

G. W. V. A. SECRETARY RESIGNS POSITION

John W. Cunliffe Refuses To Reconsider Action—Resignation Accepted.

John W. Cunliffe, who has been secretary of the G. W. V. A. in this city almost since the organization of the local branch during the early war years, resigned from that office at a meeting of the executive of the association Friday night. After much hesitation on the part of the other members of the executive, and after Mr. Cunliffe refused to reconsider his action, his resignation was accepted. No successor has yet been appointed. Mr. Cunliffe has been actively engaged in the work of the association since his return from overseas. During the time he held office he made many friends, especially among the returned men and their families, whom he always sought to serve. He has also been in public work, notably on the city's housing commission. Mr. Cunliffe has no intention of leaving London. Much other business was also discussed at the meeting, but the committee refused to give further information for publication.

LARGE INCREASE IN CUSTOMS RETURNS

Collections For Year $2,044,096—An Increase of $145,314.

For the year ending March 31, 1921, the total collections of the customs department is $2,044,096.19, showing an increase of $145,314.57, as compared with the previous year. For the month of March, 1921, however, there is a decrease of $35,542.22, compared with the figures for the corresponding month in 1920. The total collections last month were $149,224.38, while in March of last year the figures were $184,766.60. This decrease is accounted for by the fact that in the total for March, 1920, there was a tax of seven and one-half per cent which does not appear in the returns for last month. This tax has been replaced by a sales tax of one per cent, and the total of this tax is not included in the total of the duty collected.

AUTOMOBILE STOLEN.
A Ford five-passenger touring car belonging to Fletcher Brown, 120 York street, was stolen from the corner of Dundas and Waterloo streets about 10:20 o'clock Friday night. The license number was G-722.

HIGH LONDON PRICES SLUMP DINING OUT

Popular Hotels and Restaurants Lay Decline to the Heavy Cost of Wines.

LONDON, March 22.—The gentle art of dining out has taken a decided slump in London and the proprietors of fashionable West End hotels and restaurants are beginning to have visions of going into the movies or some other more lucrative line of endeavor. Not that the people of London have taken to emulating the late Lord Mayor of Cork. They still eat, but necessity and high prices have forced them to be less fashionable about it. One of the main reasons is the cost of wines. That is where the big profits used to be in the days when a good bottle of champagne could be had for 10 shillings. But with fair champagne at 15 to 20 shillings and vintage wine at 30 shillings a bottle, only the wealthy can afford to order it and the wealthy have not so far preferred to eat at home or at their clubs. And the thing that has frightened away the wealthy of the old school is the bounteous and uncultured element that has crept into the fashionable restaurants. A cultured Britisher does not relish the idea of eating in the company of people who consume their food with more noise than grace, even if the restaurant has the name of catering to the select. So these newly rich have driven away the really high class trade and so the restaurant proprietors are in despair.

It might not be so bad if this new class of customers spent their money as freely as did the others, but the trouble seems to be that while the newly rich have acquired a champagne pocketbook they have not dropped their beer taste, so that they order ale and red wine, where the old school ordered the fizzy beverage. As a result the proprietors say their receipts are 50 per cent below what they were last year. But even all this plight is rosy compared to that of the wine merchants, who declare that the sale of champagne has been taxed thoroughly and completely to death.

MUSICAL TREAT FOR WESTMINSTER PATIENTS

Choir of Chelsea Green Presbyterian Church Provides Entertainment.

The auditorium of the Westminster Hospital was the scene of a delightful concert on Thursday evening, when the choir of the Presbyterian Church of Chelsea Green provided the entertainment. The chorus work was fine and varied, and the solo work was exceptionally good.

The following choruses were rendered: "O Canada," "Swanee River," "Dixie Land," "My Old Kentucky Home," "Lullaby Time," "Sweet and Low," "Hawaiian Lullaby," and the final, "Good Night" round. Miss Jean Maitland sang "The Servants' Chorus" and "The Legend of the Bell" from the opera, "Chimes of Normandy," in great style, and the chorus work in these pieces was very good. Miss Maitland also sang several solos. Mr. George Brash sang "Old Black Joe," "Annie Laurie," "The Wee House Among the Heather," and was in splendid voice. Miss Addie Haynes rendered "The Belle of St. Mary's," with the assistance of the chorus. Mrs. B. Parker, Mrs. W. Dullimore and Miss B. Dullimore delighted the audience with "Juanita," and the singing of "Whispering Hope," by Mrs. J. P. Arch, Mrs. W. French, Miss Addie Haynes and Miss Peggy Smith was a feature of the evening. Mrs. W. French sang "Let the Rest of the World Go By" and F. Aldridge furnished the remainder of the solo work with "Carry Me Back to Old Virginia," "Trippoli," and "Till We Meet Again." The duet, "In Old Manila," by Miss Jean Maitland and Mr. Frank Aldridge, proved very acceptable.

