Tent Moth Arrives.

An advance party of the Tent moth has made its appearance in this city. This is the insect which annually comes here in swarms for the express purpose, apparently, of engaging in vigorous, slightly skirmishes with an imaginary enemy around and about the electric lights. No doubt the main body will soon arrive, and the usual large proportion of casualties may be looked forward to with confidence.

CHILDREN'S CORNER

Now, Jumbo, tho' he ran away
Was caught at last in greatest rage;
And painful 'tis to have to say
They had to put him in a cage.

Most all of us would think that he
Would now be better; but 'tis sad
To say he's worse, as you can see—
His conduct still is very bad.

HINTS WHICH MAY HELP YOU THIS WEEK

Marjory E. Slocum—Thanks very much for interesting letter. You should paint the picture more completely, Marjory. Try and think what each article should be in color.

Florence E. Macaulay—You made quite a good attempt, but the colors were hardly correct. Jumbo should have been grey, try again, Florence.

Myrtle Cox—Thanks so much for nice letter. The judge considered what you said re brown, and I see you have been highly commended. I shall look out for your attempt next week.

Annie Brown—Welcome to our happy corner, Annie. My word what a large family we are getting. I don't think any uncle had so many nephews and nieces before. Don't use your paints so thick.

Clifford Wetmore—Glad you are so interested in the corner. You do nice coloring, Clifford, but don't color the things in the distance so heavily.

Eva Baker—Yes, thanks, I am very well, although so busy with all my little nephews and nieces. Consider each thing you are coloring more carefully next time, Eva, and then you may win a prize.

Florence Holder—You did very well indeed, Florence, and you may have won the prize if you had used the right color for Jumbo. Try again. I am sorry you missed last week.

Donald C. Harper—You did very well, Donald, but try harder to get among the prize winners. Yes, we intend running the competition right on, and remember the corner is Uncle Dick's special part of The Standard and write him as you wish.

Francis Moir Parker—You did well, Francis, but did not complete the picture. Glad to have your little letters. Lena G. Fowler—You did a nice sketch this time, but you should consider more what colors you are using. I am always glad to help you in any way.

Ralph Haight—The letter and enclosure was sent to you at Barton, Digby, N. S. Perhaps it is at the post office, you better inquire. Let me know what they say.

Barbara Kelley—Hard lines, Barbara, for first prize again, but you did splendid work, have you learnt painting?

Ethel Thompson—Hearty congratulations Ethel, you certainly well deserve the prize, and did good and neat work. Hard lines for your sister, eh? Tell her she does the coloring rather too dark.

Edward Ritchie—Well done, Edward, you are a clever little artist.

Hilda E. C. Case—You do very good work, Hilda, but take more care what you color, for instance, you made the clouds blue. Now don't be so disappointed, but try again, as you may learn a lot by trying even if you don't get the prize.

Francis Glenn Adney—Hard lines, Francis, you nearly got the prize this time. Thanks for love, I wish I knew all of you personally. Perhaps I may some day. Ralph was aged five.

YOUTHFUL ARTISTS DID EXCELLENT WORK THIS WEEK

Number of Competitors greater and many of the Paintings near prize-winners.

The mail during the last week brought in a huge number of colored sketches of Jumbo from the youthful competitors in The Standard Painting Contest, and the work of judging same proved to be quite a difficult task, as the coloring was, on the whole, exceedingly well done. The boy and girl readers of The Standard are trying hard to out-work each other in their efforts to gain the prize of a dollar which is being offered weekly for the best colored picture.

This week we have decided to award the first prize of a dollar to Ethel Thompson (aged 10),
269 Charlotte street,
St. John, N. B.

The second prize of 50 cents to
Barbara Kelley (aged 11),
86 Burpee avenue,
St. John, N. B.

and the consolation prize of 25c. to
Edward Ritchie (aged 7),
Yarmouth, N. S.

We also highly commend the following:

Pearl Dean, Lorneville, N. B.
Francis Glenn Adney, Upper Woodstock.

A. Lorene Evans, St. John.
Verona Helena Milburn, Hopewell

Edith Mitchell, St. John.
J. Evelyn Kershaw, MacDonald Pt.

Margaret Hatton Green, St. John.
Ethel May Brown, Lancaster Heights

SUBSCRIPTIONS FOR DR. MACLAREN'S HOSPITAL.

The members of Brunswick Chapter, I. O. O. F., hope that all subscriptions towards the equipping of a New Brunswick ward for Dr. MacLaren's hospital at La Toque, France, will be in by Wednesday, May 19th, when the list will be closed.

Over $2,200 has been subscribed and this, with any other amounts that may come in before the 19th, will be forwarded to Dr. MacLaren at once.

The cards bearing the names of the different beds donated will be on exhibition at Townsend's music store, King street, next week, and a cordial invitation is extended to all who care to see them.

The chapter has also prepared a large case for the same hospital consisting of pyjamas, bed shirts, feather pillows, pillow cases, knitted slippers, 50 pairs socks, 12 hotwater bags with covers, 12 ice bags, handkerchiefs, bandages, towels, tea cosies, writing paper and envelopes, pencils, peppermint candy, gum, puzzles and numerous hospital supplies.

Work has already begun on a similar case for Dr. Duval whose wife is a member of Brunswick Chapter.

WHAT UNCLE DICK HAS TO TELL YOU

My Dear Nephews and Nieces—

I am delighted with your work this week, and also pleased you like this Corner so much. I wish some of you who live in the country could see the huge crowds who gather round the office windows, where we have put your clever colored sketches. I'm sure they never had any idea there were so many smart little artists in the district.

As I have been wondering if any of you can draw well, I am going to give a special prize this week to the nephew or niece who can make the best copy of Jumbo in pencil or pen and ink, not colored, besides the usual prizes for the best colored picture. Now see what you can do.

I have been wondering if some of my scores of nieces are as clever with the needle and thread as they are with their colors, and perhaps in a week or two I may arrange a most interesting contest, specially for you who are. However, more about it later. Now this week's picture is rather hard. I'm afraid but you must all try your hardest because there is $1.75 for the best, and as I told you last week ages are carefully allowed for. Read carefully what I have written.

ten to some of the boys and girls, as to the way to color. The answers may help you.

Always delighted to get all your letters.
With love and best wishes,
Your

UNCLE DICK,
The Standard, St. John, N. B.

D. A. WHITE, Esq.
