dissolve in 1-2 pint hot water. Add 2 teaspoonfuls glycerine. Apply freely to your face, neck and arms. It will not rub off, and gives an attractive, velvety fairness without that "made-up" look. This is inexpensive, too.

Gertrude: You will find it a simple matter to clear the eyes of redness and restore the youthful sparkle and color if you will use this eye-tonic. Get 4 ounces apricot kernel oil, 2 ounces and dissolve in 1-2 pint hot water. Put 2 drops in each eye daily. It acts like magic to give back the beauty and it feels mighty good, too. If this does not give relief see an oculist.

SEPTEMBER WEDDINGS

Tempkins-DeForest.
A wedding of much interest to their many friends was solemnized at six o'clock yesterday morning in the parish church, when the Rev. R. A. Armstrong, united in marriage Charles Stanley Tempkins, son of Colonel J. R. Tempkins, of Woodstock, N. B., and at present member of the staff of the Bank of Vancouver, in Vancouver, and Miss Hazel Marie, daughter of Mrs. DeForest and the late Arthur F. DeForest.

The bride, who was unattended, wore a dark blue tailored suit, an Alice blue velvet hat and lace tulle, and carried a white prayer book. The ceremony was a quiet one, but in addition to the relatives of the bride and bridegroom, a large number of their friends also were present.

After the ceremony Mr. and Mrs. Tempkins left on the morning train for Woodstock and the bride proceeded this evening direct to Vancouver.

TORTURED WITH TERRIBLE ECZEMA

Had to Wear Rubber Gloves Until "Fruit-a-tives" Cured Her.

Grande Ligne, Que., Jan. 2nd, 1910. "My wife was troubled for three years with eczema on the hands, which made her hands almost useless. The doctor gave her several ointments to use, none of which had any effect. He also advised her to wear rubber gloves (she wore out three pairs.) I persuaded her, as a last resort, to try "Fruit-a-tives." The effect was marvellous. Her hands are now cured. We both attribute our present good health to "Fruit-a-tives."

N. JOUBERT.

"Fruit-a-tives" positively cures all skin troubles because it is the greatest blood purifying medicine in the world. A box, 6 for $2.50—fruit size, 25c. At dealers or from Trial-size Limited, Ottawa.

HOPEWELL HILL NEWS

Hopewell Hill, Sept. 29.—Rev. Stanley Young, of Springfield, King's Co., accompanied by his wife and family, are spending a week with Mr. and Mrs. Temple Wright, of Hopewell Hill.

Mrs. J. L. Allingham, of Gagetown, is visiting relatives in the county. The death occurred on Saturday at Riverport of Mrs. Jennie M. Dixon. She is survived by a husband and three sons. Interment will take place in the Hopewell cemetery this afternoon.

H. B. Peck, of St. John, spent Sunday at Hopewell Hill, the guest of his mother, Mrs. C. A. Peck.

A successful Rally Day service was held last evening by the members of the Methodist Sunday school at Hopewell Hill. The programme consisted of an exercise by the school, special music by the choir and address by the pastor, Rev. Thomas Stebbings.

The marriage of Miss Lavinia Adora Lewis, of Hillsborough, to Rupert Barker, of Centerville, N. B., will take place on Tuesday evening at 6 o'clock in the First Hillsborough Baptist church.

SURPRISE SOAP.

A PURE HARD SOAP.

Classified Advertising

One cent per word each insertion. Discount of 33 1/3 per cent on advertisements running one week or longer if paid in advance. Minimum charge 25 cents.

WANTED

At Once

Half a dozen girls for a few days in the Standard office. Apply this afternoon from 3 p. m. to 5 p. m.

WANTED

Bright boys, 14 to 16 years, to learn dry goods business. Good chance for advancement. Apply immediately. Manchester Robertson Allison, Limited.

WANTED

Male stenographer. Apply Box "X," care of Standard.

WANTED

Male stenographer. Apply Box "X," care of Standard.

WANTED

Male stenographer. Apply Box "X," care of Standard.

WANTED

Male stenographer. Apply Box "X," care of Standard.

WANTED

Male stenographer. Apply Box "X," care of Standard.

WANTED

Male stenographer. Apply Box "X," care of Standard.

WANTED

Male stenographer. Apply Box "X," care of Standard.

WANTED

Male stenographer. Apply Box "X," care of Standard.

White-Water.

