BUSINESS-LIKE.

Truro, March 19.—The talk of the town for the last week or two has been "the prospective public meeting of rate-payers," which materialized last night. This meeting was probably the most successful of its kind ever held here. To give a slight idea of here, such meetings are a slight idea of how such meetings are conducted in the "hub" of Nova Scotia, a brief outline of the whole affair is given. The mayor presided. There were four separate subjects to be considered and the time was divided, alloting a certain por-tion to each. The discussion was to close at 11 o'clock. There were polling booths hear the door at which any elector might near the door at which any elector might poll his vote, at any time during the meeting from 7.30 to 11 o'clock, and retire should he so wish. Everything in order, the mayor announced the first subject, explained it fully and threw it open to the meeting. This was discussed and the others were brought on in order in the others were brought on in order in a similar manner and, by 11 o'clock, the five subjects had been disposed of having had complete discussion and being made clear
