JUNE WEDDINGS

MacKellan-McAvity

A society wedding of much interest was solemnized in St. John's (Stone) church at four o'clock yesterday afternoon, when Miss Mabel Eldridge McAvity, second daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John A. McAvity, was married to Reverend John Angus MacKellan, pastor of St. David's Presbyterian church. Miss Catherine McAvity, sister of the bride, was bridesmaid and the bridegroom was supported by his brother, Peter MacKellan of Sydney, N. S. The ushers were Malcolm McAvity, brother of the bride, and Clifford and Percy McAvity and Carson Flood, cousins of the bride.

The church was beautifully decorated with white lilacs and the bridal party entered as the choir sang "The Voice That Breathed O'er Eden." The bride was handsomely attired in a gown of crepe de chene and wore a lace veil which is a family heirloom, having been used at weddings in the family for several generations. She carried a white prayer book. The bridesmaid wore a gown of pale yellow tulle with Dresden girdle and black lace and carried a bouquet of snapdragons and yellow daisies.

D. Arnold Fox officiated at the organ and was assisted in the musical numbers by Miss Olivia Murray, violinist.

After the ceremony a reception was held at the residence of the bride's parents, 58 Orange street, and Reverend Mr. MacKellan and Mrs. MacKellan left last evening for Quebec. They will sail from there for a two months' trip to the old country and the continent of Europe.

The bride, who is very popular in society, was the recipient of many exquisite presents, including a Schofield edition of the Bible, which was presented by the Sunday school teachers and co-workers of Miss McAvity in the Sunday school of St. John's church. The officers and members of the senior branch of the Willing Workers Mission, Band of St. David's church, presented to the bride a life membership of the Women's Foreign and Home Missionary Society.

Among the out of town guests who were present at the wedding were: Miss Sellers of Wellington, Delaware; Miss Humphrey of Chicago, cousin of the bride; Allan McAvity of Montreal, brother of the bride, and Mrs. McAvity, and Peter MacKellan of Sydney, N. S., brother of the bridegroom.

An evidence of the groom's popularity with his congregation is the presentation to him of a substantial piece of gold.

During the absence of Rev. Mr. MacKellan the pulpit of St. David's church will be supplied by fellow ministers. On their return Mr. and Mrs. MacKellan will reside at 72 Leinster street.

Esty-Evans
The home of Mr. and Mrs. J. Fred Evans, 187 Paradise row, was the scene of a pretty wedding last evening at 8:30 o'clock when the Rev. R. F. McKinnon united in marriage Miss Myrtle Lorens Evans and Wesley Herbert Esty. The bride, who was given away by her father, was prettily sown in white ivory satin with Juliet cap trimmed with orange blossoms and carried a large bouquet of roses.

Little Miss Helen Morgan in white silk acted as flower girl. The wedding march and the music was furnished under the direction of Morton L. Harrison.

A large number witnessed the ceremony and afterwards enjoyed supper. The groom's gift to the bride was a pearl necklace and to the flower girl a pearl pin. A very large number of handsome and useful gifts were received among which was a silver tea service from the groom's employer, C. A. Clark, a China cabinet complete from the bride's parents and a glass water set from the D. C. D. Club.

THREE BREAKS IN MONTH

IN CONSUMER COAL CO.
During the past month the premises of the Consumers Coal Co., Charlotte street have been broken into no less than three times, and although only seven dollars and one fountain pen valued at five dollars were stolen, the frequency with which the place has been entered is beginning to get on the nerves of the management.

In making their first entry the burglars smashed one of the side doors thus gaining entrance to the business office. Three weeks ago last Sunday the thieves broke down the two front doors and last Sunday the two doors in the rear of the coal shed. As far as can be learned no coal had been taken. The management has reported the matter to the police.

EVIDENCE AT YESTERDAY MORNING'S SESSION OF THE ROYAL COMMISSION

J. W. Brankley swears he paid money over to E. R. Teed, in Fredericton — Witnesses tell of making payments to Berry — Counsel in Tilts

The different witnesses so far examined in the investigation into the Dugal charges have testified that there was no extortion in connection with the contribution that it has been alleged, were paid for the purpose of creating a campaign fund. At the morning session yesterday several witnesses testified they had not paid into the fund but no threats had been made towards them and they had no difficulty in securing renewals of their timber limits.

