

Shediac

Shediac, Aug. 15.—The wedding of Miss A. J. Tait and Mr. E. Rose, Jr., took place at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. E. Rose, Jr., on Tuesday evening.

Mr. Geo. Scarborough, the well-known commercial man, who has been in the city for some time, is much improved and expects to soon be on duty.

Mr. Ernest Ross, Sr., of Quebec, accompanied by his son, Mr. E. Ross, arrived in town on Saturday and left on Tuesday, accompanied by Mrs. E. Ross, Jr., and baby daughter, Margaret, who had been spending some time at the home of Mr. and Mrs. R. D. Tait, in Shediac.

One of the largest and very enjoyable events of the season took place on Saturday, when from 4 to 5 p.m. Mrs. A. J. Tait, the bride, and her guests, including Mr. and Mrs. E. Rose, Jr., and baby daughter, Margaret, who had been spending some time at the home of Mr. and Mrs. R. D. Tait, in Shediac, were the guests of Mrs. E. Rose, Jr., at her home. The guests were seated at a long table in the dining room, where refreshments were served. Here the bride and groom were presented with a beautiful cake, and the wedding ceremony was performed by Rev. Dr. Weddell.

A pleasant function of the week was the four table bridge given by Mrs. J. A. McQueen at her home, in Shediac, on Tuesday evening. The guests were seated at four tables, and the game was played with much interest. The prizes were awarded to Mrs. J. A. McQueen, Mrs. E. Rose, Jr., and Mrs. E. Rose, Sr.

A very pleasant social function at which the young folk of the town, St. John, Cape, the Point, and Brule, were present, was the dance given by Miss Gladys Smith, at her summer cottage, Brule, on Monday evening. Guests were also present from Moncton and Dorchester. The dance was in honor of Miss Smith's cousin, Miss Leslie Grant and Miss Audrey Smith of St. John.

On Tuesday evening Mrs. A. J. Webster, at her home, Main street, East, entertained at a dance for her daughter, Miss Jean. The event was heartily enjoyed by the large number present, including young ladies and gentlemen from the town, and some from the vicinity and from Moncton and Dorchester. The spacious parlors had quantities of sweet peas and other flowers as decoration. Splendid music was rendered by Mr. Claud Delton, who presided at the piano.

The grounds were pretty and attractive in their festooning of Chinese lanterns and the summer house and other cosy corners arranged on the lawn were very inviting "sitting out" places for those who were not tiring of the light fantastic. Among the large number of guests, Miss Webster had a house-party of friends, including Miss Hutton, the Misses H. Harris, Miss P. Gray, Miss B. Fraser, Miss V. McEachern and Miss Nan Chapman, Moncton.

An event of the week much enjoyed by the ladies present, was the bridge of four tables, at which Mrs. H. H. Schaeffer was hostess, at her summer home, Cape Brule. The occasion of honor was her visit, Mrs. Charles Hickman of Dorchester.