St. Andrew's Presbyterian church was the scene of an interesting event at 10.30 o'clock yesterday morning, when the pastor, Rev. Dr. J. E. McVicar, united in marriage Thomas H. White and Miss Gladys Mary Watson. The bridegroom is a son of Thomas White, formerly proprietor of the White Candy Company in this city, and is now associated with his father in the same business in Charlotte, N. B. The bride is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Andrew J. Watson of this city.

The ceremony took place in the presence of a large number of friends and relatives. The bride, who was given away by her father, wore a traveling suit of navy blue with black hat trimmed with white plumes and carried a bouquet of roses. She was attended by Miss Gladys Kirkpatrick, and Harry White, brother of the bridegroom, was the groomsmen, Albert and Roy Watson acted as ushers.

After the ceremony Mr. and Mrs. White left for Charlottetown, where they will reside.

White-Water.

St. Andrew's Presbyterian church was the scene of an interesting event at 10.30 o'clock yesterday morning, when the pastor, Rev. Dr. J. E. McVicar, united in marriage Thomas H. White and Miss Gladys Mary Watson. The bridegroom is a son of Thomas White, formerly proprietor of the White Candy Company in this city, and is now associated with his father in the same business in Charlotte, N. B. The bride is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Andrew J. Watson of this city.

The ceremony took place in the presence of a large number of friends and relatives. The bride, who was given away by her father, wore a traveling suit of navy blue with black hat trimmed with white plumes and carried a bouquet of roses. She was attended by Miss Gladys Kirkpatrick, and Harry White, brother of the bridegroom, was the groomsmen, Albert and Roy Watson acted as ushers.

After the ceremony Mr. and Mrs. White left for Charlottetown, where they will reside.

White-Water.

St. Andrew's Presbyterian church was the scene of an interesting event at 10.30 o'clock yesterday morning, when the pastor, Rev. Dr. J. E. McVicar, united in marriage Thomas H. White and Miss Gladys Mary Watson. The bridegroom is a son of Thomas White, formerly proprietor of the White Candy Company in this city, and is now associated with his father in the same business in Charlotte, N. B. The bride is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Andrew J. Watson of this city.

The ceremony took place in the presence of a large number of friends and relatives. The bride, who was given away by her father, wore a traveling suit of navy blue with black hat trimmed with white plumes and carried a bouquet of roses. She was attended by Miss Gladys Kirkpatrick, and Harry White, brother of the bridegroom, was the groomsmen, Albert and Roy Watson acted as ushers.

After the ceremony Mr. and Mrs. White left for Charlottetown, where they will reside.

White-Water.

St. Andrew's Presbyterian church was the scene of an interesting event at 10.30 o'clock yesterday morning, when the pastor, Rev. Dr. J. E. McVicar, united in marriage Thomas H. White and Miss Gladys Mary Watson. The bridegroom is a son of Thomas White, formerly proprietor of the White Candy Company in this city, and is now associated with his father in the same business in Charlotte, N. B. The bride is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Andrew J. Watson of this city.

The ceremony took place in the presence of a large number of friends and relatives. The bride, who was given away by her father, wore a traveling suit of navy blue with black hat trimmed with white plumes and carried a bouquet of roses. She was attended by Miss Gladys Kirkpatrick, and Harry White, brother of the bridegroom, was the groomsmen, Albert and Roy Watson acted as ushers.

After the ceremony Mr. and Mrs. White left for Charlottetown, where they will reside.

White-Water.

St. Andrew's Presbyterian church was the scene of an interesting event at 10.30 o'clock yesterday morning, when the pastor, Rev. Dr. J. E. McVicar, united in marriage Thomas H. White and Miss Gladys Mary Watson. The bridegroom is a son of Thomas White, formerly proprietor of the White Candy Company in this city, and is now associated with his father in the same business in Charlotte, N. B. The bride is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Andrew J. Watson of this city.

The ceremony took place in the presence of a large number of friends and relatives. The bride, who was given away by her father, wore a traveling suit of navy blue with black hat trimmed with white plumes and carried a bouquet of roses. She was attended by Miss Gladys Kirkpatrick, and Harry White, brother of the bridegroom, was the groomsmen, Albert and Roy Watson acted as ushers.

After the ceremony Mr. and Mrs. White left for Charlottetown, where they will reside.

White-Water.

St. Andrew's Presbyterian church was the scene of an interesting event at 10.30 o'clock yesterday morning, when the pastor, Rev. Dr. J. E. McVicar, united in marriage Thomas H. White and Miss Gladys Mary Watson. The bridegroom is a son of Thomas White, formerly proprietor of the White Candy Company in this city, and is now associated with his father in the same business in Charlotte, N. B. The bride is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Andrew J. Watson of this city.