The patients joined very heartily in the choruses, and the instantly demanded encores and got them. The evening closed with a number of old army songs. F. Aldridge accompanying on the piano. Great credit is due to Miss Ella Symonds who accompanied all the program, in a finished manner. The concert was under the direction of F. Aldridge.

FULL INFORMATION ABOUT THE FAIRIES.

Fairies photographed in Yorkshire were shown, by means of a magic lantern, in the hall of the Theosophical Society. They and their habits suffered, at the same time, the indignity of being lectured upon. The lecturer was a firm believer, and, as for the camera, every precaution had been taken to see that the fairies were not taken by the usual sort; nothing very startling about them—except, of course, their existence. Mr. A. P. Slingsby, who presided over the demonstration, explained that to see a fairy you must be clairvoyant—which is pretty obvious. They can be photographed only if they become, with clairvoyant aid, partially materialized. Their duties are concerned with the color, growth and shape of flowers. They have a definite task, the scheme of nature, and are subject to evolution. They live on a very humble level, and are about as intelligent as a Newfoundland dog. The matter composing a fairy's body is plastic to thought. Currents of human thought give fairies the form in which they are seen by the clairvoyant. And so on. It is all relative, as a disciple of Professor Einstein might say.

SMALL BLAZE EXTINGUISHED.

The fire department was called about 9 o'clock Friday night to the junk and metal warehouse of White & Lewis, on Simcoe street, where fire had broken out in a pile of waste and rags. The amount of the damage was small.

BABY'S HEALTH IN THE SPRING

The Spring is a time of anxiety to mothers who have little ones in the home. Conditions make it necessary to keep the baby indoors. He is often confined to over-heated, badly-ventilated rooms and catches colds which rack his whole system. To guard against this, a box of Baby's Own Tablets should be kept in the house and an occasional dose given the baby to keep his stomach and bowels working regularly. This will prevent colic, constipation or colds and keep baby well. The Tablets are sold by medicine dealers or by mail at 25 cents a box from The Dr. Williams' Medicine Company, Brockville, Ont.

WARLOW SENT FOR TRIAL ON MURDER CHARGE

Killed His Wife and Then Turned Gun On Himself.

EMBEZZLER SENTENCED

Robert Watson Blames Drinking and Gambling For His Downfall.

WINDSOR, April 1.—John Warlow was sent up for trial at the fall assizes court at Sandwich on a charge of murdering his wife, Louisa, at Walkerville, following a preliminary hearing before Magistrate W. E. Gundy in Walkerville this afternoon. Testimony taken at the inquest was accepted as evidence.

Mrs. John Tierney, an eyewitness of the shooting, was the only witness to take the stand, and added to statements made at the inquest with a view to clearing up some of the movements of the principals prior to the tragedy. Warlow was seen by his husband on the night of March 19 in Walkerville, and died in the Hotel Dieu a couple of hours later. Following the shooting of his wife Warlow turned the gun on himself and was a patient in the same hospital until March 25, when he was released and formally placed under arrest on a murder charge. J. H. Rodd, K.C., has been retained to defend Warlow.

Suspended Sentence.
Stephen Bedford of Windsor was allowed out on suspended sentence, when he appeared before Magistrate W. E. Gundy today in Walkerville, charged with forgery of checks to the value of $700. Bedford has made restitution and was required by the magistrate to provide two sureties of $1,500 each.

Given Two Years.

Robert S. Watson of Walkerville was sentenced to ten years by Magistrate Gundy in the Walkerville police court this afternoon for embezzlement of funds from the Studebaker Corporation of Canada. Watson was charged with the theft of $12,000, covering a period of almost two years. The sentence is the longest term imposed by Magistrate Gundy since his appointment to the bench.

Walkerville Whiteside, appearing for Watson, blamed drinking and gambling for the accused's downfall, saying that in one day at the races in Windsor Watson had lost as much as $2,400. Watson had taken a course at the University of Edinburgh with the intention of entering the ministry, the court was told.