Nothing has yet been brought out connecting Premier Fleming with an extortion of money.

P. E. Sayre, Arthur Hilyard and W. Brankley and William Sullivan said they had not made payments to the campaign fund and they had no difficulty in securing renewals of their crown timber land licenses.

Mr. Brankley in his evidence yesterday morning said he had acted as treasurer of the fund on the North Shore. He had met W. H. Berry and E. R. Teed in Mr. Fleming's room in the Barker House, Fredericton, but no mention had been made of the campaign fund while Mr. Fleming was present.

At the hearing yesterday morning James Robertson told of paying $1,330 on account of the Lynch Company, of which he was manager, and $2,167.50 on his own account.

F. C. Beattie of Stetson, Cutler & Co. said that his companies and subsidiaries had paid $20,000 to Messrs. Teed and Berry.

The hearing was then adjourned until ten o'clock this morning. Mr. Carvell said there was a fair chance of being able to induce Mr. Berry to return and give evidence and he would probably ask for an adjournment for this purpose.

James Robinson.

James Robinson was the first witness to take the stand. He was the holder of about 140 miles of crown timber lands. The licenses had been renewed under the Premier, but in 1913. He had paid about $2,600 in cash and gave a note for the balance. He was president of T. Lynch & Co., which controlled 122 1/2 miles. He had had several talks with Mr. Berry in regard to the renewals and he had been told by Berry that the lands would be classified as $100 a mile and the highest rate. Berry had also said that he hoped to get $15 a mile for a campaign fund and witness told him that if the others paid he would too. Berry had told him that Hon. John Morrissey did not know of the collection. Finally witness drew a check for $1,330 and left it in Mr. Brankley's office in a drawer. Witness paid on his own account $2,167.50 on June 27. Mr. Brankley was present at the time. Both payments were made at the same time. Some small parts of his own lands were not taxed.

He had not talked with Mr. Fleming about the payments.

Witness understood that the stumpage rates were to be fixed for ten years. Berry had promised it and he had understood that before he had seen Berry at all. He thought $100 a mile was higher than would be secured at auction. He did not think that the $15 a mile was necessary to the renewal of the licenses but he gave it voluntarily. He had paid the Lynch money on his own authority too. He said he had no financial interest in the Lynch company.

William Sullivan and J. A. Rundle were called but did not answer. Rundle was also called but did not answer.

F. E. Sayre.

F. E. Sayre was then sworn. He held considerable crown land. The firm of Sayre and Holly held 57 1/2 miles and he held 2 1/2 miles. He had renewed the license under the new act. He had had several conversations with Berry in connection with bonuses. Witness had told Berry he would not pay the $15 per mile, but Berry had not asked him for money.

After some argument among the counsel witness was allowed to say that E. R. Teed had asked him for the money.

Mr. Carter: "On what ground does my learned friend—"

Mr. Carvell: "We are getting right down to the centre now."

Mr. Carter: "Do you make that statement as a matter of fact or counsel?"

Mr. Carvell: "As both."

Mr. Carter: "I want to protest."

WAS TROUBLED WITH Weak and Dizzy Spells.

Heart Would Beat Something Awful.

Those feelings of weakness, those dizzy spells which come over people from time to time, are warnings that must not go unheeded.

They indicate an extremely weakened condition of the heart and a disordered state of the nerves. One dizzy spell may pass off, but eventually they will come frequently, and at the same time more serious.

Those who are wise will start taking Milburn's Heart and Nerve Pills before their case becomes hopeless, for they have no equal for restoring the heart to its usual strength, and making the nerves firm and steady.