The ceremony took place in the presence of a large number of friends and relatives. The bride, who was given away by her father, wore a traveling suit of navy blue with black hat trimmed with white plumes and carried a bouquet of roses. She was attended by Miss Gladys Kirkpatrick, and Harry White, brother of the bridegroom, was the groomsmen, Albert and Roy Watson acted as ushers.

After the ceremony Mr. and Mrs. White left for Charlottetown, where they will reside.

White-Water.

St. Andrew's Presbyterian church was the scene of an interesting event at 10.30 o'clock yesterday morning, when the pastor, Rev. Dr. J. E. McVicar, united in marriage Thomas H. White and Miss Gladys Mary Watson. The bridegroom is a son of Thomas White, formerly proprietor of the White Candy Company in this city, and is now associated with his father in the same business in Charlotte, N. B. The bride is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Andrew J. Watson of this city.

The ceremony took place in the presence of a large number of friends and relatives. The bride, who was given away by her father, wore a traveling suit of navy blue with black hat trimmed with white plumes and carried a bouquet of roses. She was attended by Miss Gladys Kirkpatrick, and Harry White, brother of the bridegroom, was the groomsmen, Albert and Roy Watson acted as ushers.

After the ceremony Mr. and Mrs. White left for Charlottetown, where they will reside.

White-Water.

St. Andrew's Presbyterian church was the scene of an interesting event at 10.30 o'clock yesterday morning, when the pastor, Rev. Dr. J. E. McVicar, united in marriage Thomas H. White and Miss Gladys Mary Watson. The bridegroom is a son of Thomas White, formerly proprietor of the White Candy Company in this city, and is now associated with his father in the same business in Charlotte, N. B. The bride is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Andrew J. Watson of this city.

The ceremony took place in the presence of a large number of friends and relatives. The bride, who was given away by her father, wore a traveling suit of navy blue with black hat trimmed with white plumes and carried a bouquet of roses. She was attended by Miss Gladys Kirkpatrick, and Harry White, brother of the bridegroom, was the groomsmen, Albert and Roy Watson acted as ushers.

After the ceremony Mr. and Mrs. White left for Charlottetown, where they will reside.

White-Water.

St. Andrew's Presbyterian church was the scene of an interesting event at 10.30 o'clock yesterday morning, when the pastor, Rev. Dr. J. E. McVicar, united in marriage Thomas H. White and Miss Gladys Mary Watson. The bridegroom is a son of Thomas White, formerly proprietor of the White Candy Company in this city, and is now associated with his father in the same business in Charlotte, N. B. The bride is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Andrew J. Watson of this city.

The ceremony took place in the presence of a large number of friends and relatives. The bride, who was given away by her father, wore a traveling suit of navy blue with black hat trimmed with white plumes and carried a bouquet of roses. She was attended by Miss Gladys Kirkpatrick, and Harry White, brother of the bridegroom, was the groomsmen, Albert and Roy Watson acted as ushers.

After the ceremony Mr. and Mrs. White left for Charlottetown, where they will reside.

White-Water.

St. Andrew's Presbyterian church was the scene of an interesting event at 10.30 o'clock yesterday morning, when the pastor, Rev. Dr. J. E. McVicar, united in marriage Thomas H. White and Miss Gladys Mary Watson. The bridegroom is a son of Thomas White, formerly proprietor of the White Candy Company in this city, and is now associated with his father in the same business in Charlotte, N. B. The bride is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Andrew J. Watson of this city.

The ceremony took place in the presence of a large number of friends and relatives. The bride, who was given away by her father, wore a traveling suit of navy blue with black hat trimmed with white plumes and carried a bouquet of roses. She was attended by Miss Gladys Kirkpatrick, and Harry White, brother of the bridegroom, was the groomsmen, Albert and Roy Watson acted as ushers.

After the ceremony Mr. and Mrs. White left for Charlottetown, where they will reside.

White-Water.

St. Andrew's Presbyterian church was the scene of an interesting event at 10.30 o'clock yesterday morning, when the pastor, Rev. Dr. J. E. McVicar, united in marriage Thomas H. White and Miss Gladys Mary Watson. The bridegroom is a son of Thomas White, formerly proprietor of the White Candy Company in this city, and is now associated with his father in the same business in Charlotte, N. B. The bride is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Andrew J. Watson of this city.

The ceremony took place in the presence of a large number of friends and relatives. The bride, who was given away by her father, wore a traveling suit of navy blue with black hat trimmed with white plumes and carried a bouquet of roses. She was attended by Miss Gladys Kirkpatrick, and Harry White, brother of the bridegroom, was the groomsmen, Albert and Roy Watson acted as ushers.