Had a Busy Month.
Fines imposed in court cases in Windsor during March totalled $8,080, according to figures issued today. January and February furnished an aggregate of $10,511. During the quarter ending March 31, 1921, the court receipts since the first of the year are much in excess of the fines imposed for the same period in 1920.

During the month of March, the average attendance in the schools of Windsor was 90 per cent. To fine Watson for the loss of a month of school is credited this standing.

FANATIC KILLS PARISH PRIEST

Father Jarecki Called To His Door and Shot

[Special to The Advertiser.]

DETROIT, April 1.—Called to the door of the parochial residence on Tenth street, Wyandotte, Rev. Father Leo Jarecki, 41 years old, parish priest of Our Lady of Mount Carmel Roman Catholic Church, was shot and killed at 9 o'clock tonight by a man, believed by the police to have been a religious fanatic.

The bullet, fired from a .38-calibre revolver, struck the priest in the right cheek and took an upward course, lodging in the brain. Although still breathing when his housekeeper reached his side, Father Jarecki died on the way to Elbert Hospital. The whole affair is shrouded in mystery, both the police and Bishop Gable, in charge of Detroit Diocese, declaring the slain priest to have been one of the most beloved in the district. The police, in looking for a motive, learned that Father Jarecki had a considerable amount of money in the house, which he had recently collected to defray the cost of a chime of bells, but the assassin made no effort to take anything.

CAUCUS FAVORS TAKING RAILWAY

Immediate Acquisition of the Grand Trunk Is Favored by Government.

OTTAWA, April 1.—Government members gathered in caucus today and were requested to tender advice to the cabinet as to the action which should be taken in connection with the pending acquisition of the Grand Trunk Railway System. April 9 is the date which was set for the making of an award of the board of arbitration, and for the final acquiring of the road. The Grand Trunk has been pressing for an extension of the time, and in the meantime it is stated has been urging the need of extensive financial assistance. The issue now is whether the Government shall take over the road on the date stipulated or grant an extension of time. While no definite conclusion was arrived at at the caucus, it was understood that the consensus of opinion was in favor of immediate acquisition on the date specified.

MADE DANGEROUS FIND.
DUBLIN, April 1.—A child found a bomb today in the ruins of the Ross Carbery police barracks, the scene early yesterday of a Sinn Féin attack. The child handed it to a policeman, who, seeing the pin was missing, threw it into the street. It exploded, killing two persons and seriously wounding three others. Several persons suffered minor injuries.

POSSESS GOOD HEALTH BY LOOKING AFTER THE BOWELS

A free motion of the bowels, once or twice a day, should be the rule of everyone, as half the ills of life are caused by allowing the bowels to get into a constipated condition. When the bowels are allowed to become constipated, the stomach gets out of order, and the liver does not do its work properly on account of holding back the bile, so that it does not pass through the bowels, but is allowed to get into the blood, thus causing a poisoning of the whole system. If you would escape constipation, sick and bilious headaches, heartburn, floating specks before the eyes, coated tongue, foul breath, the nasty irritating, itching and protruding piles, you should keep your liver stirred up by the use of Milburn's Laxa-Liver Pills.

These pills, being purely vegetable, keep your liver working actively, helping it to resume its proper functions, and thereby removing the bile that is circulating in the blood and poisoning the whole system. Mrs. H. Barrows, Enfield, N. S., writes: "I was troubled with such headaches and constipation. One day a friend told me of Milburn's Laxa-Liver Pills. I got two vials, and found they did me a world of good. I therefore have great faith in them." Milburn's Laxa-Liver Pills are 25c a vial at all dealers or mailed direct on receipt of price by The T. Milburn Company, Limited, Toronto, Ont.

Beginning Monday we have arranged with the factory for a practical demonstration all next week. Beginning Monday an expert demonstrator will be in this section in the basement to advise and inform you regarding the care and use of aluminum cooking utensils. If you have any questions regarding same bring them along and the demonstrator will be pleased to advise you.

A linoleum on the floor is only half ready for use

Because of their porous bodies, linoleums and compositions floorings should be considered as unfinished board floors, and should be given a fairly heavy coat of Old English Wax. The hard surface gained in this way keeps the dirt from adhering, and it can be easily swept up. Also prevents cracking by keeping water out of the pores. When necessary to clean linoleums, always use Old English Brightener. It keeps the linoleum soft and pliable and protects the surface. Finish your linoleum this way today.
