PAVORITE SONG is a royal octave volume of over 700 ragges, printed in the best style of the art, on the finest tinted paper, and illustrated with 125 thoroughly dailuty and delicate engray.

Solventially the cottons, Finest, Bonders, Cotton Warps, Linea, Bridges, Si of (20) tamous poems.

The illustrations are numerous and exquisitely wrought. What can be more beautiful than the one which reflects the chanting spot where-"Maud Moller, on a summer's day, Raked the meadows sweet with hay;" One of those lovely New England landscapes, which the engraver has represented in outlines as beautiful and artistic as the song it adorns.

Conspicuous, also, for its rare beauty, goes chattering

"Over stony ways,
In little starps and trebies."

* * * * * * "Till last by Philip's farm it flows, To join the brimm ng river." Altogether, this is one of the mo charming and elegant books ever issued by the American press—a fitting gift for lover or friend; an attractive ornament for the parlor table; a valuable addition to any family library.