After the ceremony Mr. and Mrs. White left for Charlottetown, where they will reside.

White-Water.

St. Andrew's Presbyterian church was the scene of an interesting event at 10.30 o'clock yesterday morning, when the pastor, Rev. Dr. J. E. McVicar, united in marriage Thomas H. White and Miss Gladys Mary Watson. The bridegroom is a son of Thomas White, formerly proprietor of the White Candy Company in this city, and is now associated with his father in the same business in Charlotte, N. B. The bride is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Andrew J. Watson of this city.

The ceremony took place in the presence of a large number of friends and relatives. The bride, who was given away by her father, wore a traveling suit of navy blue with black hat trimmed with white plumes and carried a bouquet of roses. She was attended by Miss Gladys Kirkpatrick, and Harry White, brother of the bridegroom, was the groomsmen, Albert and Roy Watson acted as ushers.

After the ceremony Mr. and Mrs. White left for Charlottetown, where they will reside.

White-Water.

St. Andrew's Presbyterian church was the scene of an interesting event at 10.30 o'clock yesterday morning, when the pastor, Rev. Dr. J. E. McVicar, united in marriage Thomas H. White and Miss Gladys Mary Watson. The bridegroom is a son of Thomas White, formerly proprietor of the White Candy Company in this city, and is now associated with his father in the same business in Charlotte, N. B. The bride is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Andrew J. Watson of this city.

The ceremony took place in the presence of a large number of friends and relatives. The bride, who was given away by her father, wore a traveling suit of navy blue with black hat trimmed with white plumes and carried a bouquet of roses. She was attended by Miss Gladys Kirkpatrick, and Harry White, brother of the bridegroom, was the groomsmen, Albert and Roy Watson acted as ushers.

After the ceremony Mr. and Mrs. White left for Charlottetown, where they will reside.

White-Water.

St. Andrew's Presbyterian church was the scene of an interesting event at 10.30 o'clock yesterday morning, when the pastor, Rev. Dr. J. E. McVicar, united in marriage Thomas H. White and Miss Gladys Mary Watson. The bridegroom is a son of Thomas White, formerly proprietor of the White Candy Company in this city, and is now associated with his father in the same business in Charlotte, N. B. The bride is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Andrew J. Watson of this city.

The ceremony took place in the presence of a large number of friends and relatives. The bride, who was given away by her father, wore a traveling suit of navy blue with black hat trimmed with white plumes and carried a bouquet of roses. She was attended by Miss Gladys Kirkpatrick, and Harry White, brother of the bridegroom, was the groomsmen, Albert and Roy Watson acted as ushers.

After the ceremony Mr. and Mrs. White left for Charlottetown, where they will reside.

White-Water.

St. Andrew's Presbyterian church was the scene of an interesting event at 10.30 o'clock yesterday morning, when the pastor, Rev. Dr. J. E. McVicar, united in marriage Thomas H. White and Miss Gladys Mary Watson. The bridegroom is a son of Thomas White, formerly proprietor of the White Candy Company in this city, and is now associated with his father in the same business in Charlotte, N. B. The bride is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Andrew J. Watson of this city.

The ceremony took place in the presence of a large number of friends and relatives. The bride, who was given away by her father, wore a traveling suit of navy blue with black hat trimmed with white plumes and carried a bouquet of roses. She was attended by Miss Gladys Kirkpatrick, and Harry White, brother of the bridegroom, was the groomsmen, Albert and Roy Watson acted as ushers.

After the ceremony Mr. and Mrs. White left for Charlottetown, where they will reside.

WANTED

Half a dozen girls for a few days in the Standard office. Apply this afternoon from 3 p. m. to 5 p. m.

WANTED

Bright boys, 14 to 16 years, to learn dry goods business. Good chance for advancement. Apply immediately. Manchester Robertson Allison, Limited.

WANTED

Male stenographer. Apply Box "X," care of Standard.

WANTED

Male stenographer. Apply Box "X," care of Standard.

WANTED

Male stenographer. Apply Box "X," care of Standard.

WANTED

Male stenographer. Apply Box "X," care of Standard.

WANTED

Male stenographer. Apply Box "X," care of Standard.

WANTED

Male stenographer. Apply Box "X," care of Standard.

WANTED

Male stenographer. Apply Box "X," care of Standard.

WANTED

Male stenographer. Apply Box "X," care of Standard.

WANTED

Male stenographer. Apply Box "X," care of Standard.