Mrs. Len Kinney, Moose Mountain, N.B., writes: "I was troubled with weak and dizzy spells, and my heart would beat something awful. I got so I had those spells every day. I got so I would try and get up and then I would fall back. I got so I could not do anything. I ever took anything but I got Milburn's Heart and Nerve Pills. I can safely say they did me more good than anything I ever took. I feel like a very different woman. My friends often ask me what I have been taking and I always say 'Milburn's Heart and Nerve Pills.' I tell all my friends who say their heart troubles them, to take your pills."

Price, 50 cents per box, or 3 boxes for $1.25, at all dealers, or mailed direct on receipt of price by The T. Millburn Co., Limited, Toronto, Ont.

PROMINENT IN INQUIRY

L. A. Dugal, M. L. A., the man who laid the charges (on the left), Peter J. Hughes of Fredericton, his junior counsel (on the right) snapped by The Standard's staff photographer on way to the court house.

the bed and Mr. Teed opened the parcel. Later we went on to Newcastle. Q.—Mr. Snowball said he put $7,200 to your credit in the Bank of Montreal. Q.—When did you draw it out?

A.—I think on July 25th or 26th. Q.—How did you draw it?

A.—$20,000 in bills and $2,000 in smaller denominations. Q.—What did you do with it?

A.—I brought it to St. John and gave it to Mr. Teed here.

This concluded Mr. Carvell's examination of the witness and Mr. Teed cross-examined.

Q.—You were classified in the highest class?

A.—Yes. Q.—You had no difficulty in getting your renewal without making any contribution to the campaign fund?

A.—None whatever.

Fred C. Beattie, manager for Stetson, Cutler and Co., said his firm controlled timber limits and in addition controlled the New River Lumber Co., which controlled 25 1/2 miles of crown timber lands; the Ingewood Pulp and Paper Co., controlling 42 miles; Stetson, Cutler and Co., 47 1/2 miles; Shives Lumber Co., controlling 65 1/2 miles; the Richard Manufacturing Co., controlling 33 1/2 miles, of which D. E. Richard was manager. These, together amounted to 740 miles. Replying to Mr. Carvell, he said he thought all these licenses were renewed under the act of 1913. They were in classes A, B and C. He only knew about bonuses of the St. John office. He knew W. H. Berry. Berry did not talk to him about paying anything other than the bonus, but he did pay W. H. Berry and E. R. Teed on July 25 and Feb 17 $20,000 of the Dufferin Hotel. Mr. Cutler had instructed him to do so. The Shives Lumber Co. contributed $7,881.52 of this amount, and the Richards Co. $6,275.92. Witness stated that $10,456.56 was added by the Stetson, Cutler Co., making the first payment of $15,000. Later the latter company had paid an additional $5,000. He got no acknowledgment.

Examined by Mr. Teed, witness stated that the last payment was made to Mr. Berry at the Dufferin Hotel.

Re-examined by Mr. Carvell, witness stated that he knew Mr. Cutler had been subpoenaed to attend. He was in Boston and had written saying that members of his family were ill and he was unable to come. He meant no disrespect to the court and would be glad to come later.

William Sullivan testified that he controlled 13 1/2 miles of crown lands. His licenses were renewed, all in class A. He knew W. H. Berry. The latter did not ask him to pay anything besides the bonus. No one else representing the government asked him, and he paid nothing.

J. A. Rundle was called again, but failed to appear.

Mr. Carvell stated that Messrs. Rundle and Jones had been subpoenaed, and asked for an adjournment till Friday morning.

Judge McGowan:—Are these the only witnesses you have?

Mr. Carvell:—No, I will ask the court to adjourn a reasonable time to endeavor to get Mr. Berry and George Cutler here. Mr. Berry has been communicated with by telephone recently and I have reasonable grounds for supposing that he will be here. We can go right ahead with the other case. Adjournment was then made till 10 o'clock this morning.

Garden Party.

There was a large attendance at the garden party held on the grounds adjoining the Carleton Methodist church yesterday afternoon and evening. Refreshments were sold and a very enjoyable time was spent by all. As the evening wore along the weather became so cold that all present adjourned to the church school room where a short programme was carried through. Solos were rendered by Mrs. Murray Long and Miss Climo, while Newton Beers proved most entertaining.
